Royal Oak Lodge Social

A very pleasant and enjoyable time was spent last Wednesday night in Victoria Hall, where a Concert and Social was held under the auspices of Royal Oak Lodge for their benevolent purposes, and was largely patronized. Long before the hour for commencement made its appearance the hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and scores had to go away, not being able to gain admittance. The following is a list of the programme:

- Chairman's Remarks
- Selection—G.L.P. Band
- Piano Solo—Arthur Walker
- Recitation—Miss Omond
- Dumb Bells—Miss A. Churchill
- Song—F. J. Kier
- Recitation—Miss Mildred Milley
- Reading—Mrs. E. Courtenay
- Recitation—L. Cullen
- Address—P.G.M. F. G. Bradley
- Dialogue—Misses Smith and Mrs. Hefferton
- Recitation—Miss Eva LeGrow
- Mas. T. Noseworthy
- Miss Noseworthy
- T. Donnell
- Song—T. Noseworthy, Jr.

Between the different items the C. L.B. Band under the direction of Capt. A. Morris, rendered some old-time Orange and other music, which was a pleasure to listen to, and which was well appreciated by all present. The different performers had to respond to several encores, and were received with great applause. After the programme had been gone through, a vote of thanks was moved by R. Dave and seconded by J. Wiseman to the performers of the evening and the Band; also to the gathering who so nobly responded to the worthy cause. Tea was then served and all present did ample justice to satisfy the inner man. The chairman of the evening was Mr. R. J. Ivay, W.M. of Royal Oak Lodge. The proceeds of the evening was a substantial amount, and as it is for a worthy cause—in helping widows and orphans—it is something the committee in charge feels proud of. The happy gathering dispersed at 11 o'clock after the rendition of the National Anthem by the Band.

After illness—recuperate, take SCOTT'S EMULSION
