The Upward Look

As You Come to Him by Faith

“As ye have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him; rooted and built up in Him; and established in the faith, abounding therein.”—Col. ii, 6, 7.

In these words the apostle teaches us the weighty lesson, that it is not only by faith that we first come to Christ and are united to Him, but that it is by faith that we are to be rooted and established in our union with Christ. Not less essential for the commencement, is faith for the progress of the spiritual life. Abiding in Jesus can only be by faith.

There are earnest Christians who do not understand this; or, if they admit it in theory, they fail to realize its application in practice. They are very zealous for a free gospel, with our first acceptance of Christ, and justification by faith alone. But after on this they think everything, depends on our diligence and faithfulness. While they firmly grasp the truth, “The sinner shall be justified by faith,” they have hardly found a place in their scheme for the latter truth, “That just shall live by faith.” They have never understood what a perfect Saviour Jesus is, and how He will each day do for the sinner just as much as He did the first day when he came to Him.
They know not that the life of grace is always and only a life of faith, and that in the relationship of Jesus the one daily and unceasingly the life of the disciple is to believe, because believing is the one channel through which Divine grace and strength flow out into the heart of man. This is the of the believer remains ever and eternal to the last; it is only as he daily comes, all empty and helpless, to his Saviour to receive of His life and strength, that he can partake of the fruits of righteousness to the glory of God. Therefore it is: “As ye have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him; rooted in Him, and established in the faith, abounding therein.” As you come to Jesus, so abide in Him, by faith.

And if you would know how faith is to be exercised in thus abiding in Jesus, to be rooted more deeply and firmly in Him, you have only to look back to the time when first you received Him. You remember well what obstacles at that time there appeared to be in the way of your believing.
There was first your viciousness and guilt; it appeared impossible that the promise of pardon and love could be for such a sinner. Then there was the sense of weakness and death; you felt not the power of the surrender and the trust to which you were called.
And then there was the future; you dared not undertake to be a disciple of Jesus while you felt so sure that you could not persevere in His way, and would speedily again be unfaithful and fall. These difficulties were like mountains in your way. And how were they removed? Simply by the word of God. That word, as it were, compelled you to believe that, notwithstanding guilt in the past, and weakness in the present, and unfaith-fulness in the future, the promise was sure that Jesus would accept and save you. On that word you ventured to come, and were not deceived; you found that Jesus did indeed accept and save.

Apply this your experience in coming to Jesus, to the abiding in Him.
Now, as then, the temptations to keep you from believing are many. When you think of your sins since you became a disciple, your heart is cast down with shame, and it looks as if it were too much to expect that Jesus should indeed receive you into perfect intimacy and the full enjoyment of His holy love. When you think how utterly, in times past, you have failed in keeping the most sacred vows, the consciousness of present weakness makes you tremble at the very idea of answering the Saviour's command with the promise, “Lord, from henceforth I will abide in Thee.” And when you set before yourself the life of love and joy of holiness and fruitfulness, which in the future are to flow from abiding in Him, it is as if it only serves to make you still more hopeless; you, at least, can never attain to it. You know yourself too well.

It is no use expecting it, only to be disappointed; a life fully and wholly abiding in Jesus is not for you.

Oh that you would come and begin simply to listen to His word, and to ask only the one question: Does He really mean that I should abide in Him? The answer His word gives is so simple and so sure: By His almighty grace you now are in Him; that same almighty grace will indeed enable you to abide in Him. By faith you became partakers of the initial grace; by the same faith you can enjoy the continuous grace of abiding in Him.

And if you ask what exactly it is that you now have to believe that you may abide in Him, the answer is not difficult. Believe first of all what He says: “I am the Vine.” The safety and the fruitfulness of the branch depend upon the strength of the vine.
Think not so much of the grafting as a branch, nor of the abiding as a duty, until thou hast first had thy soil filled with the faith with which Jesus is. He really will be to thee all that a vine is—holding thee fast, nourishing thee, and making Himself every moment responsible for thy growth and thy fruit. It is the thing else, that will keep thee abiding in Him. A soul filled with large thoughts of the Vine will be a strong branch, and will abide confidently in Him. Be much occupied with Jesus, and believe much in Him, as the True Vine.

And then, when Faith can well say, “I am His Vine,” let it further say, “I speak to those who say they are Christ's disciples, and on them I cannot so earnestly press the importance of exercising their faith in saying, “I am in Him.” It makes the abiding so simple. If I realize clearly as I meditate: Now I am in Him, I see at once that there is nothing wanting but just my consent to be what He has made me, to remain where He has placed me. I am in Christ: This simple thought, carefully, prayerfully, believingly uttered, removes all difficulty as if there were some great attainment to be reached.

It is astonishing how such a faith will work out all that is further implied in abiding in Christ. There is in the Christian life great need of watchfulness and of prayer, of self-denial and of striving, of obedience and of diligence. But “all things are possible to him that believeth.” This is the victory that overcometh, even our faith.” It is the faith that continually closes its eyes to the weakness of the creature, and finds its joy in the sufficiency of an Almighty Saviour, that makes the soul strong and glad. It gives itself up to be used by the Holy Spirit into an even deeper appreciation of that wonderful Saviour whom God hath given us,—the Infinite Immortal.

Some men see little, feel little, enjoy little; and only bewail the poverty that is under the sun. Life is “a dim sickly imagery” is wiped out the better. But deploring the hollowness of the world and the monotony of of our days is only a declaration that the deficiencies of our own spirit has prevented us laying hold on the infinite richness of nature and life. Men of purer, deeper nature, are simply bewitched and bewildered by the endless wealth of the world.

Nothing is easier than to dazzle the multitude with wild thoughts that seem new, because they are bold.
