

THE STUBBORNNESS

of the MULE is proverbial. Though not proverbial it is a well-known fact that millions of housewives who have tried SUNLIGHT SOAP stubbornly refuse to use any other. These housewives, Students Crowd To St. Mary's.

The Bishop of Oxford has been holding a mission for undergraduates in the University Church of St. Mary's. That old and historic building has seen many memorable scenes in past days—the trial of the Protestant Bishops; the funeral of Amy Robsart, Robert Leicester's wife; the preaching of John Henry Newman. It has held crowds of many kinds and many minds. In more recent days, however, it is safe to say that St. Mary's has witnessed no such series of deeply significant and effective gatherings. The men have come in great numbers, and have filled the church throughout the whole 'octave.' 'Newman in his greatest days never had such crowds as these,' writes Norman H. Smith in the Christian World.

For the First Time.
The Bishop was simply proposing to re-state in a very simple but full and complete fashion the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He wanted men to brush away all prejudices and traditions, and to imagine that they were listening to the preaching of that Gospel for the first time in their lives. But he frankly accepted modern conditions, and his restatement was to be in modern terms.
"There were always present a very large number of devout and sympathetic men. They sang the hymns with obvious fervour and sincerity. It was interesting to note that the hymn specially printed for the Mission and frequently sung was a simple Pilgrim song by John Bunyan. The University as a whole had been well canvassed by selected 'recruits,' and although the Mission was intended to be 'domestic'—for members of the Anglican Church—it certainly appealed to a large number of Free Churchmen.

Dr. Gore Comes to His Own.
"So from night to night, he has calmly, lucidly and incisively declared the Gospel of Christ in unmistakable terms and with impressive sincerity. With what result? Certainly the spiritual vision of hundreds of men has been clarified, and large numbers of 'confirmed' Anglicans have been reminded very effectively of their confirmation vows. Probably a handful of Free Churchmen may have been won over to the Anglican Church. But the best and most lasting results are no doubt hidden, but will, in the long last, be made manifest. Throughout the week the doorstep of the Bishop's lodgings in High Street has been thronged by men anxious to secure his direct and personal advice. Dr. Gore has come to his own Oxford—with all the prestige of an Anglican prelate and a great and solid reputation for both learning and piety, and he assuredly has proved himself a Mission preacher of the first order."

"The attendance on the first Sunday was about 1,500, roughly half the 'University,' and an average of 1,000 a night was maintained throughout; the number on the last evening rising to perhaps 1,400 again. Nobody who heard the addresses on Friday, Saturday and Sunday could have failed to carry away a deep and overwhelming sense of the massiveness, the breadth, and the nobility of the religion therein taught. The Mission ended with a general Communion on Monday morning, at which about 500 communicated.

"The whole mission has disclosed latent possibilities of religion in the undergraduate world rather surprising to pessimists," says the Christian Times.
Some Results.
"Many thought, I believe, that religion meant some dogmas to credit, some service to be attended, some moderate standard of ethics to be spasmodically sought. They learnt, I think, the lesson which so many miss; that religion is a relation to a Person, and that there is simply no bound or limit to the depth, the beauty, the sweetness, the joy of the union between the soul and its Maker.
"There are many, I think, in Oxford, who will never apologize for their religion again."—Public Opinion.

Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, March 29.
After five defeats in the annual inter-university Boat Race, Cambridge on Saturday won from Oxford by four and a half boat lengths.

LONDON, March 29.
Up to a late hour on Saturday, nothing had occurred to break the deadlock, but the Government is still hopeful that the difficulties in the Army situation will be overcome before it meets the Commons on Monday. In the meantime the opposition of the Army to coercion in Ulster is vouchsafed for by no less an authority than Sir Edward Richard Russell, a staunch supporter of the Government who, in a signed article in the Liverpool Post, of which he is the editor, says to-day that it is a positive fact that when he visited the War Office last week, Lord Roberts had in his pocket a list of 900 Army officers who were ready to send in their papers.

LONDON, March 29.
An exciting scene occurred just before the House adjourned for the week-end. When Bonar Law had concluded his criticism of Mr. Asquith's new Army orders, Major Morrison-Bell rose and insisted on making a statement on behalf of the officers and men of the Army. A determined attempt was made to shout him down, and a scene of wild excitement ensued. Encouraged by his Unionist friends, with the aid of his powerful voice he compelled the House to listen to him. "The statement we have just listened to is the grossest insult to an Army ever offered to it. He protested, as an old soldier, that the new order was unnecessary. The Army officers and men, he said, had always been ready to do their duty." This passionate outburst brought to an end the dramatic political week, and the House then adjourned.

The Silver Lining.

Last summer, when the hot winds blew, and wilted things on every hand, and when the sun, in skies of blue, shone down and blistered all the land, we mortals raised a bitter wall, and cried, "In this there is no sense, for all our cherished crops will fail! Oh, drought disastrous, get thee hence!" Had any moral high-brow guys attempted to convince us then that back of all was purpose wise, we should have jeered and jeered again. But now that theory is fulfilled, for we're informed ten thousand score Ben Davis apple trees were killed, by that fierce drought, to bear no more. Ben Davis trees are standing dead throughout this glad and fertile land, and we regret the things we said because we did not understand. So let's be patient after this when trouble dogs us, close behind, for sorrow's but a cloak for bliss, and threatening clouds are silver-lined.

A word to those who wear "Twenty-five cent Glasses." Do you realize that by so doing, you virtually admit that twenty-five cents is the value you place upon God's greatest gift to you? There is no law to prevent you from injuring your eyes by using such glasses excepting, perhaps, the law of common sense. Of course you don't know why cheap glasses play such havoc with your eyes, and health generally, nor does the man who sells them to you. An eyesight specialist can tell you, and if you would interest yourself to the extent of asking him to explain, you would never look through a pair of them. Anything more perfect or beautiful than the human eye would be impossible for man to conceive. Then, why, when physical aid is needed to enable it to perform its functions with greater ease, do you use cheap glasses or submit yourself to persons of questionable ability to suit you? When your eyes cry out for assistance, go to R. H. Trapnell, the Eyesight Specialist who will faithfully examine them and give you none but the best quality glasses if glasses are needed at all. Thousands are ready to testify to the great benefit received at his hands.—mar18,ed,1f

In Memoriam.

Last week, St. Jacques was plunged into grief by the death of its oldest and most amiable lady—Mrs. Mary Clinton (nee Sheehan). Mrs. Clinton had passed her 80th year and up to the moment she was fatally stricken, enjoyed perfect health. Her passing was a fitting sequel to a saintly life. She was taken suddenly ill on Sunday following High Mass, and received the last sacraments in the Church. Two days later she passed away. The deceased was born at Harbor Breton where her father, Dr. Sheehan, practised his profession for many years. After his death she was taken to Ireland where her childhood was spent under the guardianship of her uncle, the venerable Father Sheehan. Later she returned to Newfoundland, residing at Burin until her marriage to Dr. Clinton, of St. Pierre. Mrs. Clinton's life in the old French colony was spent in works of benevolence; and old-time visitors to St. Pierre recall with unfeigned regret the passing of the saintly woman whose demise we mourn to-day. Four years ago Mrs. Clinton came to St. Jacques to reside with her son-in-law, D. J. Burke, Esq., and during the years spent amongst us her life was an inspiration. The very personification of culture and refinement, her days were spent in acts of benevolence, relieving the burdens of the needy and bringing comfort to the cheerless.—Requiescat in pace.—Com.

The One to Own if You Can Own But One.

That is what a critical user of a "Globe-Wernicke" cabinet says of his equipment. Another says "It leaves nothing to be desired." Another says "So complete yet so concise." Another "Perfection as a filing arrangement." Another "It is really indispensable." Another "A surprising advance in handling records." Another "A welcome improvement in office conditions"—and so on. The extensive sale of "Globe" filing cabinets in St. John's is by no means as remarkable as the abundant evidence that it is on merit alone that these devices have earned such generous appreciation. For certain when you become a user you will be well contented with your adaptable and reliable outfit. Mr. Percie Johnson has your catalogue ready for the asking as well as other necessary details.

C. C. C. Nomination.

The C.C.C. Reserves held a largely attended meeting yesterday, and 22 new members joined. Nomination of officers resulted as follows:
Chairman—C. H. Vaughan.
Vice-Chairman—J. Spears, P. Kelly.
Secretary—W. J. Oakley.
Treasurer—T. Clare.
Asst.-Treas.—T. Ryan.
Mr. W. Oakley, for his untiring efforts as Secretary for the past year, was presented with a handsome gift which the recipient greatly appreciated. A discussion on Baseball matters resulted in the decision that the Reserves will not enter the Baseball League this year.

Food For Thought.

This is the cheapest food in the world. Fill your thoughts for a while with insurance, unless you are already covered. No thinking man neglects this protection. Thinking of insurance means thinking of Percie Johnson—and his low rates—and his prompt payment of claims. Why not ask for terms?—adv.t.f
