HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th. 1913 "I can highly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" as they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking "Fruit-a-tives" for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found ONLY pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking "Fruit-a-tives" after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case".

A SUNDAY SERMON BY PASTOR RUSSELL

Formally Opened in the Boston Theatre on Sunday.

BIG SUCCESSES EVERYWHERE

in Sermon Pastor Russell's Subject Was, "Satan's Great Lie-What Harm It Did"—The First Lie-Where It Was Told-Why It Was Told-To Whom It Was Told-Its Result-Its Repetition-The Disastrous Results to Humanity -All Manner of Crimes Are Its Fruitage-The Only Remedy-Why?-When?-How?

Boston, Mass. February 8th .-Pastor Russell i Boston Theatre to-day conducted the opening ex-Photo-Drama Creation, which at this theatre every Sunday at 10 A. M. and 3 and 8 P. M.

Since the Pho-to-Drama of Creation was first shown to the public at The Temple in New York City on January 11, which was the beginning of a series of world-wide produc-tions, it has been introduced in several cities to crowded houses, in all of which it continues to enjoy a wide patronage.

Profound Bible scholars say that there is nothing of the kind in the world to-day comparable to Pastor Russell's Photo-Drama of Creation and its ninety-six remarkable phonographic talks, and that its several parts are superior to a seminary ourse in theological preparation.

In his sermon in the forenoon Pas for Russell discussed that feature of the Photo-Drama which relates to Satan's Great Lie, and What Harm His text and discourse folt Did."

"When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar, and the father of it."—John 8:44.

Nonsensical traditions handed to us from the Dark Ages have greatly confused the people of God on every Bible subject; for instance, Satan has been pictured grotesquely, and described as presiding in a far-off torture chamber. He has been represented as superintending the tor-tures of the non-elect of humanity. The Bible account has been wholly ignored. Instead of the Bible's representing Satan as a repulsive being with hoofs, horns, and forked tail, it tells us that he was an angel of a very high order—beautiful in person and highly endewed.—Instead of residing afar off, he is the "prince of the power of the air." Instead of stoking fires, he "worketh in the hearts of the children of disobedience"—seeking to blind them and to bind them with ignorance,

According to the Bible, Satan's primary sin was an ambitious pride. He imagined he could direct the afairs of the universe, in which he might set up a separate dominion, and try out his schemes. When Dioperation. The holy angels would not think of rebelling against Divine authority to co-operate with him in his schemes; but here was an inexperienced man, who might be deceived into disobedience to God, and thus be won over to Satan and his schemes. Through him he saw his way to an earthly empire in which his will would be done as Jehovah's will is done in Heaven.

Thus it came that when God instructed Adam and Eve in respect to the fruits of the Garden of Eden and forbade their eating of one certain kind of fruitage, and put a penalty upon disobedience, then Satan, through the serpent, lied to them. He told them that their Creator wished to keep them in a measure of slavery, that the fruit forbidden them was the very fruit necessary to their highest development, that so far from doing them injury it would be a boon, and make them as wise as God Himself. Satan intimated to them that God did not wish them to be as wise as Himself, but desired to hold them in the slavery of ignorance.

The thirst for knowledge and the doubt of God's Wisdom and Love came before our first parents as a temptation; and they yielded. They disobeyed. This was sin. And it have the penalty God brought upon them the penalty God had foretold—"Dying, thou shalt die." The dying process began immediately, but so strong was the per-fect man that even in the imperfect surroundings of the accursed earth outside of Eden he was able to prolong his dying 930 years. Satan obsessed, or took control of the serpent, and so guided it that it spoke the deceptions to our first parents. It is not even necessary to suppose that the serpent spoke with an audible voice. Quite likely, as our adage goes, its actions spoke louder than words. It partook especially of the fruit forbidden to our first parents. The fruit did not kill the serpent. On the contrary Mother Eve perceived that it was into fellowship with God, no matter what provision God's mercy or grace channel, some theory, some attemptmight make for their return. For ed proof given in support of Satan's six thousand years Satan has been lie. Of old it was accomplished by carrying on his wicked work of slander and misrepresentation of the pretended to communicate with the shown any symptoms of death.

These, possessed of the power to materialize — to assume human binding them more closely than ever with fetters of ignorance and superstition. bodies—were encouraged by Satan to violate the law of their being and the law of their nature—to misuse their materializing powers. Satan's word to our first parents, "Ye shall not surely die," must be upheld. By hook or by crook he would strive to fulfil his word, and to make the Almighty the falsifier.

The allurement was successful.

adversary and indulged themselves in the pleasures of sin. Of this matter we read in Genesis 6:2. Those angelic sons of God, saw the daughters of men, that they were fair, beautifui, and took of them for wives such as they chose, and started human families-all contrary to the Divine arrangement of their being, wholly misusing their power of materialization. Satan's course seem-ed to prosper. God's time to interfere had not yet come. He would allow disobedience and a certain Divine character, Plan and arrange-ments, designed for the good of all God's creatures.

The children of this combination of angelic vitality grafted upon the human stock was a race of giants physically and intellectually super-ior to the condemned and dying race of Adam. Being begotten and born under purely lustful conditions, and in violent opposition to the Divine will, this new race of giants retained nothing of the image or likeness of God. They were brutish, sensual tyrants. Under them the human family would soon have been exterminated; for we read respecting con-ditions that God perceived that the earth was full of violence and that the thoughts of men's minds, were only evil continually. God's Wisdom saw that it would be best to blot out entirely that order of things, and to start a new arrangement. The Deluge accomplished this.

Thenceforth those singels who for centuries had lived in sin were restrained from materialization and separated from the holy angels, believe confined to Tartarus—or earth's ing confined to Tartarus—or earth's atmosphere. Meantime, instead of starting a new race of men, God carried over Noah and his family of seven. These constituted a new start for the Adamic family. And the statement that they were perfectly generated and that they had no angelic adulteration, assures us of the

This was the first defeat that Satan had met with—the first great manifestation of Divine Power in opposition to him. But still it only partially stopped his program. The liberties of himself and his associate fallen angels were thenceforth re-stricted, limited, to earth. No longer had they privilege to roam the er nad they privilege to roam the universe. Furthermore no longer were they permitted to assume a human form by materialization. They still, however, had their original perfection of organism and their general liberty. Satan thus had op-portunity for assuming that God had done all that He was able to do in he way of restraining and opposing Adapting himself to the new conditions, Satan and his fallen host attacked mankind in a new way after the Deluge. They would after the Deluge. They would poison the minds of humanity against God. They would declare that Satan's original lie was the truth, and that God's statement was the lie. They would seek to prove to mankind that the dead are not dead— that they have merely changed their condition from a lower to a higher one and that they are more alive than ever. Whoever would come under the influence of this their teaching would discredit God's state-ment—would "believe the lie," would think of a dead man as really advanced to a higher station, instead of having fallen into death.

Men, persuaded that the dead are alive, could easily, on the basis of that error be led to believe that the dead were suffering torments, and the thought that God would authorize and permit such torments would tend to brutalize mankind, and tend also to stop them from thinking of God as gracious, merciful and sympathetic. Thus, alienated from God in their minds, they would be more amenable than ever to Satan and his associates in evil. Then, too, upon the basis of this falsehood, this de-Mother Eve perceived that it was wiser than any other of the beasts of the earth. By its actions it declared to her mind that God had misstated the facts when He told them that the eating of that forbidden fruit would bring death to them When Satan beheld Adam and Eve | mind, and make possible further in-

When Satan beheld Adam and Eve outcasts from Eden, and perceived that gradually the penalty, "Dying, thou shalt die," would come upon mankind, weakening them in mind, in body and in morals, he should have been convinced of the folly of mind, and make possible turthor inroads by the evil spirits. St. Paul refers to these doctrines of demons, and styles them also "strong delusions, that they should believe a lie," because they had less pleasure in the truth. These strong bis course. But no, an evil course of pride, once entered upon, leads further and further astray. Instead of surrendering to the God of all grace, Satan became more defiant. Instead of repenting of the lie by which he had injured a race, he added to it, still seeking to lower God in the eyes of humanity.

Apparently Satan sought so to in the eyes of humanity.

Apparently Satan sought so to alienate and demonize mankind that a perpetual barrier would be raised in their hearts against the Almighty, and that thus humanity might be hindered from ever again coming him ever again coming him the fall with fall with Gold no matter.

Of course, there must be some Divine character and purpose.

According to the Scriptures, Satan was disappointed that his subjects

Thus by continued deceptions in according to the divined by continued deceptions in according to the subjects. were dying, and was resolved to remedy this matter. Hence his next step was to inoculate the race with a fresh strain of life—vitanty—vigor from the angels who had now.

So far as the world in general was concerned, God permitted this, in-tending eventually to deliver mankind; but in the case of Israel, God's favored nation, He especially intervened to shelter them from the attacks of the Adversary, by special laws and regulations prohibiting mediumistic operations of the evil spirits. He did this by warning Is-Many of the angels heeded God's rael against having anything what ever to do with those who had familiar spirits-witches, necromancers wizards, etc. Under penalty of death none of these were to reside in Palestine.

Some of them, however, risked the penalty and did reside there, as evidenced by King Saul's visit to the Witch of Endor, when he desired to communicate with Samuel, the Prophet, who was dead. Of course, Samuel was dead, and neither Saul nor the witch could revive him. But allow disobedience and a certain amount of liberty that it might eventually illustrate to all certain great principles and lessons respecting the ed to the king and which he inter-preted to himself. Thus was the error propagated even in God's special nation—separated from all the others of the world to be His people.

In the days of our Lord we find that many of the people had been dabbling in Spiritism, and had come under the influence of the fallen angels to the extent of obsession, and some of them to the extent of being possessed by evil spirits, which did their thinking and talking for them, merely using their human organs as their servants. This would seem to have been the alternative to matertalization. If the fallen angels could no longer materialize, they would do the thing next to their preference— they would get control of the mind of some individual and thus have control of his body.

In all such cases, it would appear that the victim, becoming a tool of the evil spirits, is frequently caused by them to say and to do things indicating depravity greater than he or she had before the obsession began. The tendency of all such things seems to be toward licentiousness. In the days of Jesus and His Apostles, according to the Scriptural accounts, they cast out demons from many people, some of whom had more than one. One man had a legion. Many physicians know well that some who are apparently insane Redemption-price paid for Adam in-brain disease. They merely are oband bade them multiply and fill the earth, Satan saw his opportunity to put his ambitious schemes into Adam die, even so all in Christ shall of one man, they make his life unbearable by the conflicts which they establish, especially operating along the auditory nerves. Throughout this Gospel Age Satan and his demon legions, operating through dreams, mental impressions, etc., have so thoroughly deluded the masses of mankind, that nearly all believe Satan's lie, and only an ex-tremely small minority believe the Word of the Lord. The process of supporting the lie continues. Writing mediums, trance mediums, tip-ping mediums, black art, theosophy and occultism in general—all sup-port the theory that a dead man is nore alive than a living one. In the symbolical language of the Book of Revelation, all nations have been made drunk with the wine of false

Those who discern the falsehood have learned a great lesson-to pu confidence in the Word of the Lord and not in human imaginations This great lesson, ere long, will be taught to all, and we may assume will surely justify the Lord's course in permitting Satan's lie to flourish so thoroughly and for so long. We know not certainly what further terrible experiences may come to man as a result of believing the Satan instead of the Word of God, but certain Scriptures seem clearly to imply that this Age is to end with some great catastrophe which will demonstrate the wisdom of those who hold fast the Truth and the folly of those who neglect it.
