

LIST OF DONATIONS.

---

In addition to the Gibb Bequest, the more important gifts to the Association of Money and Works has been as follows :

---

|                                                              |                                           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| Amount brought forward as detailed in last Report,           | $6,965.00                                |
| Mr. John Harris, four Oil Paintings,                         | 1,400.00                                  |
| “ John McLennan, M. P., one Oil Painting,                    | 400.00                                    |
| “ Albert Bierstadt, one Oil Painting,                        | 1,000.00                                  |
| “ Richard B. Angus, one Oil Painting,                        | 500.00                                    |
| “ W. C. Smillie, one Oil Painting,                           | 300.00                                    |
| “ M. H. Gault, M. P., £100 stg. to purchase an Oil Painting, | 500.00                                    |
| “ John C. Baker, Stanbridge, Q., (per Mr. Popham,)           | 500.00                                    |
| „ G. A. Drummond,                                            | 500.00                                    |
| “ Alexander Murray,                                          | 100.00                                    |
| “ Wm. McLachlan,                                             | 100.00                                    |
| “ Charles E. Morton,                                         | 100.00                                    |
| Dr. T. Sterry Hunt,                                          | 100.00                                    |
|                                                              | <hr style="width: 20%; margin: 0 auto;"/> |
|                                                              | $12,465.00                               |
|                                                              | <hr style="width: 20%; margin: 0 auto;"/> |