By this means they had carried out the besu ideal of St. Paul, that "God loveth the cheerful giver." For this reason he had no hesistation in believing in the success of the Association. They would doubt-less be successful, but never more suc-cessful than he desired them to be. He asked them to proceed with faith and courage, and to add another laurel to their crown, and thereby make their Bishop feel doubly proud of their suc-cess. C. M. B. A. directory of the city of Montreel has been compiled and published by Brother Finn, one of the first as well as one of the most ener-getic workers in the ranks of the organ isation since its inception. Montreal contains a much larger membership than any other city in the Dominion, and it was found necessary that a hand book of this kind should be pisced in possession of the members. It will perform an im-portant service, insumuch as it will to a considerable degree be the means of bringing about amongst our brothers that acquaintance and friendship which are both so necessary and so easential in carrying out the fundamental idea at the very root of the organistion. Brother Finn promises their orown, and thereby make their Bishop feel doubly proud of their suc-cees. After His Lordship concluded his remarks Rev. D. J. McIntosh, P. P., who is a most active member as well as Spiritual Adviser, rose and thanked His Lordship for his kind words of approba-tion, and hoped His Lordship's blessing would cause it to prosper. After show-ing the great benefits of the C. M. B. A. as a benevolent society, the rules of which required us to be good practical Catholics, bound to help one another in distress, he called upon Brother O'Keefe, President of Branch No. 134, of Carleton, N. B, who, happening to be in town, attended the recep-tion. The visiting Brother spoke in elcquent terms of the association, show-ing clearly the great assistance it ren-ders to the widow and orphans of de-ceased members and of its great need as a social organization, how he himself was enabled through his visiting card to pass the time pleasantly while in town and of the assistance he foraw it would be to members in business. After he had tinished His Lordship again race and thanked Riveher O'Keefe fundamental idea at the very root of the organization. Brother Finn promises to publish a Dominion Directory in 1691. This will be a work of still greater usefulness and merit. Our members who are in business will find both books very useful advertising mediums. The announcements are confined to members only. 1891.

On that account the members of the association gladly welcomed the opportunity afforded by His Lordship's visit to thank him for his kindness and assistance. On the even-of the 12th His Lordship arrived from the town of Sydney, and about 8 p. m. he was conducted to the hall of the associa-tion, accompanied by our Rev. Brother TIRED OF THE TYRANT. London, June 30—The Chronicle says the recasting of the Ministry is not a dis-tant event. It thinks the raising to the peerage of W. H. Smith, Government leader in the House of Commons, is not unlikely. It says that Sir John Gorst will probably replace Mr. Balfour as Chief Secretary for Ireland ; that Lord Hartington is likely to become Prime Minister ; that Lord Salisbury will be Secretary for Foreign Affairs ; that Sir Henry James will be Home Secretary and that perhaps Lord Randolph Church ill will receive a portfolio. He was ordained by Bishop Moreau thirteen years age, and commenced life as a priest, teaching for three years at St. Hyacinthe College. The next four years were spent as assis-tant at the cathedral of the same city. In 1854, at the invitation of Dean Wagner, he visited Windsor, and accepted the sppointment of Archbishop Walsh, then the ordinary of London diocese, to the newly formed mission of Walkerville. The church of this parish was built through the zeal and indefatigable labor of Very Rev. Dean Wagner. Its burnish oross-surmounted steeple can be seen for miles around over lake, land and river. It stands a monument worthy of its name, "Our Lady of Luke St. Clair" The parochial residence was built by Father Lapierre, and cost about $2,000. For six years the young priest labored in this portion of the Master's vineyard. He endeared himself to his people by his kindness, patience and exemplary piety, particularly at the bed of sickness, and by instructing the children for the important duty of receiving well the Holy Eucharist. Three weeks ago the children in his charge received their first Communion. The following Saturday a relapse of la grippe confined Father La-pierre to his room. This being the third attack of the epidemic, the physician in attendance warned the young priest of attack of the epidemic, the physician in

ST. WILLIAM'S DAY.

The children attending the R. C. Separate school assembled this morning in the church of the Holy Angels to celebrate the feast of St. William. Some celebrate the feast of St. William. Some appropriate hymns were sung by the favorite choir during the service, after which Rev. Father Flannery spoke on the necessity of children loving God and serving Him in the innocent days of childhood. He said that in the month of June are observed the feast days of several devout servants of God, whose tander youth was employed in acts of tender youth was employed in acts of holiness. St. Basil, whose feast occurs on Athens, knew but two streets of that city-the one leading to school and the street leading to be church. St. Aloy sus, kept on the 21st, St. John's on the

He claimed for the Parnellites the credit for the present disorganized condition of the Govern-ment and for the great change that had been wrought in English opinion re-garding Ireland. He excused the Irish members who were absent at the recent critical division on the ground that it was as much of a surprise to them as to the Conservatives. It would have been useless to issue a whip, because it was a notorious fact that the Government opened all the Irish members' letters, and a whip would thus have defeated its own object. FIRST COMMUNION. The children, to the number of one hundred and tour, who have for some time past been preparing to receive first Communion, received that holy sacrament in St. Peter's Cathedral on last Sunday morning, at the hands of Rev. M. J. Tiernan, chancellor of the diocese. The youthful candidates were most carefully prepared, Rev. Fathers Tiernan and Noonan devoting much time to the important work. The girls were neatly attired in white and the boys also in a becoming manner. Mass was also in a becoming manner. Mass was celebrated at half-past eight o'clock by Rev. Father Tiernan. He preache a very appropriate sermon, setting forth the great importance of the act forth the great importance of the act the children were about to perform, He impressed upon the minds of the candidates the necessity of keeping their young minds pure and stainless through life. This would be, as it were, the starting point in their career as young soldiers of the cross, and how beautiful would it not be in the eyes of their Maker to witness in the course of their Maker to witness in the course of their ives that same holy purity and innocence which now animated their young cence which now animated their young hearts. The sermon made a deep im-pression, not only on the children, but on all others who were present in the cathedral. The parents of nearly all the candidates were present, and it must have been to them an infinite gratifica tion to notice the touching ceremony whereby the children have become active members of Christ's household. In the afternoon, at half-past three o'clock, Vespers and Benediction of the Most Holy Sucrament took place. of remark that the Parnellites were present in greater strength than any other party. It would be unjust on his part to withhold his testimony as to the manner in which the members of the Irish party had uncomplain-ingly performed their duty for the past five years. He was convinced that they had not much longer to wait for the har-vest. The Government would continue for a time to drag out a wretched and feeble existence, diminishing the possibil-ity of a life hereafter. Whatever they at-tempted he saw no hope for them but extinction. Therefore the prospects of Ireland were bright in the hands of Mr. Giadstone.
