On last Sunday, the feast of the Patronage of St. Joseph, Rev. Mother has been ill for some time past, was, we ON and after Wednesday, 29th inst. are happy to say able are happy to say, able to preside at the meeting of the young ladies of St.

Joseph's Society, held in the Convent in the afternoon. At 7, p. m., the young ladies and many of their friends asseminately assembly to Charlottetown on arrival of steamer in the evening. Benediction of the Most Holy Sacrarated with a profusion of natural flowers tastefully arranged; and hundreds o candles and twinkling many-colored lights were placed so as to form the initial letter of the convent's patron-St. Joseph. The altar of St. Joseph was also very artistically decorated. Rev A. J. McIntyre delivered an earnest and very practical discourse on devotion to the Foster-Father of Jesus. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given by Rev. Dr. Grant, assisted by excellently rendered by a choir composed of the convent pupils, assisted by Newbery. The former sang the SHOE SHOP. Rev. F. Gallant, Mr. S. Blanchard, and "O Salutaria," and the latter a Hymn to St. Joseph, and the "Regina Celi."

Monney afternoon last the City Lodges of Oddfellows turned out on parade, headed by Galbraith's Band. The veather was dismal, and the streets in a wretched condition, and it was on that account, no doubt, that the procession was small compared with that of former years.
