THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

Juvenile Logic.

"The teacher had been explaining fractions to his class. When she had discussed the subject at length, wishing to see how much light had been shed, she inquired:

"Now, Bobby, which would you rather have, one apple or two halves?"

"Two halves," exclaimed the young man, a little disappointedly, "why would you prefer two halves?"

"Because then I could see if it was bad inside."

Doctor's Orders.

Nexdore—Since I was operated on I have given up meat and tobacco on the doctor's advice.

Neighbor—Does he think they will injure your health?

Nexdore—Now he thinks if I indulge in them I can't save enough money to pay his bill.

The Threat Indirect.

"Aw," said Willie, "you're afraid to fight; that's all it is."

"No, I'm not," protested Jack, "but if I fight my mail find it out and lick me."

"How'll she find it out?"

"She'll see the doctor goin' to your house."

A Stayer.

Madge—What was that tiresome fellow doing at your house so late the other night?

Marjorie—Goodness knows, unless he was trying to break the endurance record.

Nobody Home.

"Would you say that Simpson had an open mind?"

"No, I would say he had a vacant mind."—New York Sun.

Drawing it Pretty Fine.

Hub (with a saving streak)—From now on you'd better fry my eggs only on one side. We never recognize on fuel.—Boston Transcript.

Not So Bad.

writes J. M. C. "I once heard an old lady say that the organist played 'The Meddlesome March.'"

A Bull About a Bull.

Western paper—Yesterday John Hobbs, a farmer of this vicinity, was badly gored by an infuriated bull.

And Then the Row Began.

The Mater—Prof. Adagio has just been raving over Gwendolen's singing.

The Pater—How rude of him! Why couldn't he conceal his feelings like the rest of us?

FROM THE PEOPLE

SHORT BUT SWEET

To the Editor of The Gleaner.
Sir—I am a girl of 16 and go around with a bunch about my own age, but lately I have got to like one young man very much and I know he likes me; but there is another girl who has her eye on him too. Now, how can we let this girl know we want to elum around together without making bad friends?
Yours,
Newcastle, N. B., Feb. 1, 1922.

DAWNING OF LOVE

To the Editor of The Gleaner.
Sir—I am a girl of 15 and am one of the constant readers of your column, and as I think you give good and helpful advice, I have come for some myself.

I have had many passing fancies for boys, but there is one who I always come back to. I have read the love-letters of girls of fifteen and I do not believe in love at that age; but do you think there can be an exception? I like and seem to love this boy and have wondered if it is only a passing fancy, but this seems different.

Is it right to let a boy put his arm around the back of the seat when out-riding with him?
Yours,
St. Stephen, N. B., Feb. 1, 1922.

COST OF MARRIAGE

To the Editor of The Gleaner.
Sir—Would you please forward me, through your column, some information in regard to my query? I am a young man having served through the war with the British Expeditionary Force. I came to this country after demobilization. I have no friends, but have fallen greatly in love with a young woman who loves me fondly in return. She is just about my age, so I am taking strongly to getting married as I know we would be very happy if united.

Now, as funds are low just now, would you please let me know about how much money would put over the wedding in a quiet way and so as it would not offend any of her friends?—and also, what is the best way to start together, if it would take much to start up a house? Hoping to receive information through your column and you will do me a great favor indeed.
Yours,
Woodstock, N. B., Feb. 1, 1922.

TOO INDEPENDENT

To the Editor of The Gleaner.
Sir—I am a man of 28 years of age and knowing a young lady for the past 15 years, one whom I used to go to school with, but have never been out with her. I am now confronted with the problem of marriage with this young lady, but feeling that my financial position is not one to

U. S. CONFEDERATE BILLS IN GERMANY

Scores of Berlin Merchants Accept Bills in Good Faith

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.]
Berlin, Feb. 3.—Another issue of United States Confederate notes, $10 bills, has been put on the market in Germany, and several prominent merchants have been victimized to the extent of thousands of dollars.

Scores of others have accepted the bad bills in smaller amounts.

A few months ago the Confederate money, suspiciously bright and clean, was passed quietly around to unsuspecting shopkeepers and to even a few visiting Americans who displayed carelessness in making change. At that time a warning was issued by the banks and the newspapers advised readers to use discretion.

The latest known victim is a merchant who sold a bill of goods for $900 in cash and accepted the Confederate currency. He appealed to the American Association of Commerce and Trade in Berlin.

The Association, as a result of these raids on German marks and German goods by the Confederate money, has issued a warning to its clientele, declaring "the only way to avoid such losses is to effect all payments for goods through a bank, especially where foreign currency comes into question."

German merchants recently also have been accepting counterfeit German 50-mark notes, many of which are still in circulation, although the police succeeded in capturing the counterfeiters.

ZEALAND, N. B.

Zealand, N. B., Jan. 30.—The weather for the past few days have been very fine and Spring like and the roads are in a good condition.

Quite a number of men from this place have returned from the lumber woods.

Mr. Elias Brewer has gone to Victoria Hospital to undergo an operation for stomach trouble.

Miss Verna Estey has recovered from her recent operation and has returned to Devon.

Mrs. Jack Edmondson of Burr's Corner spent a few days last week with her mother Mrs. John Gilbert.

Miss Ola Evert of Woodstock is coming back next term as teacher.

Mrs. Cecil Hanson of Brewer's Mills was calling on Mrs. M. Brewer on Sunday last.

A deep gloom was cast over this community when it was known that Gerald son of Joseph and Annabell Estey had passed away on the 14th inst., at the age of 21 years following an illness of only two weeks of pneumonia, with complications. He was a bright and lovable young man and of a kind disposition, besides his parents he leaves five sisters and six brothers and many friends to mourn his loss.

MUCH THIEVING ON RUSSIAN RAILWAYS

Necessary to Establish a Special Police Force to Stamp It Out
[Associated Press by Leased Wire.]
Moscow, Feb. 3.—Thieves of goods from Russian railways are so extensive that M. Djerjinsky, the Pole who now directs the railway administration, asserts that it will be necessary to establish a special police force to stamp it out. Djerjinsky first came into international notice through his direction of the counter-revolutionary organization known as the Cheka during the Red terror period in the summer of 1918.

He recently denounced the railway employees as specialists and traitors who should be jailed. However, it is difficult to understand how the railroad men can be expected to work without stealing for trainmen have told the correspondent that their pay amounted to only 5,000 Soviet rubles a month. This is equivalent to 20 American cents, less than one price of a single pound of black bread.

The American Relief Administration is protected against theft by special guards and the Bolshevik government makes good all losses of American foodstuffs. But even the knowledge that detection probably will mean death has not prevented thieves from stealing American supplies.

The railway administration asked for 619,000 gold rubles for maintenance of transportation in 1922; but the government allowed only 490,000 in the budget. However, it included a provision that every department of the government shall pay for hauling its freight.

Soviet Russia now has 900,000 railway employees and the Ukrainian republic 235,000. Great reductions in their numbers have been made because of the inability of the good commissars to provide food for more in fact they are unable to supply what all the food promised to the reduced personnel.

There is a great cry in Russia that the railways be put on a paying basis.

BULGARS CONDEMN KING FERDINAND

Exiled Monarch Will Never Be Received Back on Throne

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.]
Sofia, Feb. 3.—There is no chance of former King Ferdinand's return to Bulgaria, declares Premier Alexander Stamboulisky. "Bulgaria's vengeful spirit, farmer and reformer."

If ever Ferdinand should dare to put his foot on Bulgarian soil, the Premier told the correspondent with a tremendous thump on his desk, "the people would rise up against him as a traitor and either hang him or thrust him into jail."

"No," you may tell the American people not to listen to these frequent reports of the return of Ferdinand. We have done complete penance for our sins and part of that penance has been to banish forever from our sight the faithless Ferdinand, to whom most of our sins were due."

M. Stamboulisky said the Bulgarian people are filled with contempt and hatred for their former ruler, the father of the popular young King Boris.
