

Distinguished Visitor in Town.

Yesterday we received the following wire:
"COMING ON TRAIN TO-DAY. CAN YOU PUT ME UP?
 THE BEAR."

To which we replied:
"WILL PUT YOU UP IN OUR WINDOW. YOUR OLD FRIENDS WILL WELCOME YOU.
 F. SMALLWOOD."

He came, and he is now standing in our window, where he will receive visitors every day from 8.30 a.m. to 9 p.m., and on Saturday to 10 p.m. HE is surrounded by a great display of the famous BEAR BRAND Boots and Shoes which gained so much popularity last winter. Neat in shape, durable in construction, reasonable in price, BEAR BRAND Rubbers are the rubbers to buy. See them in our window and then come in and examine them.

Russia's Hero.

STORIES OF GENERAL IVANOFF.

After the dark and gloomy days, when at one time it seemed as though Russia's army would not escape the grip of Von Hindenburg, the Czar's forces turned, as did the French and British at the Marne, and not only checked the German advance, but smote the enemy with such effect that they compelled them to retreat and evacuate places they had won at fearful cost.

The man who engineered this magnificent offensive movement—General Ivanoff—is to-day the hero of Russia, while the grudging admission of the Germans that "Ivanoff operated with good fortune" shows how they respect and fear him.

General Ivanoff was not unknown before the war. As head of the fortress artillery at Kronstadt, he was responsible for introducing many new methods of training which resulted in bringing the Russian artillery up to the highest pitch of perfection. Original in his methods, he does not believe in placing discipline first and individual capacity second. He is fond of saying that the first thing a young artillery officer has to remember is that he has a head; which he has to keep cool in all circumstances and to use to the best of his ability. Strict execution of orders alone does not count much with him.

"Were a hundred guns thundering about the General's ears," says one who knows Ivanoff intimately, "he would still light his cigarette without a tremor and inquire casually of anyone who might know about the health of his family. He sleeps a normal eight hours only on the eve of great battles and great events, when, as he says, one has to keep his head cool." Officers love to work under Ivanoff, for he is a soldier who is always giving his men opportunities of distinguishing themselves. He issues his orders only in general terms, demanding that all details shall be worked out by subordinate officers, thus developing independent thinking and initiative among them. And they well know that should they succeed in carrying out and executing some successful strategic movement on their own initiative, the General will be the first to see that it is brought to the notice of those high in authority in order that the officer may be duly rewarded.

One of the greatest strategists Russia has ever possessed, General Ivanoff has many military achievements to his credit. Incidentally it might be mentioned that it was he who introduced the new mode of simultaneous firing by all coast batteries, which was adopted later on the coast fortresses in Russia, and which rendered such good service in the defence of Port Arthur.

A Good Baking Powder?

St. John, N.B., July 1st, 1915.
 Messrs. DEARBORN & CO., St. John, N.B.:

Gentlemen: I wish to state that I am very much pleased with your "Perfect" Baking Powder. I like it better than any Baking Powders I have tried. I have been using baking powder for a number of years.

Yours truly,
 ROBERT WILSON,
 Steward S.S. Pharsalia.

Hr. Grace Notes.

The Labrador schooners belonging to this place are now all home.

Mr. John Keeffe and crew arrived from Labrador by the s.s. Sagona, having lost their schooner Elizabeth at Corbett's Harbor, Labrador.

A very sad death occurred at Island Cove on Wednesday last. A young man named Griffin, who had been in poor health for some time had apparently become mentally unbalanced, and ended his sufferings by drowning. He left his home at about 10 p.m. and on Thursday morning his boots and cap were found on the bank over a deep gulch. His body was recovered. Judge Oke and a police officer immediately proceeded to the scene to hold an investigation.

Thursday last being the 9th anniversary of the consecration of His Lordship Bishop March, the officers and members of the C.C.C. called on His Lordship at the Palace and tendered their congratulations on the occasion. The Bishop was pleased to receive them. All our citizens join in good wishes to His Lordship for very many happy years in our midst.

Mr. E. Reid, of Heart's Delight, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Archibald Taylor arrived from Sydney on Tuesday last for the purpose of accompanying his mother, Mrs. Samuel Taylor, to his home there. Mrs. Taylor will reside at Sydney in future.

Dr. Goodwin is moving into his new dental parlors to-day. The genial doctor has now a most up-to-date office for his dental work, where his patrons will receive his best attention.

A Sunday School rally was held in the Methodist school hall yesterday afternoon. A large number of scholars and parents were present, and a most interesting service held.

Fancy Fair.

A Fancy Fair in aid of the R. C. Presbytery Fund will take place at Bell Island on Monday next, the 15th inst. Great preparations for the event have been made by Rev. J. McGrath, P. P., and the Ladies' Committee, and we understand that the Sale will be patronized by several visitors from the city who will go over for the occasion.

Wesley Students Enlist

At a meeting of the faculty and students of Wesley College, Montreal, held recently, it was pointed out that the Empire is passing through a critical period in her history, and that even a man's calling as a minister did not excuse him from doing his part. The College has already sent ten men to the front, and as a result of this recent appeal 25 men volunteered and amongst them are 11 Probationers of the Newfoundland Methodist Conference: Messrs. A. V. Robb, B. J. Warr, I. J. Waterman, H. Allenby, S. J. Pike, W. H. McKirdy, J. W. Baggs, A. F. Marsh, A. J. Penny, A. Patterson and E. Davis. The students will join the Canadian Officers' Training Corps, the faculty offering them certain examination exemptions.

Nyal Club Organized.

The Druggists of St. John's Bay Roberts, Carbonar and Grand Falls met last night at McGarry's Cafe and after doing ample justice to an extensive menu, organized the N.Y. Club, with the following officers: President—H. Pedigrew, St. John's; Vice-Pres.—P. O'Mara, St. John's; Sec.—Treas.—B. Stafford, St. John's; Advertising Committee—B. Stafford, St. John's; H. Thompson, Bay Roberts; Leo O'Mara, Grand Falls; T. McCarthy, Carbonar.

Mr. Scarborough, representing the firm of Frederick Stearns & Co., Windsor, Ont., was present and gave an interesting talk on efficiency and creative salesmanship. We expect to hear more from the Nyal Club in the near future.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Gentlemen,—I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT on my vessel and in my family for years, and for the every day ills and accidents of life I consider it has no equal.

I would not start on a voyage without it if it cost a dollar a bottle.
 CAPT. F. R. DESJARDIN,
 Schr. "Storke," St. Andre, Kamouraska.

Amusements.

AT THE CRESCENT.

Mr. Delmar sings the latest ballad published: "The Little Grey Mother," at Crescent Picture Palace to-day, don't miss hearing this song. A beautiful number. To-night "The New Magdalen" will be the second picture screened so as to give those engaged in stores and offices a chance to see this great feature and hear Mr. Delmar sing "The Little Grey Mother." To-morrow the Crescent presents a two act modern society drama: "The False Guardian." Don't miss to-day's fine show.

BRITISH THEATRE.

The boisterous weather of last night was more conducive to home comforts, yet a large attendance braved the elements in order to hear Mrs. Ayre at the British in her new song of the "Four Leaf Clover." Mrs. Ayre has lost none of her old time popularity which was amply proven by the applause which greeted her in her rendition of this number. Her many friends will have not only the pleasure of hearing her beautiful singing but also that of helping on the cause of the W.P.A. towards which her salary is being devoted. Miss Marguerite Mitchell comes forward to-night and generously offers her services for the same cause. Miss Mitchell will be heard in "Break into Song," and her initial appearance will we feel sure meet a very hearty reception. "On the Golf Links at Bally Haly" is the title of a film by our own N.Y. Biograph Co., and will be screened on Wednesday night. A number of our most prominent citizens of both sexes will be seen in close pursuit of this very healthful sport. The "Trey O' Hearts" will also be continued on Wednesday with an entire change of programme. Last night's show will be repeated again to-night, when the house will be kept open till a late hour for the convenience of many friends who may not be able to attend early.

CARROLL AND ELLOR — INSTANTANEOUS HIT.

The Irish sketch artists made a great impression last night. They are the tip top notchers and they had the house in roars. Carroll, as a female impersonator can't be beat; his wonderful voice and splendid appearance together with magnificent wardrobe delighted one and all, their act is original. Miss Ellor in her diamond dress looked a dream; altogether the act is so out of the ordinary that there can be no comparison to anything ever seen here before. The audience applauded loud and long and the clever artists had to respond again and again. They have numerous changes and sketches galore. The dancing of Miss Ellor was loudly applauded. The pictures are very fine. "A Man's Right to Die," in two parts, is a marvellous film and no one should miss; the other features are equally good. Mrs. Rossley has commenced her pantomime rehearsals for her fourth annual pantomime.

FINAL EPISODE OF THE "TREY O' HEARTS."

The final chapter of the "Trey O' Hearts" attracted large audiences to the Nickel Theatre yesterday in spite of the disagreeable weather. It is a most interesting episode and afforded pleasure to all who saw it. "In the Switch Tower," "The Poetic Justice of Omar Khan" and "Cupid's Column" were also high class pictures which were viewed with the greatest interest. This evening the whole programme will be repeated and as this will be the last opportunity to see the final chapter of the "Trey O' Hearts" there will no doubt be crowded houses. The theatre is open every night until 11 o'clock for the benefit of those working in the stores.

Safe Arrival of Our Soldiers.

"G" Company, of the 5th Contingent of Volunteers of the Newfoundland Regiment, that left here has reached Liverpool safely, after a speedy voyage, official notification of this having been received in a cable last night by His Excellency the Governor from Capt. Montgomerie, who went across in charge of the contingent and some German prisoners. The communication added, all well. The news of the safe arrival of our troops at their destination will be received with satisfaction. Company G left here on October 27th, by rail en route to Quebec where they embarked by Transport Corsican for Liverpool.

Wesley Church.

Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, B.A., officiated on Sunday morning, and preached a mastery and most eloquent discourse from the words, "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." (Mat. 6:34). The Rev. gentleman introduced his discourse by referring to the basis of religion as a means of living. The basis is formed either from an intellectual standpoint, or from imitative impulses. Intellectually or unintellectually such a basis will become an idea of living. The Rev. gentleman presented the question "What is your idea of living?" refuting the claims as to the impracticability of Christ's teaching for the present mode of living. Taking as an example "Take no thought for the morrow" he dealt with the wrong impression inferred from Christ's literal teachings, and pointed out most clearly that the selfish things, instead of becoming secondary have evidently become the pre-eminent motives of life. To some the true estimate of life consisted in either of the following: For the sake of adorning the body; satisfying taste; building a beautiful home; amassing wealth; educating children; cultivating morality; doing good to the world. The dominating thought, the real core, the central form of religion consists in doing good. The present life is only a means to an end. If duty formed in this regard, in the home, church and state divine intervention would amass her dividend. Life counts in heart throbs, but the troubles of each day are sufficient and cannot be transferred to the next day. In concluding the preacher referred most touchingly to the anxious mothers of this island, whose tears at this time stain the very ground upon which they fall. The entire discourse was attentively heard by all present. —T.M.G.

Getting Repaired.

The freighter Maggie Sullivan, which was badly battered on her last trip from here to Fogo, as exclusively reported in the Telegram a week ago, is now at the northern port undergoing permanent repairs. Besides a deal of other new rigging she is also getting put in position a new mainmast which arrived here by the last Red Cross Liner. In about a week's time repairs will be completed and the vessel ready to resume her work between this port and Fogo.
