LIKES GOING TO MOVIES

Yuan Shi Kai Goes Every Week to See the Pictures.

SERIAL STORY IS HELD UP

Seventh Installment of a Thriller Lost in Transit.

Peking, March 3 (correspondence of the Associated Press)—Yuan Shi-kai is very fond of moving pictures, and he and all the members of his family attend a performance in the theatre in the Forbidden City every week, when the films brought to the leading picture theatre in Peking are shown for the entertainment of the Yuan household.
Recently Yuan Shi-kai, together with thousands of other interested cinema patrons in Peking, has suffered a great disappointment. A mystery film to run for twelve weeks completed six installments of the story, but the seventh installment got lost somewhere in Sweden on its way over from London, and Peking is anxiously awaiting the unravelling of the plot. The young heroine of the film drama was seized by bandits when Peking last saw her, and residents of both the Forbidden City and the outer city are anxious to know more of her.
Life in the Forbidden City affords few diversions especially since there have been some evidences of disloyalty among trusted employees. Consequently, Yuan Shi-kai and his family enjoy little liberty.
The President takes his exercise chiefly in drilling a section of the modern army in the Forbidden City, while several of his sons play football and skate on the frozen lakes within the great walls enclosing the palace grounds.
Skating is also affording recreation for Legation staffs, and Legation guards, which has been more or less isolated as a result of the bitter feeling growing out of the European war. Practically all of the Legation staffs, including temporary Legation staffs, are in their own compounds. They are covered with barbed wire and surrounded by a high wall. The American Legation rink is practically the only rink in Peking where visitors of all European powers are entertained. However, the Legation entertainers get apart certain days for the entertainment of visitors belonging to the Entente and Austria.

NEWPORT
(Own Staff Correspondent)
A benefit event took place last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Smith, when their son, Russell, who is now a corporal with the 5th Brant Battalion, was presented with a military wrist watch by the young people of this section. The watch was read by Mr. Gordon Campbell and was as follows:
Dear Russell,
It is with feelings of admiration that your friends and associates, of Newport, take this opportunity of showing our appreciation of your loyalty.
We understand the sacrifice you are making. We realize the dangers that with those you are leaving behind, and our words are not thoughtless expressions when we say, we greatly admire the spirit you are manifesting in your share in protecting our country, our homes and ourselves.
Although we know that most of our country boys are needed at home, we feel honored that you have answered the call of our King and Country.
As individuals and as a nation, we are sure that the British Empire is fighting for a righteous cause and the defence of a law-abiding people, and for the subjugation of a tyrannical monarch, whose inhuman actions and principles have caused the whole world to mourn. As an expression of our esteem and good wishes we ask you to accept this wrist watch, and sincerely hope that Divine Providence may grant you a safe return.
Miss Spater, Wheeler made the presentation, after which the evening was spent in games and contests.
Sorry to report Mr. Ellis Wilson on the sick list.
The stock was busy this week and left a young soldier with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emmott.
Mr. George E. Wood has returned home after having spent an enjoyable visit in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Wheeler gave a party for the young people on Tuesday evening.

HIGH GRADE HOLSTEIN CATTLE SALE.
Messrs. Chilcott and Elsworth Plant of Burford, who will go into pure bred stock, will (D.V.) sell by public auction on March 21st, all choice young dairy cows, etc. "The Milkmaid," a cow of merit, and her five daughters, will also be sold. Stock all in fine condition. Watch for full particulars later.

ONCE A HUN, ALWAYS A HUN.
London Chronicle—Whether we go back a century or a decade, it is the same; "Once a Hun found a Hun." An idle moment found me amusing myself with the letters of Princess Alice to her mother, Queen Victoria. Writing from Darmstadt in August 1866, during the Schleswig-Holstein War she says: "The town is full of Prussians. I hope they will not remain too long, for they pay nothing and the poor inhabitants suffer so much."
