The Government's Black Record.

(From last week's issue.)

Each examination of the Government's public reports reveals some additional item of expenditure, necessitating revision of our statement of the Provincial debt. In the first place the Government's own admission shows a debt of $771,583.35. To this has to be added, as we showed last week, the deficit on the hay account of $4,544.63. This brought the figures of the debt up to $776,127.98, assuming the figures in the blue books to fairly represent the debt, which cannot be admitted. To these figures an additional amount must be added. This is the amount of interest accrued on loans. This is set down by the Government at $4,241.21. It has been included by us in our computation of the interest charge of the year 1905, and should be added to the year's deficit and to the Provincial debt. Including this amount, the figures furnished by the Government, show a debt of $780,369.19; and a shortage on last year's transactions of $54,907.81. As we have repeatedly said, this does not by any means show the true indebtedness, which must be well over the $800,000 mark.

Taking these figures as they stand the Government blue books reveal to us this condition of affairs:

Debt, as per Government's figures	$780,369.19
Taxes collected by Liberals	738,698.79
Taxes collected last year	80,818.98
Expenditure last year	364,106.02
Deficit last year	54,907.81

These figures serve to show in some degree the Government's black record and should of themselves be sufficient to condemn them and bring down upon their heads the public execration of every honest elector in the Province.

Among the items of expenditure of last year are included sums paid in connection with the representation case, from which the people reaped no benefit and which was thought to have been disposed of in the reports of the previous year. The amounts charged against the tax payers last year for this wonderful representation case are as follows: Berwick, Aylesworth, Wright and Moss, balance $784.32; E. B. Williams, balance 250.00; Blake and Reddin 385.33; $1,619.65.

Here we have the sum of $1,619.65 drawn from the pockets of the tax-payers last year for which the Province has received absolutely no value.

Under the head of delegations, the public accounts reveal the following:

Hon. A. Peters	$110.00
Hon. George Simpson	110.00
Hon. F. L. Hassard	110.00
Hon. P. McNutt	110.00
	$440.00

This is how the people's money is spent; this is how deficits are created; this is how the Provincial debt is rolled up. Is all this quite satisfactory to the electorate of Prince Edward Island? Do they think the principal business of a government is to squander the people's money; to roll up huge deficits and to saddle the Province with a debt which they will never be able to pay?

Rules of Etiquette.

FROM "A GENTLEMAN."

A young man who wants to get properly will not lay his cane across the piano or put his hat on a chair. The hat and stick ought to be put on the floor near him, if he does not care to hold them in his hands. If he leaves his hat in the hall, his hostess will think he is going to spend the day in her house. But if she insists on taking his hat from him, it will not do to struggle for it. Such devotion to etiquette might make a bad impression. Good feeling and common-sense must modify all rules; and if one's entertainers have the old-fashioned impressions that the first duty of hospitality is to grasp one's hat and cane, let them have them by all means; but do not take the sign to mean that you are to stay all day. A quarter of an hour is long enough for a first call.

"You must have had a delightful visitor this morning," one lady said to another. "He stayed over an hour. What did he talk about?" The other lady smiled sadly: "He told me how he felt when he had the scarlet fever, and all about his mother's liver complaint."

Topics of conversation should be carefully chosen. Strangers do not want to see a man often who talks about his troubles, his illness, and his virtues. The more the "You" is used in general society, and the less the "I," the better it will be for him who has the tact to use it. There is no use in pretending that our troubles are interesting to anybody but our mothers. Other people may listen, but depend upon it, they prefer to avoid a man with a grievance.

If the young man with the letter of introduction has made a good impression, he will probably be invited to dinner. And then, if he has been careless of little observances, he will begin to be anxious. Perhaps it will be a ceremonious dinner, too, where there will be a crowd of young girls ready to criticize in their minds every motion, and some older ladies who will be sure to make up their minds as to the manner in which he has been brought up at home or at college. And we must remember that our conduct when we get out into the world reflects credit or discredit on our homes or our schools.

Notes From Rome.

Rome, March 27.—St. Joseph's Day being the name day of His Holiness the Sovereign Pontiff said Mass in the Hall of the Consistory. About two hundred persons were admitted to the Mass, among them the Pope's sisters, who remained to breakfast with him. All the Cardinals and dignitaries in Rome and prominent men generally later were received in audience and presented their congratulations. The Sovereign Pontiff received them with great cordiality, conversing with each of them and thanking them for their good wishes and their aid.

Headed by Cardinal Ferrari, the Archbishop of Milan, a congress of Italian Catholics, clerical and lay, is being organized to meet in Milan in the fall for the better safeguarding of Catholic interests in civil life in Italy. The legal status of the religious congregations, religion in the schools, ecclesiastical revenues and such questions will be discussed and agreed upon.

The new Ministry in Italy has decided to attempt a radical change in the educational system of the country. Hitherto the public schools have been under the control and administration of the town and other councils; Signor Sonnino now proposes that the schools in the southern provinces of Italy be placed entirely under the management of the central government. Very likely the northern provinces will eventually be included in the same legislation, but the special provision for the southern provinces has become imperative, owing to the complete failure of the local authorities to provide for popular education.

Savonarola, the famous Dominican, is being studied in the light of contemporary documents by one of the order, Father Hartand. The world is likely to get soon a full and authorized history of this remarkable man, about whom so much legend and romance has been woven that his real character is but little understood. There is no history so true as that gathered from the documents stored away in the archives.

The Bishop of Ormona is making the amende honorable for his recent hasty approbation of the separation of Church and State idea. He came to Rome to explain things to the Holy Father. He went back to Craonon a humbler and a wiser man, and has publicly expressed his gratitude for the kind forbearance shown him as well as for the firm refusal of the Holy Father to sanction or even excuse his peculiar attitude to the question that is vexing France and Italy.

One of the officers of the Congregation for the Fabric of St. Peter's, Monsignor Maccaroni, died during the past week. This congregation was founded for the administration and preservation of St. Peter's. Cardinal Rampolla is Prefect.

Cardinal Albuquerque Cavalcanti, Archbishop of Rio Janeiro, has left Rome for Brazil after his long visit to the Eternal City and the South American College.

Dr. Pastor, the Austrian writer, had an audience of the Pope recently with his whole family. He presented the fourth volume of his "History of the Popes" to the Holy Father, receiving in return for himself and his family the Papal benediction.

Items of Interest.

Irish exchanges report the full recovery of the Archbishop of Dublin from his recent illness.

It is proposed that a suitable wedding present be made to Princess Eoa by the Catholics of England.

Rev. Father Hays, the English Father Mathew, has left New Zealand for Australia on his return journey to England. In Wellington the Lord Chief Justice gave a reception in honor of the reverend gentleman's visit. The representative company present included his Excellency the Governor, Lord Plunket; the Colonial Secretary, Sir J. Ward, and Lady Ward, Sir R. and Lady Stout, the Mayor, Mayors and Bishop of Wellington and members of both Houses of Parliament.

Rev. P. Robert Razzoli, O. F. M., provincial of the Tuscan province of St. Bonaventure, has been appointed custos of the Holy Land, and in succession to Mgr. Frigidian Giamini, O. F. M., who is appointed Apostolic Delegate at Beyrout.

At Purusandiro, Michoacan, Mexico, the other day Archbishop Silva laid the corner-stone of a new Catholic hospital, which, when completed, will cost nearly $100,000. The site was donated by Senor Jose Marie Galvan, and on the day of the corner-stones laying Senor Galvan and his wife, Donna E. Varista Galvan, gave thousands more toward the erection of a chapel.

Our Spanish contemporary, "El Universo," records the death of Father Mendive, "who was an honor to Spanish science and a glory of the Jesuits." He passed away at Santander.

The Order of Obisyalcy, with which, says the Glasgow "Observer," the Right Rev. Dr. Brindley, Bishop of Nottingham, has just been decorated by the King of Spain in connection with the reception of Princess Eoa into the Catholic Church, bears as its full title the "Royal American Order of Isabella the Catholic." It was founded exactly ninety years ago (on March 25, 1815) by King Ferdinand VII, in order to recognize the services of those who defended the Spanish possessions in America, which have now passed away from Spain, probably forever. The Bishop of Nottingham is often seen at ecclesiastical and social gatherings wearing the numerous decorations which he has received for his services as a chaplain in the British army, but it is improbable that he will provide himself with the rather remarkable "get-up" which is prescribed for those holding the Order of Isabella the Catholic. This comprises a mantle of yellow velvet, a white velvet tunic embroidered heavily in gold, white shoes with golden bows, and Spanish hat with white and yellow plumes.

It is reported from Vilna, Russia, that since the Emperor's ukase of religious toleration more than twenty thousand members of the Russian Orthodox Church have become Catholics.

Irish Exchanges record the death of Rev. Thomas Hughes, a zealous and widely-esteemed Dominican, at St. Saviour's Dominican Convent, Dublin, after a brief illness.

Thirty Sisters of St. Augustine's, Convent in Lake Avenue, Lakewood, Cleveland, by forming a bucket brigade saved their building from destruction by fire. They were assisted in the work by a number of residents of the neighborhood and their servants. Men and women fought together to keep the flames from spreading to the main building. They succeeded, only a small dwelling was destroyed.

Many Women Suffer UNTOLD AGONY FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE.

Very often they think it is from so-called "Female Disease." There is less female trouble than they think. Women suffer from backache, sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, and a dragging-down feeling in the loins. So do men, and they do not have "female trouble." Why, then, blame all your trouble to Female Disease? With healthy kidneys, few women will ever have "female disorders." The kidneys are so closely connected with all the internal organs, that when the kidneys go wrong, everything goes wrong. Much distress would be saved if women would only take

Little Willie is the apple of his father's eye, and he deserves to be a while ago a rough-looking individual came to the house where little Willie lives, and grasped him by the collar.

"If you don't tell me where your father keeps his money, I'll knock yer 'ead off year shoulders, an' after that I'll eat yer."

"Oh, please, don't do that, sir," whimpered Willie. "You'll find all the money we've got in an old vest in the kitchen."

Two minutes later a bruised and battered wreck was heaved through the front door of little Willie's dwelling-place, and sat for a while in the gutter and bled. "That kid's too smart—unnatural smart," it muttered. "Never said a word about 'is ole man bein' inside that vest."

Mrs. Fred Laine, St. George, Ont., writes: "My little girl would cough so at night that neither she nor I could get any rest. I gave her Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and am thankful to say it cured her cough quickly."
