

cost of his attendance during May and June, so that the expenditure is decidedly on the increase. You will observe that only three patients were treated by the Doctor during July.

It is considered that the cost of medical service is too high, and therefore I shall be glad to receive a recommendation from you in this matter. Be good enough to state whether you would recommend placing the Doctor on salary. If so, you should state the amount of salary and also mention the reserves at which the Doctor should attend in return for a fixed rate of payment.

Copy of Agent Sibbald's letter of the 9th August, and copy of the doctor's letter of the 31st July relative to the July account are enclosed herewith.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
