discontented because I couldn't have my own will. Our life is determined for us, and it makes the mind very free when we give up wishing and only think of bearing what is laid upon us, and doing what is given us to do.—George Eliot.

WHEN A LIFE COMPANY

receives from its Policyholders such informal and spontaneous expressions of approval as the following, it is clear that the relations between Policyholder and Company are all they should be:—

"Your favor in hand enclosing amount of dividend on Policy. This is just like finding money. I only wish that all the Policies I have might pay the same."

Those contemplating Life Insurance will do well to look into the Policies that earn such invariable approval—clearly shown in the unprecedented business being written by

LINENS

No investment that can be made will produce greater dividends in immediate pleasure and future satisfaction than Household Linens for the bride, bearing the Catto label.

Aside from its intrinsic value their linens have the distinction of representing the perfection of the weaver's art.

The careful and prompt attention to Mail Orders is a feature of their establishment.
