calling, and make his children discontented with country life. Warmly the News defends the farmer, and praises the health and freedom of his life.

The News has the right point of view except, we think, that it exaggerates the importance of the jokes at the farmer's expense. Who mocks at the farmer? Nobody whose opinion is worth having. Among intelligent city men who have reached years of maturity the attitude toward the farmer is one not only of respect but of envy. You hear them sighing for the joys of country life, and sorrowing because the hard necessity of earning a living chains them to a desk in the city. You find them getting as near as they can to country life by taking a cottage in the suburbs, raising chickens, and hopelessly studying the seed catalogues that bloom in the spring. You see the rich city man buying a farm and taking more joy in his expensively-raised crops than in all the shows and luxuries of the metropolis.

Young city people sometimes talk of the "hayseed" and the "rube" thoughtlessly. They will grow out of it, at least the best of them will. Those to whom city life is a novelty sometimes jeer at the country and at the farm, because of a desperate desire to look like knowing fellows, experienced men of the world who know the names of the streets. You will observe that it is the fresh and young conductor who is impatient with the slow-moving stranger from the country. The wise old conductor eyes the stranger wistfully. He has long seen wheels turning and men flying about from place to place and big crowds and tall buildings, and has concluded that all is vanity.

MANITOBA FAIR DATES

Forty-seven agricultural societies of the Province of Manitoba have co-operated with the Managing Director of these organizations in arranging the date of their show for this year, in order that expert judges may be supplied for the judging of live-stock, dairy and agricultural products. The dates were all arranged at a special meeting of the delegates at the recent Agricultural Societies' Convention, held at the Agricultural College. Societies not represented in the list of dates will secure judges on their own account, as it is impossible for the Managing Director to supply competent men to shows not connected in circuits.
