I congratulate you on having devised and adopted important measures for preyenting frauds and correcting errors in the electoral lists; for securing the rights of voters, and freedom and purity in the exercise of those rights; and for extending the franchise to important classes not heretofore possessing that privilege.

You have done a good service to every your revision, part of the Province by your revision, improvements and consolidation of the laws (which had for many years been accumulating) for the regulation and management of our Public and High Schools—on the efficiency of which the future and this four Province so each future condition of our Province so es
