

I did not give her a cigarette. After she stopped crying she lay there relaxed and composed again. It was then that I had sexual intercourse with her.

She did not state until then I said I told her if she would not say anything I would not rape her. That is not correct.

I talked for a while and then told her to dress.

I rejoined Mr. Gill and told her she was a nice girl and not "stuffy".

While this was going on Mr. Gill was standing guard to keep away other people.

After going to the kitchen again I returned to Mrs. Butler's room with me into the room. She came without any force other than the fact I had the pistol in my hand. She seemed to understand immediately what was expected of her. She undresses herself, laid down on the bed, pulled up her legs and spread them and waits for me to have sexual intercourse.
