LOCKJAW CURED.

Muscles of Jaw Relax After Ten Days' Treatment.

New York, Sept. 15. - Mrs. Annetta Kostling, a young German woman, who is leaving the Williamsburg Hospital in a few days completely cured of tetanus. Dr. Butler, Dr. Henderson and Dr. Vogt of the hospital staff, fought for nearly a month to save her life. Mrs. Kostling's case is the most remarkable in the history of the Williamsburg hospital. On August 15 last Mrs. Kostling was going over the walls of the dining room in the history of the Williamsburg hospital. She had been lying on a rusty nail which protruded from the wall. The next day the hand was badly swollen and Mrs. Kostling was so ill that she had to go to bed. Two days later the muscles of her jaws stiffened and she was unable to open her mouth and place her in a more comfortable position on the bed. Since August 25 her recovery has been slow but sure. Last Friday night she was pronounced out of danger and to-day she was able to walk. It was the most rapid recovery from tetanus in their experience, the doctors said, and particularly remarkable in view of the fact that the disease got several days' start before treatment was applied. Some men put on their best manners just as they put on a dress coat. Bathing suits are not always modest, although they may be shrinking.

Stocks and Bonds

Stock market received by A. E. Carpenter from Ennis & Stoppani: New York, Sept. 16. - The market during the morning developed strength after a futile raid, and while some of the selling at the recovery appeared good, it was evident that a point of resistance had been reached, and that new advances would be needed to influence further depression. One large copper interest is selling small lots at 10 1/2 cents, and smaller producers may be selling slightly lower, but the best opinion is that 15 cents will be about bottom on this movement. The Northern Pacific annual report is expected to show a full 15 per cent for the stock, and it is estimated that the Hill roads, despite their new stock issues, will be able to show 7 per cent on the full amount authorized, with many millions to spare, even though they receive no reserve from their new extensions. St. Paul earnings must receive 10 per cent on the east coast, as the road is earning 5 1/2 per cent on the total stock now issued and in process of payment by stockholders. Some traders have sold in anticipation of developments in Standard Oil hearing to-morrow, but on the whole, we think the earlier rates for money and absence of any further important liquidation on railroad issues, should warrant purchases on all concessions. - Ennis & Stoppani. GUELPH MAN DEAD.

Guelph, Ont., Sept. 16. - John Yule, manager of the Guelph Light and Power Co., died early this morning. LASSOOED DETECTIVE. Pittsburgh, Sept. 15. - A mob bent on lynching a non-union mill worker who had shot some union men this morning, got the rope around the neck of a plain clothes detective by mistake and had him half strung to a telegraph post before the mistake was discovered. It was an incident of a very bloody battle between union and non-union forces at the 45th street mills. John Anderson, a non-union iron worker, with a gang of friends got into a fight with a party of union glass workers, headed by John Manning. There was some shooting and Manning was perhaps fatally wounded. He is in jail to await the result of his injuries. J. T. McCullough, a county detective, tried to arrest Anderson, and engaged in a pistol duel at long range with him. After perhaps forty shots were fired, the men clinched. McCullough finally beat Anderson into submission with the butt of his pistol and got him to the patrol box, followed by 250 people. Some got a rope, hearing that the prisoner had shot a man, and McCullough was lassoed by mistake and was being drawn up to the alarm telegraph pole when friends managed to cut the rope. The detective was badly hurt.
