France in a Ferment

Intense Excitement Attendant on Carnot's Assassination.

Strong Feeling Developed Against the Italian Element.

Casimir-Perier a Favorite for the French Presidency.

The Latest Thing in English Exhibitions —A Favorite Doctor Who Makes —$30,000 a Year.

Marriage of Morocco's New Sultan.

TANGER, June 25.—The new Sultan Abdul Aziz has been married to the daughter of Muley Eshid, uncle of the late Sultan Muley Hassan.

Common Glory and Common Sorrow.

ROME, June 25.—King Humbert went personally to the French embassy to convey his sympathies. He also sent a dispatch to Premier Dupuy recalling the fact that the assassination of President Carnot, on the anniversary of the battle of Solferino, which was won by the armies of France and Italy, and adding "that sacred day which united the two nations in common glories reunites them in common sorrow."

A Lucky Doctor.

LONDON, June 25.—The physician who was in attendance on the Duchess of York is Dr. John Williams, the ardent Welsh Nationalist and Radical, who for years was a hard-working general practitioner at Swansea, making an income of not more than a couple of thousand dollars a year. A fortunate chance brought him to notice in the University Hospital, London, and he was appointed to a professorship in that institution. Now he is patronized by the Princess Beatrice, the Duchess of Fife and half the aristocratic women in London, and his income is estimated at $30,000 a year.
He likes nothing better than addressing meetings of his countrymen in their own language.

"Spoon" Loyalty.

LONDON, June 25.—Manufacturing popular support for royalty has awkward effects sometimes. The other day a so-called loyal deputation of subjects waited upon the King of Serbia to thank him for trampling upon their liberties by suspending the constitution. According to the ancient custom they were entertained at a luncheon, at which shadok, the national dish, was served to them on gold plates. After their departure it was discovered that some spoons, which were also of gold, had disappeared. The men were followed and the spoons were found in their pockets. It seems that the deputation consisted of men picked up on the highways, who were paid by the police to play the part of admiring subjects.

Devil Worshipers.

PARIS, June 25.—The French police have been instructed to take some steps against the sect of devil-worshippers, whose strange practices are exciting much angry comment. Apart from stealing consecrated hosts from the tabernacles of lonely churches, and other outrages, the Satanists have organized a clandestine catechism class to which children preparing for their first communion have been inveigled.
Strangers are not admitted to the conventicle in the rue Rochefort, an ordinary Roman chapel. The cross over the altar is fixed head downward, another cross being placed at the door, over which each worshiper walks.

The Albion Colliery Catastrophe.

LONDON, June 25.—A dispatch from Preston says 172 bodies have been taken out of the Albion colliery, in which the fire damp explosion occurred Saturday.
CARDIFF, Wales, June 25.—So far 142 bodies have been taken from the Albion colliery at Cilfynydd, where Saturday's explosion occurred. The whole number of dead will reach 250. The bodies of those recovered who were killed by the actual explosion, which was terrific, were terribly mutilated. In many cases arms and legs were blown completely from the trunk.
Bodies from missing bodies have been found in several parts of the mine.

Imperial Reciprocity.

LONDON, June 25.—Mr. Cecil Rhodes, "no never disappears from view for long, has made a remarkable speech at Cape Town, followed by still more remarkable results in London. He appears as the apostle of imperial reciprocity. He tells his South African fellow-citizens that he proposed to the Colonial Office an arrangement in virtue of which British goods should be admitted free of duty to continent South Africa under less duties than imports of foreign nations, the duties never to exceed their present maximum. He omits to say with precision what he asked in return, referring vaguely, though in a spirit of imperial patriotism, to the naval protection of her colonies by England. But England, that is to say the Colonial Office, under direction of the Cabinet, rejected Mr. Rhodes' offer.

The French Presidency.

PARIS, June 25.—Casimir Perier's chances for the presidency seem to improve steadily.
This evening he is a more conspicuous favorite than ever.

The entire press of Paris print articles eulogizing President Carnot. Every public monument and edifice throughout the country is draped with crepe or mourning.

PARIS, June 25.—The Republican group in the Chamber of Deputies—120 in number—have decided to vote for M. Casimir-Perier for President. The members of the Extreme Left held a meeting this afternoon, M. Goblet presiding, and selected M.
Brisson as their candidate. The Socialist group have decided to bar the way of any capitalist or clerical candidate. The Senate groups are undecided. M. Leon Say is mentioned as a candidate by some of his adherents.

Carnot's Resting-Place.

LONDON, June 25.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily News says President Carnot will be laid in the Pantheon beside that of his grandfather. The President abstained from visiting Lyons, and hesitated a long time owing to weariness, his health having never recovered from the strain caused by the fete in 1889. However, when his entourage mentioned the rumors that the Anarchists in Lyons were determined to avenge Vaillant he felt in honor bound to go. Since Vaillant's execution he has received daily menacing letters. He disdained to notice them, and refused to take any extraordinary precautions.

Albani.

LONDON, June 25.—Albani, whose real name is La Jeunesse, was a native of Canada, having been born near Montreal in 1847. She was a descendant of French settlers. At a comparatively early age her education was begun at the Convent of the Sacre Cœur at Montreal. Later she went to Europe for her musical education. She studied in Paris under Duprey, and at Milan under the old Maestro Lamperti.
Her debut was made at Albany, whence she took her name. In 1870 she appeared at Messina with success, also at Malta and at La Pergola, Florence. She first sang in London at the Italian Opera in 1872, where she continued a favorite. Her most successful roles were Aminta, Marguerite, Mignon and Ophelia, in the last of which she made a marked success. A landmark in her career was her appearance as Elsa in "Lohengrin" in 1873. She married Mr.
Ernest Gye, formerly manager of the Italian Opera in London.

The Latest Exhibition.

LONDON, June 25.—If France be mother of great and general exhibitions England can boast the largest progeny of small or specialized ones. With characteristic caution the British mind has never seen in international exhibitions profits large enough to warrant generous parliamentary grants commensurate with those of France for like undertakings. Unless the British tradesman finds the cash in his own till as the result of a public investment, he sets the project down as having been visionary or futile. None of the international exhibitions held at London paid in the shopkeeper's sense; and it was impossible that any should pay, for Parliament never made the grant required to assure dividends.
But the small and special exhibitions, like the colonial, the fisheries, the electrical, the naval, have been sources of general if petty revenue to small trade and such shows are promoted with eagerness by voluntary capital. The latest is not a "baby show," as the term is commonly understood. It is an "infant exhibition," and to a considerable extent it is international. It comprehends an ethnological department, a food department, a raiment department, and a toy department. It was not at first in such swelling clothes, nor is it likely Pharaoh's daughter matched in skill with the needle mysterious and dainty achievements to be seen in the stalls where baby garments are exposed. There is a department of baths, of intellectual training as well as physical.
The array of toys from hundreds of different patterns of dolls of every size, color, age, style and material to a bewildering collection of articles of instruction and amusement recall all the fairy tales of wonderland.

Excitement in Lyons.

PARIS, June 25.—In Lyons the evening has been varied by alternate periods of perfect quiet and intense excitement.
Early in the evening a mob burned down an Italian grocery in the Rue Cuver and the Italian Musical Society's hall in the Rue Méné. The mob was dispersed by the police after the harm had been done, and for nearly two hours there was no sign of disturbance. Then a procession formed suddenly in the middle of the city and marched through the streets shouting. Hardly fifteen minutes after this procession was scattered another one formed. The men were driven from the line by the police and 30 men were arrested. A third procession was dispersed at 11 o'clock, after 25 more arrests had been made. The total number of arrests during the evening was above 60. Between 11 and 12 o'clock some 2,000 men and a few women began marching and shouting for vengeance. The police watched them closely and warned them not to be too demonstrative, but did not interfere with them. The Lyons police learned this morning that Vielly, alias Marius Famé, a Lyons Anarchist, was heard saying on Friday evening: "If President Carnot comes to Lyons he will be hurt. Somebody will stick a knife into him while he is riding about town." The police believed that Vielly might be Cesario's accomplice, but M. Benoit, the examining magistrate, did not attach much importance to the evidence in question, thinking that Vielly was merely an Anarchist braggart. The police in Montpellier, near Lyons, went this afternoon to the house of the Anarchist Laborie, who is believed to have harbored Cesario one night last week.
He had fled. Cesario's brother was interviewed this afternoon in Milan. He said of the assassin: "He was an excellent fellow before he joined the Anarchists. I don't believe he planned the murder. His comrades undoubtedly made a tool of him." Cesario's mother is overwhelmed with grief.
He was her favorite son.

Sure Hobbs Will Win.

Toronto Star, June 25: "I don't want to talk loud, but I have $100 in my pocket that I will lay against $20 that Hobbs beats Meredith by 300 votes," said William Graham, of Woodstock, who was in the city to-day.

After the Tragedy.

Action of the British and American Governments

In Regard to the Assassination of President Carnot.

Many Messages of Sympathy for the Stricken Widow.

Preparations Already Begun to Select a Successor to the Fallen Leader—Anti-Italian Demonstrations.

IN THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, June 25.—The House of Commons was filled with members and visitors at the opening to-day. The sympathy of members with France was fully expressed.
Sir Wm. Harcourt announced that tomorrow he would move an address to the Queen requesting her Majesty to express the sentiment of her own feeling, which might convey to France the abhorrence with which the House of Commons received the news of the murder which deprived President Carnot of his life. The announcement was received with cheers.

LONDON, June 25.—Queen Victoria today sent a long dispatch to Mme. Carnot, expressing her deep sorrow and sympathy.
Lord Kimberly to-day telegraphed the Marquis of Dufferin, British ambassador at Paris, instructing him to express in the name of the Queen her Majesty's horror and deep regret at the murder of President Carnot.

THE NEWS IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—Secretary Gresham received a message from Ambassador Eustis this morning announcing the death of the French President. Almost at the same time M. Palmer, French ambassador, called, bringing the official notification of the French Government.

Mr. Gresham immediately started for White House, and the President addressed the following message to Congress:

The shocking intelligence has been received that the President of the French Republic has met his death at the hands of an assassin. This terrible event cannot fail to deeply arouse the sympathy of the American nation, while the violent termination of a career promising so much in aid of liberty and advancing civilization should be mourned as an affliction of mankind. (Signed) GROVER CLEVELAND.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, June 25.

FROM PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.
The President also sent the following to Eustis in Paris:

State Washington, June 25.
Eustis, ambassador, Paris, France: Express to the Minister of Foreign Affairs the profound sorrow with which the President and American people have heard of the atrocious crime which has robbed a sister republic of its wise, humane and patriotic chief magistrate.

(Signed) GRESHAM.

Both Houses of Congress adopted appropriate resolutions, and addresses were delivered eulogistic of the dead statesman.

FROM EMPEROR WILLIAM.

BERLIN, June 25.—Chancellor Von Caprivi called at the French embassy at 10 o'clock this morning to convey an expression of the sorrow and sympathy of the Emperor. Hundreds of carriages containing callers with similar messages continue to call at the embassy during the morning.
The newspapers as yet have made no comments.

THE POPE DEEPLY AFFECTED.

ROME, June 25.—The Pope is deeply affected by the assassination of President Carnot. His Holiness has advised his entourage to offer prayers that complications between France and Italy may be avoided.

The officials of the Chamber of Deputies, headed by Signor Biancheri, with officers of the municipality, called at the French embassy after adjournment of the Chamber to offer sympathy and condolence.

IN ROME.

ROME, June 25.—In the course of his remarks in the Senate this morning on the assassination of President Carnot, Premier Crispi said the murderer belonged to an infamous set that recognized neither country nor family and against whom every nation ought to raise its executive reprobation.

The President of the Senate expressed his indignation at the idea that any opprobrium should attach to Italy through M.
Carnot's assassination. He hoped the event would become a pledge of unity throughout the mutual sorrow of France and Italy.

SENATORS GO TO CARNOT'S CHAIR.

PARIS, June 25.—The lobbies of the Senate and Chamber were crowded this morning. The friends of Premier Dupuy are already active in their efforts to promote the candidacy for the Presidency.
Casimir Perier's friends, however, declare that he is morally certain to be elected.
La France makes a bitter attack upon M.
Risman, the Italian ambassador.

IN PARIS.

PARIS, June 25.—Most of the theaters in the city are closed this evening. The civil courts were closed to-day.

The prominent members of the Italian colony in Paris are obtaining signatures to an address to Mme. Carnot, wife of the dead President, expressing their horror at his assassination and their sympathy and condolence with his family and the country.

ROCHEFORT'S VIEW.

LONDON, June 25.—Henry Rochefort, in an interview to-day, said: I fear the murder of President Carnot will be followed by reprisals against Italians and a repetition of the bloody scenes of the Aigues Mortes.
I am receiving telegrams from which I have the assurance that no Frenchman or Anarchist had to do with the affair. In regard to the election of Carnot's successor I do not think M. Constans has any chance in the race with Casimir-Perier and Dupuy.
I think the choice will fall upon Dupuy.
If Casimir-Perier is elected France will fall under the regime of an autocrat. I have no fear that Gen. Sausser or any other military officer will be elected.

ANTI-ITALIAN DEMONSTRATIONS.

PARIS, June 25.—Several Italians were attacked by a mob on the Quai Montabell-to-day, and the most strenuous efforts of the police were required to save their lives. Subsequently anti-Italian demonstrations were made in front of the Italian embassy and consulate. Both were promptly suppressed by the police.
An anti-Italian riot took place at Grenoble this afternoon which threatened serious results. The prefect, with the aid of a strong force of police, succeeded in quelling the disturbance. The mob subsequently paraded the streets singing the "Marseillaise."

THE COMING ELECTION.

PARIS, June 25.—In the course of the Ministerial Council at the Elysee this morning the question was raised as to the power of M. Challemeil Lacour, President of the Senate, to convene the National Congress on Wednesday at Versailles.
Premier Dupuy defended the action of Challemeil Lacour on the ground that a new President must be elected within three days of the decease of former executive.
Wednesday was fixed in order to enable deputies living in places distant from Paris to arrive in time to vote in the Versailles congress.

FRANCE HAS THE SYMPATHIES OF THE WORLD.

LONDON, June 25.—The Pall Mall Gazette says that Sento, the assassin of President Carnot, is either a lunatic or a member of the Anti-Social League which is aiming to make all government impossible.
The natural good sense of the French, the paper believes, will not allow the fact that the assassin is an Italian to arrest the growth of better feeling which has been awakened between the two countries.
France is assured of the sympathies of the world, an event which is likely to weld together Frenchmen of all parties, making the path of the next President smoother.

DON'T BE DECEIVED!

A Specimen Roorbach Sprung on St.
Thomas People.

Dirty Tricks Resorted to by Desperate Partisans.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

ST. THOMAS, June 25.—The Tories of St.
Thomas prepared a dirty roorbach for distribution during the night which is one of the most dastardly and contemptible tricks of the campaign.

Finding that they had been outgeneraled at every turn, and that the splendid young candidate of the Liberals of West Elgin was sure of election, they have left no trick untried.

Their last resort was the preparation of a document which is little less than a forgery.

A dodger headed—"To the Polls! Meredith Must Be Beaten—Our Solid vote Should be Cast Against Him," and concluding with an appeal to the Catholics to vote for Mr. McNish, the Liberal candidate, was printed at a job office here. By a lucky mischance this document was sent to the Liberal club room.

The object of the scheme, of course, was to induce the Protestant electors to bolt the Liberal candidate.

A reply was promptly prepared and the notorious scheme nipped in the bud. It is needless to say excitement ran high, and the organization of a vigilance committee was a matter of only a few moments.

It was not long until a rig started out from the Tory committee rooms.

The conveyance was soon overhauled and it was found to contain, besides these precious documents, no less a personage than the member of the Commons for East Elgin, A. D. Ingram?

A lively scene ensued, Mr. Ingram seized a Young Liberal by the throat and the crowd begged for mercy and sought police protection.

The discovery was opportune, and there is little fear that the wideawake Liberals of this riding will be defeated to-morrow.

intended to blow up the Czar was laid near the Memorial Church in Borki, which the Czar was expected to visit shortly. It publishes also a paragraph to the effect that an infernal machine was found recently in a cellar near the St. Petersburg palace.
