THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N.S., JUNE 16, 1893.

Local and Provincial.

Berwick will celebrate Dominion day on a grand scale at the camp meeting grounds.

Next Sunday, June 18th, there will be service in St John's church at 11 a. m. and at 7 p. m.

J. B. Davison, Esq., has been in Halifax this week attending the Meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge.

Seeds—fresh and reliable—at the Drugstore.

Messrs Frank Higgins and Edgar Chipman are home for their summer vacation. They have been studying at Cornell.

Dr. DeWitt has moved his residence and office to the house on Main street lately occupied by Mrs J. L. Brown.
Office hours from 8 to 10 a. m., and 1 to 3 p. m.

The superintendent of streets has been at work this week, placing curbing on Main street from School to Chapel streets.
Although but partly completed, we can already see an immense improvement in the appearance of the street.

Soda Water—pure, sparkling, cool, at the Drugstore.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of School Commissioners will be held in the Court House, Kentville, on Tuesday 20th, inst., at 10 a. m., to hear the report of the Committee in regard to a change of revision in the bounds of some school sections in Aylesford, and to transact necessary business connected therewith.

Another case of those celebrated 50 cent shippers at Borden's.

The many friends of Capt. J. W.
Gormley, of the sch. Severn, will be glad to learn that he has been awarded a beautiful gold watch by the emperor of Germany in recognition of services rendered to the Hamburg schooner Polux in January last year. The watch has the royal coat-of-arms of Germany engraved on the case and a raised medallion of the emperor. It is beautiful and costly.
The department has written the owners of the Severn at Windsor to ascertain Capt. Gormley's whereabouts. We understand he is now on his way to South America.

That "fired feeling" that so much is said about and is so common can be cured by using Sarsaparilla Blood Purifier, 50c. per bottle at the Drugstore.

A sad accident occurred on the back road near Wolfville last Friday. Mrs Henry Fuller, a middle aged woman, was burning rubbish in her yard, when her cotton dress caught fire and she was in flames in a moment. She ran towards a neighbor's, and was met by two or three who did their best to save her.
Her clothing was torn off and she was rolled on the ground and finally carried to her home. She was terribly burned.
Drs Chipman and Bowles were summoned and did all that was possible, but the unfortunate woman died about 10 o'clock in the evening after enduring intense suffering. The greatest sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Sarsaparilla Blood Purifier—a splendid spring medicine—50 cts. a bottle at the Drugstore.

Miss Sarah Lord Bailey, Elocutionist, of Boston, will appear in Scotia Hall, Kentville, for two nights, June 26th and 27th. Of her appearance in Toronto, the Globe says:

"At Association Hall last evening Miss Sarah Lord Bailey, one of the first lady readers of the United States, appeared for the first time and more than sustained the great reputation that had preceded her. Her readings were excellent, particularly her rendering of the "Claret Race," which has probably never been equalled in Toronto. This brilliant reader is already becoming quite popular with Canadian People."

On Tuesday evening, the 27th inst., a special train will leave Kentville for Horton Landing and intermediate stations, after close of retail. Excursion return tickets at one first-class fare will be issued by evening train and it is hoped a large number from Wolfville will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this renowned elocutionist.

Wolfville, June 8th, 1893.

Dedicated.

To my aunt Mrs S. B. Bishop, and all who are mourning over my cousin Kenneth's death.

Man was not made to live forever here on earth, but to die and rise again into a vast eternity of life that never shall pass away; the same, yet not the same that we have laid within the grave, for that decays, but from it comes the living soul of man, which dwelt with him while here on earth; but when he sinks, by sickness and disease, into the grave, that soul is borne, either by seraph wings up to the glorious light of God, to gain rewards for deeds done in the body here, or else by His almighty hand, is cast to utter darkness in punishment for sins that man is so prone to commit.

Then, why, dear aunt, should we be sorrowful because he's gone? For certainly we know from all his actions here that now he is resting with that King whose watchword has been love ever since this world began.

Resting from trials and cares that here he borne, from disease and sickness sore.

And there he waits until the time shall come When thou shalt die and gain the heavenly home;

And all his loved ones in that happy land, Shall meet him there and clasp him by the hand.

Yes, now I seem to see him as I often did, while travelling up the hill, with his make and hoe at work; taking no rest, forgetful even of self, and thinking only of the ones he loved and those who gave him love for love. Also I see him in the store from early morn till long after the shadows of the eve have darkened into starlit night; still carrying on his work of honesty and love; catching only now and then an hour at his home and spending most of that, as I have said, within the garden. Was this not love? Ah yes, most certainly it was!

And yet the ruler of the universe hath said: "No longer shall they linger here below, for I will take these home and give thee thy reward, to be with me where there is nought but love." Then do not sigh or grieve, for soon within those heavenly realms we all shall meet again, and clasp each other by the hand.
Remember this, we've only parted for a time, that time shall be the will of God and by that will we all must here abide.
