No Guesswork.

Our method of testing eyes and fitting them with glasses, is modern, up-to-date and scientific.

THERE IS NO GUESS-WORK

It costs you nothing to let us examine your eyes.

If you are suffering from headaches, pain in back of eyes, or vision is blurred, or you get dizzy easily. Something is the matter with your eyes. We fit glasses that relieve the strain.

Prices Moderate.

Pert Paragraphs

Burned to death was the fate of a four year old girl in Chicago recently. The little girl refused to divide some candy with a boy of five and he set fire to her clothing.

A most ingenious weapon was found on a young man of twenty two, when he was arrested by detectives in New York.
The weapon was a combination revolver and knife. One of the blades of the knife acted as a trigger while another blade acted as the barrel for the revolver.

The new boarder sniffed at the contents of his coffee cup and set it down.
"Well," queried the landlady in a peevish tone, "have you anything to say against the coffee?"

"Not a word," he answered. "I never speak ill of the absent."

An onion fiend was arrested by a railroad special agent, sitting eating the savory vegetables in a freight car which was stopped in front of his adobe. He told the Judge, when arraigned that he had always been addicted to onions, and he couldn't resist when a carload stepped right in front of his door. The Judge fined and sent him to the Municipal Farm, assigning him to the garden department, "where there are lots of onions."

Mr. J. W. Singster, a councillor of Listowel, seems to be the mark for tire thieves in Listowel. On former occasions during the summer, joy-riders have made use of his car but returned it, but this last time it was found some miles from town stripped of its tires, windshield, slip covers, tool boxes and a panel clock. Earlier in the summer tires were taken from his garage, and his total loss is eleven tires, besides the other articles mentioned.

Again the Canadian Red Cross Society has undertaken to do its share of worthy work on the continent of Europe.
The appalling disaster that has followed the wake of the war must needs appeal to every human being when it is remembered that there are over 10,000,000 children in Europe who are fatherless from the war; Poland has about 500,000; in Czecho-Slovakia, Austria and Hungary there are at least 1,000,000 war orphans of whom some 5,000 were recently found wandering almost like animals in the Ruthenian mountains. An appeal is being made for funds and should receive hearty support.

Cheerfulness is about the only contagious thing we aren't afraid of.

A dispatch from Paisley says: Credit auction sales may soon be a thing of the past. Judging from a cattle sale here the other day. A man was appointed to draw up notes for purchasers of the cattle, but his services were not required as every animal was sold and paid for in cash by the farmers. There were some seventy head of cattle sold.

Smith—Wenzel

A very quiet wedding took place at Guelph Methodist church at high noon on Tuesday of last week, Nov. 2, 1920, when Rev. Mr. Walker united in marriage, Miss Rena Elvira, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith, formerly of Carrick, and Mr. Karl Wenzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wenzel, all of Toronto. The bride was dressed in a suit of battleship grey with hat to match.
After the ceremony, the young couple took a trip to Toronto and other points.
Mr. and Mrs. Wenzel will take up residence in Owen Sound where the groom has taken a position with McQualter's Limited. A wide circle of friends will join in extending best wishes.—Hanover Post.

Mr. McLennan, of Bertie, was killed last Saturday when a load of turnips passed over his body.

A Valiant Battle
For Their Lives

A WORLD in itself—a dauntless little world, each citizen battling for life!
Life is very dear, when you are young, and so many patients at the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives are still in their eager twenties. Yet each has something of tragedy and of heroism in that short life's history. Here, a girl who cared for orphaned brothers and sisters; there, a school teacher alone in the world; work; a housemaid; a factory hand; a young mother; or, amongst the men, a laboring man, friendless and penniless; a farm hand, who has wife and children; a fireman; a miner; a telegraph operator; a machinist.
Ah—how they want to live! And how well spent the money restoring them to health and strength up there in Muskoka!
Contributions may be sent to Sir William Gage, 84 Spadina Avenue, Toronto, or to Geo. A. Reid, Treasurer, 223 College Street, Toronto.
