PASSED AWAY!

Death Strikes Down the Heir-Presumptive to England's Throne.

The Duke of Clarence Died at 9:15 O'Clock This Morning.

Sandringham.

How the Sad News Was Received in the Nation's Metropolis—Demonstrations of Sorrow and Sympathy on Every Hand.

THE DUKE DIED THIS MORNING.
LONDON, Jan. 14.—The Duke of Clarence and Avondale died at 9 o'clock this morning.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The Duke of Clarence and Avondale is dead. The Prince sent the following telegram to the Lord Mayor of London: "My beloved son passed away at 9 o'clock to-day.—ALBERT EDWARD."
The news caused widespread grief, and the city was everywhere apparent. All public buildings displayed flags at half-mast throughout the city of London. The sad intelligence has been received with expressions of the deepest sorrow.

THE LORD MAYOR'S MESSAGE.
On receipt of the news of the death of the Duke of Clarence at once gave orders to have the great bell in St. Paul's Cathedral tolled, and also sent the following message to the Prince of Wales: "We are profoundly moved by the sad news and have communicated it to our fellow citizens. We tender our deep and respectful sympathy with your Royal Highness in this great sorrow and national calamity."
THE GREAT BELL IN ST. PAUL'S.
The bell in St. Paul's is never tolled, save on the occasion of the death of a heir to the throne, and therefore no further information was needed for the people of London to make them aware that after a gallant struggle the Duke had finally succumbed.

THE NEWS IN LONDON.
The telegram from the Prince of Wales to the Lord Mayor announcing the death of the Duke was not posted at the Mansion House till 10:30 o'clock. When the piece of white paper was put up, there were only a few persons in waiting. They received the news with stiller indifference.
The crowd at no time exceeded 50. During the first half hour after the announcement was posted, scarcely any comments were made.

IN THE WEST END.
In the West End there was a scene that was in striking contrast to the indifference displayed in the vicinity of the Mansion House. Hundreds of persons well known in the upper circles, members of the aristocracy and others gathered in little groups and generally discussed the death of the Duke and its effect upon the succession in all its bearings. Serious faces could be seen all along Pall Mall, and there is no doubt the calamity is much taken to heart by the English nobility. The blinds of public houses and of many private houses and shops are drawn in the West End of the city. The afternoon papers all appeared with mourning borders.

Up to noon no official bulletin of the death of the Duke had been issued at Sandringham Hall, but soon after 10 the blinds of the house were drawn and the flag on the church began tolling. These facts gave to the people waiting about the gates the first intimation that all was over.

AT SANDRINGHAM HALL.
From an early hour this morning reinforcements of police were detailed to duty about Sandringham Hall, and they prevented access to the house. As the day progressed the crowd in the vicinity of Marlborough House increased. The Mall was at times completely blocked with carriages conveying the most notable people in the kingdom. Lord Salisbury, the Prime Minister and Lady Salisbury, and nearly the entire diplomatic corps were among the callers.

THE PHYSICIANS' FINAL BULLETIN.
At 1 o'clock this afternoon the following dispatch was received from Sandringham:
"After a marked improvement during the early part of the night the strength of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale suddenly failed. About 9 o'clock he began to gradually sink and death occurred at 9:15 a.m." This dispatch was signed by the three physicians who had been in attendance upon his Royal Highness.

The bells in Westminster Abbey were tollled from 12 o'clock until 1 o'clock.

THE LINE OF SUCCESSION.
By the death of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale Prince George of Wales becomes the heir of the Prince of Wales, and therefore heir-presumptive to the throne.

THE FEELING IN MONTREAL.
MONTREAL, Jan. 14.—No recent event has elicited so much sympathy in the Province of Quebec as the death of the Duke of Clarence, coupled with that of Cardinal Manning. All the churches in the city are at half mast, and the bell of Notre Dame is tolling for the dead.

A SAD LOSS.
Death of John A. Sparling, B.A., of Strathroy Collegiate Institute.

STRATHROY, Jan. 13.—J. A. Sparling, B.A., mathematical teacher in the Strathroy Collegiate Institute, died this morning from inflammation of the bowels. He was taken sick last Thursday night while attending a committee meeting, and sank steadily until this morning, when he died.

Mr. Sparling first attended the Strathroy Collegiate Institute as a pupil seven years ago, and then, after receiving his degree in Toronto, returned as teacher in training, and immediately after was appointed mathematical teacher, which position he has ably filled ever since. He was a young man of great natural abilities, and being a conscientious worker, not only the school, but the whole town, feel they have sustained a loss that nothing can replace. The Front Street Methodist Church will especially feel the blow, for he was the leading spirit there, not only in the young people's meetings, but in the Sunday school, where he taught a Bible class of about 80 members. The deceased had many friends in St. Mary's, where his parents live; in Toronto, where he attended school; and also in Denfield and Westminster where he was a public school teacher. His body will be taken to Toronto, on the 1:30 p.m. train, to St. Mary's, where it will be interred. There will be no school for the rest of the week. All is stopped in loving memory of the departed.

A PASTOR'S KISSING RIGHTS.
He Embraced Faith Home Girls, and Says the Bible Sustains Him.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 14.—Chaplain Morrow, of Bethany Faith Home, has been removed for kissing and hugging the female attendants. Mr. Morrow was caught in the act on one or two occasions.

Pastor Morrow when confronted with the charges acknowledged their truth and defended his action on the plea that it was directly right to kiss whomsoever he pleased. He confessed to having kissed the colored attendant, Aunt Levina. He holds that the doctrine of St. Paul, which approved the holy kiss as the proper means of greeting, and that he had a perfect right to carry out the directions of the Scriptures in that particular.

A NEW ENGINE OF DESTRUCTION.
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Pat Cunningham has invented a rocket torpedo that, from present authentic information, will be a powerful engine of destruction, and will cause a wonderful change of tactics in the present torpedo method of attack. Secretary Tracy has ordered it to be practically and thoroughly tested. It can be easily fired from a fast boat as from land. When it strikes the water a fuse ignites the powder and it then shoots through the water with great force, which works flanges giving the rocket torpedo terrific force. When the gas is exhausted or the target is struck the machine sinks to the bottom and causes no danger to navigation. The machine is 14 feet long, 14 inches in diameter and weighs 400 pounds.

Handcock Acquitted.
TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 14.—The evidence in the Handcock case was all in before the court rose for lunch yesterday. Judge Street charged strongly in favor of the prisoner, laying great stress on the fact that Handcock's daughter had been murdered by a tramp for a pistol bullet, while Handcock was never known to handle a bullet. The accident theory was abandoned by all parties, and counsel for the defense urged that the murder was probably committed by a tramp for the purpose of robbing the deceased who had turned up since her death. The jury were out after a full hour and a quarter, and then returned with a verdict of "not guilty."

Handcock, a married man, who had borne up bravely, murmured faintly, "Thank you, my Lord," when Judge Street pronounced him a free man, and then rushed into the arms of his wife and family who had stood by his side all day.

Madagascar is the country for ill-matched couples to reside in. There's no use or flattery when a man wants a divorce from his wife. All he has to do is to give her a piece of money—a plugged quarter will do —and say: "Madam, I thank you." She knows then that she has got, and gets accordingly.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil, is ear-ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the turp, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are especially subject.

Beware of advertised medicines which contain a large percentage of narcotics; they are highly dangerous at all times.
Pain's Eucalypti Oil is perfectly free from such injurious ingredients, and is always safe and reliable.

CARDINAL MANNING.

Death of the Noted Prelate—His Passing Away Painless and Peaceful.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—There was a marked change for the worse in the condition of Cardinal Manning at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, and the illustrious prelate passed away at 8 o'clock this morning.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The Cardinal continued to grow weaker during the night, and finally his prostration became complete. He was able to join in the prayers which were being offered at his bedside.
At 10:30 o'clock he became unconscious.
His death was calm, and he passed away evidently without pain. Telegrams of regret from all parts of the world are being received.

DEATH OF CARDINAL SIMONI.
ROME, Jan. 14.—Cardinal Simoni, aged 76 years, formerly Papal Secretary of State and Prefect-General of the Propaganda, born July 23, 1816.

terview with President Walker, of the Lake himself as favorable to the idea, provided

A French engineer has invented a device for automatically stopping a train when approaching another train on the same track. It consists of a valve placed under the brake pipe, so arranged that a metallic arm will apply the brakes to the train when meeting any obstruction. Between the rails are placed levers about a mile apart, operated either by electricity or mechanical connection with the engine.
These levers, both in front and behind it, so that a train approaching it in either direction has the brakes applied by means of the lever striking the metallic arm of the locomotive and the train is brought to a standstill without any action on the part of the engineer.

ENGLAND'S UNHAPPY WIVES.
No Less Than 275 Divorce or Separation Suits Set for Trial.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The official list of suits for divorce or separation to be heard at the ending sitting of the court is unusually heavy. There are 89 defended cases, 136 undefended, 35 to come before the common law judges and 15 for special juries, a total of 275. In addition to this there are 33 cases which are to stand over by consent.

One of the first cases to be disposed of raises the very important and unprecedented question whether a respondent, who is admittedly insane, and who appears by her guardian, can be adjudged guilty of adultery.

In another case there are no less than eight co-respondents, and in the petition the husband, who is a commercial traveler, gives the entire eight names, and they are printed in the document.

IN LABOR'S FIELD.
The molders of Hamilton met and discussed the action of the foundrymen in asking them to accept a cut of 10 per cent. and 25 cents per day. The foundrymen want an answer by Saturday, but the molders will wait to see what the foundrymen will do, and when they intend to start work.
There are nearly 400 molders in the Hamilton union.

DECATUR, Ill., Jan. 14.—John Higgs, son of Thos. Higgs, came to town on Saturday and reported finding in the house $35,000 in cash. It was his old father, who died on Wednesday. He has been known for many years as the stingiest man in the country.
He made money on his farm of 120 acres, but never spent any and never put any in bank. Since his death the family have been digging up the farm and searching the buildings for the old man's money. They found the pile in a box in the house. The old man built 40 acres of land some time ago and paid for it all in silver dollars that he had stored away.

CHAPLEAU'S RETIREMENT.
An Associated Press dispatch from Ottawa says Hon. J. A. Chapleau will definitely leave the Cabinet immediately after the Quebec Provincial elections and the bye-elections are over. Mr. L. H.
Tache, late private secretary to Mr. Chapleau, said:

"When Mr. Chapleau, of his own free will, has fallen referred to Mr. Abbott's promise to appoint the Secretary of State Minister of Railways and Canals it was his feeling that he would then withdraw from the Cabinet. Lieutenant-Governor Angers and all our friends in Quebec, however, most anxious that he should remain in office until the crisis in Quebec, which was then foreseen, had passed. Sacrificing his own feelings to the wishes of his friends, he remained in office, but when the Quebec Provincial elections were over, and the Cabinet on the ground of ill-health."

SNOWBOUND IN SCOTLAND.
Relief Fails to Reach a Stalled Passenger Train.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Reports from Scotland and the northern counties of England are that the fall of snow continues incessant and heavy, while the weather remains intensely cold. A passenger train which left Edinburgh on Monday morning, and which had become imbedded in a snow drift a considerable distance from a railroad station in Caithness, the most northerly county of Scotland, remains immovable. A relief train which was dispatched to the assistance of the stalled passenger train, found it impossible to make headway against the dense masses of snow which the wind constantly piled up in the roadway, and it too, was compelled to stand on the track powerless alike to aid the passenger train or to extricate itself.
A second relief train and crew, drawn by powerful engines was sent towards the scene of the blockade. The snow-bound passenger and train crews being in a miserable plight.

THE OTTAWA TRAGEDY.
Examination in the Case of Labelle, Charged with Wife-Murder.

OTTAWA, Jan. 14.—Yesterday the preliminary hearing of the charge of wife-murder against Leonce Labelle was resumed.
Katie Labelle, proved she was in good health at 10 p.m. on Dec. 27, but at 2 a.m. next day she was dead. When he saw her the night before her death she was in bed, and showed him where she had been burned across the breast with carbolic acid. Next morning he saw her lying dead in bed with only a sheet over her, and her lips appeared to have been burned. Labelle had been drinking the Saturday previous. He thought Labelle and his wife had lived happily together.

Nurse Semick, whom Labelle called early on the morning of the death, said she found deceased dead in bed without a sheet under her and naked. She was lying on her back. There were marks on the arms and behind the ears. Her right foot was under her left knee and the left hand under her right knee, as if she was lying. Mrs.
Flannigan, mother of deceased, gave prisoner a bad name for his treatment of his wife, and said prisoner told her in her own house he was the cause of her death. Her daughter often complained of Labelle's treatment; he was never a good son-in-law. Mrs. Rose Lemieux, sister of deceased, gave evidence as to the finding of clothing much torn and smelling of carbolic acid, from which poison deceased died. On the Saturday previous to the death, prisoner tried to smother witness, and ordered her out of the house. When she left he was dragging his wife about and abusing her. The case is adjourned till Saturday.
