Death of Robert Cochrane.

The death occurred at his home at South Devon at 9 o'glock this morning of Sergt. Robert J. Cochrane, after a short illness, aged 75 years. Deceared was of Scotch descent and was the second man to enlist in A company of the Infantry School Corps in Fredericton when the permanent force was established 36 years ago, and is the last member of the old company to pass away. For some years he was in charge of the rifle range at South Devon, but for the past few years has been living in retirement at South Devon. He was also a prominent Orangeman and respected by alf who knew him. In politics he was a staunch Conservative and in religions a Presbyterian. Mr. Cochrane is survived by his widow, one son, John, of Montreal, and one daughter, Mrs. Fred Armstrong of St. John. The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced, but the remains will be taken to St. John for interment.

The New Wraps

Chill winds may blow but the snug and enveloping new wraps defy the weather. Most popular are the models along true Wrap lines, loose of sleeve, voluminous of collar and often be-caped. Then, too, there is the Coat which for general wear has no equal. Both are quite frequently fur-trimmed or embroidered. Foresighted women will benefit by this opportunity of early selec-
