WETMORE-FITZGERALD.

Miss Mary Wetmore, of Lancaster Heights, daughter of the late Mr. Edwin P. Wetmore, was married in the Church of the Assumption, West Side, yesterday afternoon, to Thomas Fitzgerald. The groom is a St. John man who left here some years ago, and is now situated in Calgary, where he is manager of the Canadian Pacific Telegraph Co. Rev. J.J. O'Donovan performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Bessie Wetmore, and Mr. Ralph Larabee, of Calgary, supported the groom. The bride was given away by her uncle. Mr. Percy W. Wetmore. She wore a travelling suit of brown broadcloth. wore a costume of blue broadcloth. The choir of the Church of the Assumption sang special music. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald left last evening for their home in Calgary, visiting Canadian and American cities on the way. Many presents were received by the bride, who is very popular young lady, one being from the choir of the Church of the Assumption, she being the organis there for some years.

HOLLETT-MacLAGGAN.

McADAM, Sept. 16. - A wedding of some interest to the people of this town ook place at St. George's church this afternoon, when Miss Dora Winifred Hollett was united in marriage with Mr Amos MacLaggan The little church was prettily decorated with plants and cut flowers for the occasion, and was filled to overflowing with friends of the young couple. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Bolt. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. William Hollett, and was attired in cream olienne. Her travelling costume was nade of Copenhagen blue, with hat to match. At the close of the ceremony the party and friends went to the home of the bride's parents, where a luncheon was served. The esteem in which the young couple were held was shown by the many useful gifts received. The happy couple left on the Boston exprese amid showers of rice and the best wishes of many friends.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Rev. M. E. Fletcher, West Best decorative painting on silk, mus- | Howe, of Geary, Sunbury Co., was united in marriage with Miss Isabelle Carr, of West St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Fletcher. The bride was becomingly attired in a navy blue travelling dress and was unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Howe expect to make their home in Geary.
