Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letters of the 26th ultimo, and 30th January last, relative to the getting out of stone for the building of the proposed school at Red Bluff; and in reply I beg to inform you that in the absence of any estimate of the cost of gathering the stones for the building, it is difficult to say whether the course proposed by you should be followed; but under the circumstances stated

The Indians' Camp.
