DEATH OF MR. PETTIT.
Rudolph Pettit passed away last evening about 12 o'clock. Although Mr. Pettit has been in failing health for some time his demise was not expected by his friends. Monday was the last day he was out. Since the death of his wife in January, 1899, Mr. Pettit has taken little interest in anything and since October last he has resided with Architect Wilson. Mr. Pettit was raised in Fairview, Pa., and came to this city with his son about the year 1883 when he engaged in the grocery business opposite the market. He continued in business up till February last when he retired. One son, J. S. Pettit, and one daughter, Mrs. W. B. Warner, survive. Both children live in Philadelphia and have been communicated with. The funeral arrangements are being pending word from them. It is probable that the remains will be taken to Fairview, Pa., for interment.

But Anxious for Further News Concerning the Relief of Ladysmith.

ROBERTS AT BLOEMFONTEIN.
London, March 1.—Afternoon.—It is reported here that General Roberts has reached Bloemfontein without opposition. The war office is silent on the subject and there is no confirmation.

London, March 1.—On the publication by the War Office this morning of General Sir Redvers Buller's brief cable, announcing the relief of Ladysmith, London for the first time lost its self-restraint.

Up till noon no further news had been made public and the country is anxiously awaiting fuller particulars. The brief despatch is, however, the subject of the hour and joy is expressed on every hand. Flags have been raised throughout the metropolis and frequent cheers are energetically given for Buller and White. Several large demonstrations have been organized.

The good news of the past few days has done much to restore the confidence of the people at large in the conduct of the campaign and the happy reaction is taking full force to-day.

OUR BATTERIES AT THE FRONT.
London, March 1.—A Modder River despatch announces the arrival of large reinforcements there for Lord Roberts. These consist principally of artillery and mounted infantry. The artillery includes two batteries of Canadian artillery, who have moved forward and will join the main column for the advance on Bloemfontein.

WAR NOTES.
Lord Roberts cables—Rensburg was recaptured yesterday by Gen. Clements.

Gen. Buller's tidings come weighted with his long list of casualties. His losses in the four attempts to get Gen. White out aggregated four thousand.

According to a special despatch from Cape Town, dated Feb. 27, Lord Kitchener is at Arundel, the Boers retiring to Norval's Pont, and all is quiet at Stromberg.

A despatch from Cape Town, dated Tuesday, says:—The Boers of Barkley East have offered to surrender on condition that the safety of the rebel Dutch is assured. The British, however, insist upon an unconditional surrender.

The Queen has telegraphed General Buller as follows:—"I have heard with the deepest concern of the heavy losses sustained by my brave Irish soldiers, and I desire to express my sympathy and admiration of the splendid fighting qualities they have exhibited through these trying operations."

Gen. Buller has wired his thanks to the Queen for her telegram of gracious sympathy and encouragement.

The newspapers in St. Petersburg and throughout the rest of the continent press bewail Gen. Cronje's defeat. They suggest that the best help for the Boers would be to create a diversion against Great Britain elsewhere.

A complete list of the wounded received by the Boers shows that in B. B. company the only man from this district severely wounded was Private Marantette, of Windsor. Bugler J. Burton Holland, of Toronto, a relative of Bank Manager Holland, of Blenheim, is slightly wounded.
