The Central Committee presents the new study book for Women's Foreign Mission Societies for 1927-28.

"A STRAIGHT WAY TOWARD TOMORROW," by Mary Schaffler Platt. An intensely interesting book which will broaden the outlook, and deepen the sympathy, for the children of every land. Price 60 cents.

"PLEASE STAND BY", by Margaret Applegarth, is the Junior study book on Foreign Missions. It is written, as the name suggests, in radio language, and will make a special appeal to the children. Price 60 cents.

For Mission Bands we have a set of Foreign Mission Studies which appeared last year in the "Link" and are now printed in leaflets. They are:

1. The Work of Christ's Kingdom in India.
2. The Work of Christ's Kingdom in India—Evangelistic.
3. The Work of Christ's Kingdom in India—through medical missions.
4. A Trip to India.

These are 5 cents each.

The Home Mission Studies for Bands which appeared some time ago in the "Visitor" are now to be had in leaflet form. They are:

1. The Work of Christ's Kingdom in Canada.
2. Grande Ligne.
3. Western Canada.
4. Home Missions in Ontario.

These come at 3 cents each.

Order a supply of MITE-BOXES for distribution among your members during the summer months. 25 cents a dozen.

A MITE-BOX CONVENTION—a dialogue for seven children, with song, very good for a meeting when mite-boxes are brought in. Price 7 cents.
