THE DAILY DOPE

BY THE CUB-EDITOR

THE ANGELIC HUSBAND.

There are husbands who are pretty.
There are husbands who are witty.
There are husbands who in public are as smiling as the moon;
There are husbands who are healthy.
There are husbands who are wealthy.

But the real angelic husband—well, he's never yet been born.

Some for strength of love are noted.
Who are really so devoted.
That whenever their wives are absent
They are lonesome and forlorn;
And while now and then you'll find one

Who's a really good and kind one.
Yet the real angelic husband—oh, he's never yet been born.

ORIGINALITY FOR YOU!

"A wonderful man is my uncle," said little Blinks; "so very original and witty. He says he called his dog Sausage, because it was half-bred; his goat Nearly, because it was all butt; and his prize cock Robinson, because it Crusoe."

THE FEMINE OF IT.

Sylvia and Cynthia found themselves seated next to each other at the dinner party and immediately became confidential.

"Molly told me that you told her that secret that I told you not to tell her," whispered Sylvia.

"Oh, isn't she a mean thing!" gasped Cynthia. "Why, I told her not to tell you."

"Well," returned Sylvia, "I told her I wouldn't tell you she told me—so don't tell her I did."

Most of the women in Japan smoke, the girls beginning the practice when they are about ten years of age.

For every person that is worn out there are a hundred that have rusted out.

It is a singular fact that, while hares are excellent swimmers, rabbits cannot swim.

SHE'D MET HIM.

A young eligible in a tramcar, seeing a young lady whom he thought to be impressed with his personal charms, crossed over and took a seat beside her, and said:

"Haven't I met you somewhere before?"

To which she replied, in a voice heard by the other passengers:
"I'm not quite sure, but I think you are the man who cleans our windows."

The passengers laughed, and the youth left the car.

Would be interesting.

A country clergyman who was nailing up a refractory creeper observed a young lad watching him for a long time with obvious interest. "Well, my friend," he said, smilingly, "are you trying to get a hint or two on gardening?" "No!" said the youth: "Are you surprised to see me working like this?"
"No!" I do be waiting to see what a person do say when he hammers his thumb."

In China, many temples are provided with a bell at the entrance and when a wor-shipper enters he gives the rope a pull to ring the bell in order that the gods may be notified of his coming and be at hand to attend his prayers.

Beautiful talk is by no means the most pressing want in Parliament—Cariyle.

PAT'S STRATEGY.

An Irishman had to go to law and in consultation with his counsel he was told that he had a good fighting chance. Paddy, who was anxious to win the case, was meditative for a moment, then he said: "Do you think it would be any good to send the judge a pair of ducks?" "No no, you mustn't do that," said his lawyer. "If you send him a pair of ducks he will be sure to decide the case against you." "A day or so later the case was heard and Paddy won with flying colors. In the course of the congratulations, Paddy remarked: "It was just as well I sent the judge them ducks."

"What?" exclaimed the lawyer, "did you send the ducks?" "Yes," said Paddy quite pleased with himself, "but after what you said I sent them from the man on the other side."

FAITHFUL OLD MANUEL.

"Soldiers are personified as Tommy Atkins and sailors as Jack Tar; why not personify industrial workers as well?"

YOU NEVER HEAR IT NOW.

Teacher (in Life)—Give an example of a dead language. Young America—

What are you going to have?

Italy has more theatres in proportion than any other country.

In China when a pupil is reciting his lesson he turns his back to his teacher.

HIS PLEA.

Judge—Have you anything to say before sentence is passed on you? Prisoner—I voted for you, your honor!

HE DIDN'T HAVE IT.

Executive Officer (as ship is coming to anchor)—Leggo that starboard anchor. Recruit (just aboard ship recently)—I ain't got ahold of it, sir.

THEIR GOOD LUCK.

Young Wife—Oh, Jack, you don't mean to say that you've found a flat?
Husband—Not exactly, dear; but we're pretty fortunate. We are first in after couple who have just taken it for three years.

Wedding Bells.

SNELGROVE-COOPER.

A very pretty wedding took place at Lewisport, on Monday, Sept. 22nd, at 5 o'clock, when Miss Minnie Cooper, of Saltpond was united in matrimony to Mr. Herbert Snelgrove of Lewisport. The bride was handsomely attired in white silk net, over white satin, with veil and lilies of the valley and carried a bouquet of daisies and roses.

She was attended by Misses Ethel Torraville, Rhoda Small, Elsie North-cott. The groom was supported by Messrs. Curtis, Boon, Louis Northcott and Albert Anstey, while Mr. West Woodfrey acted as best man. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the groom where a sumptuous repast was partaken of by a host of friends and a very enjoyable time spent until 12 o'- clock.

The presents received were numerous and costly including several nice pieces of silver.
