Plans and Preparations of the Powers at Pekin-

British Troops to Gradually Withdraw to India-Three Thousand Russians Defeated by Chinese.

Pekin, March 3 .- The American preparations for the departure are going actively forward. All supplies, except enough for two companies, have been packed and marked for Manila. horses, by swimming. The British plans contemplate a summer along the Pei Ho and a gradual withdrawal of forces to India, leaving behind by next winter half a battalion of Welsh Fusiliers as a legation guard in Pekin, together with an Indian regiment to guard the railway. The Germans show few signs of intention to depart, but they are endeavoring to sell 5,000 American and Australian horses, as well as a quantity of cam-It is reported that the French intend to withdraw most of the forces, leaving one infantry brigade, a regiment of cavalry and some artillery to protect the French legation and to guard the lines of communication. A part of the force, it is understood, will be employed to guard the Franco-Belgian railway from Pekin to Pao Ting Fu. In French military circles it is freely asserted that the French intend to send a force to be stationed permanently at Hankow and to guard the other end of the Lu Han railroad, 120 kilometres of which has been completed. More definite information on this point is awaited with anxiety by the British, who regard such as an intention with serious misgivings, because calculated to bring about complications with the Yang Tse viceroys

SHARP SOCIAL LINES. Particularly noticeable just now are the sharp lines drawn between the various nationalities at prominent social functions. General Gazelee, the British commander, gave an elaborate dinner, at which only British, German and American representatives were present. M. De Giers, the Russian minister, gave a banquet, at which only Russians, Frenchmen and Australians were guests, while the Japanese minister entertained at dinner last evening all Americans and Japanese. The ministers of powers now meet thrice a week, but no business of great importance is transacted. At present they are now going over local claims. Many of these are being thrown out because of their known excessiveness. The subject of legation defenses is also being considered, although this left for final consideration until the United States Government has reached the decision. IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE. Washington, March 2.-In response to a resolution of the senate, inquir-ing as to whether the United States minister to China had joined representatives of other governments a demand for the executtion of Prince Tuan and other Chinese officials and by whose authority, the president tonight sent the following reply, signed by Secretary Hay: "It is charged by the foreign ministers in Pekin and admitted by the government of China, that certain high officials of that country have been guilty of henious crimes and outrages against American missionaries and other foreigners. department has not directed our minister in Pekin to demand capital punishment for all these persons, but has instructed him to join with his colleagues in demanding the severest punishment which it is in the power of the Chinese government to inflict."

RUSSIANS DEFEATED. Shanghai, March 2 .- According to a dispatch from New Chwang, 3,000 Russians engaged 10,000 mounted banditti near Shing King recently. The Russians retired on Mukden. They lost one gun, and 20 were killed and 20 wounded.

TO HASTEN PEACE. Berlin, March 2.-A Pekin dispatch of Feb. 28, to the Cologne Gazette, says that at a meeting of the foreign ministers, the American minister proposed a series of resolutions whereby negotiation concerning the importation of arms and the manufacture of ammunition, the legation guards, the dismantling of the forts between Taku and Pekin, the reorganization of the Tsung Li Yamen and the abolition of the ceremonial in the reception of ministers, might be hastened.

ALL AGAINST RUSSIA. Berlin, March 2 .- It is officially understood that Germany, Austria, Italy, Great Britain, Japan and the United States have separately made to the Chinese plenipotentiaries in friendly representations as to how unwise it would be for China, at the present stage of the peace negotiations, to grant any power separate concessions and thus to render more difficult an agreement with the oth-

THEY SWAM THE ORANGE!

How Dewet and Steyn With 1,500 Men Get Away.

Boers Lose Heavily in Men and Stores --- Military Critics Irritated and Public Growing Weary---Returned Canadian Invalids.

SWAM THE ORANGE.

Colony, dispatch, dated Friday, March 1, says: Fifteen hundred Boers, with whom, it is alleged, were Gen. Dewet stenographer was as follows: 'All the and former President Steyn, found a spot at Lilliefontein, near Colesberg Bridge, where the Orange River widens and the current is slow, and they all crossed yesterday, both men and

HEAVY BOER LOSSES in men and horses by his incursion into Cape Colony, but he seems to have made a clever escape with the bulk of his command. Apparently Commandant Hertzog crossed the Orange River with him. Gen. Bruce Hamilton, who was pursuing, heard that Gen. Dewet was surrounded at Philippstown, northwest of Colesburg. On arriving there he found the Boers had not been at Philippstown at all, but had doubled back, and were struggling across the river at Colesburg. Apparently this is another in-fluence of defective intelligence regarding the doings of the Boers. STILL CHASING DEWET. The Daily Mail has a dispatch from Colesberg, dated yesterday, which says: "Our numerous columns are still hunting for Dewet. This place is in a hub-bub, and troops are marching off in various directions to press the pursuit further."

MILITARY PROPHETS IRRITATED London, March 3-1 a.m.-Military men who have been assuming during the last week that Botha's surrender and Dewet's capture were close at hand shrank last night from any further forecasts. They asserted that the war virtually ended when Pretoria was abandoned by Kruger and Botha, and that it has become impracticable for any one to predict when the powers of endurance of rough riders like the Boers can be exhausted. One veteran held a singular view that the English people had made a fatal mistake last year in expressing admiraof the veldt, and convinced him that he was another Napoleon, held responsible for the murder Whereas he was merely a cleverly peace envoys and other acts of barl mounted scout, who had deteriorated from a guerilla into a train wrecker and reckless brigand. While recent bulletins from South Africa are favorable to the British side, there is intense irritablity in military circles over the prolonged and obstinate stand which the guerilla bands have made. Mr. Broderick is censured by experts for adopting half measures instead of working out a general scheme of army organization, and he is also reproached by veterans for spoiling the market for ordinary recruiting by making a special grant of 5 shillings a day Imperial Yeomanry and thereby rendering compulsory service in the army inevitable at no remote period. conduct of the war office is a thankless task when experts in and out of parliament are irritable and critical, and fault-finding is licensed as an inalienable British right. Botha and Dewet are doomed to failure from lack of ammunition, but they have succeeded in prolonging hostilities until the expediency of adopting compulsory military service in some form is a question fairly before the country. They have also increased the difficulties of army reform by creating a feeling among the officers that reputations may be clouded without a chance of clearing them, and that while the offenses and blunders of inefficient men are condoned, especially if they are on staff duty, capable and innocent men are exposed to suspicion and calumny without adequate means of redress. PUBLIC GROWING WEARY.

There is no sense of overstrain in England as there was a year ago when Lord Roberts reversed the conditions of a disastrous and ill-managed war, but there are signs of weariness and staleness in public life. The guerilla war still drags on, for the rumored surrender of General Botha was premature and General Dewet, in official phrase "has been forced north"-that is, allowed to escape at virtually the same point where he crossed the Orange River in invading Cape Colony. Operations at the mining exchange have been interrupted by evidence that the raiders are still afield and not yet reduced the extremity of negotiating with Sir Alfred Milner and Lord Kitchener for the general submission of the fighting burghers and the complete disclosure of hidden stores of ammunition. The war goes on with its terrible mortality from enteric fever. There is no chance for officers to distinguish themselves, and there neither glory nor prestige in ending it, but merely grim, hard necessity. It is like a protracted spell of disagreeable, rainy weather and has dispirited everybody in England. MR. BALFOUR'S OBSCURE STATE-MENT. London, March 2.-During question time in the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. Charles P. Scott (Liberal) asked Mr. Balfour, government leader, at what time in 1899 the government was informed that if war ensued be-tween the Transvaal and Great Brit-ain as a result of thes difference which were made apparent at the London, March 3.—A Colesburg, Cape Bloemfontein conference, the Orange Colony, dispatch, dated Friday March Free State would undoubtedly throw in her lot with the sister republic. Mr Balfour's reply as taken down by the information we have on this subject is necessarily a matter of opinion, and therefore conjectural in its character, else is contained in statements of ex-President Steyn, in which case, unfavorably, it is mendacious.' This announcement brought forth cries of "Oh!" from the Irish and other mem-bers of the opposition, and Mr. Balfour dropped the subject. Mr. Balfour's reply was regarded as extremely obscure, and it was explained in his behalf that he was not referring to anything specific, but alluded generally to Mr. Steyn's statements.

TWO SOUTHWOLD BOYS KILLED!

Leslie and Lot McBride Struck by an M. C. R. Train and Thrown Ninety Feet.

Iona Station, Ont., March 4.—Last night Leslie and Lot McBride, aged 20 and 14 respectively, sons of Mr. Alex. McBride, of Southwold, living four miles north of the village, were struck and killed outright by No. 37, M. C. R. express, while attempting to cross the track ahead of her. They were seen by citizens urging the horse to cross, but on account of the snow thawing off the tracks, the cutter evidently stuck and hindered their progress. The horse was just across the track, and the cutter was cut loose from him and smashed to atoms, and the unfortunate victims thrown about 90 feet fortunate victims thrown about 90 feet from the crossing. Death must have been instantaneous. Coroner Ling, of Dutton, was notified, and after making inquiries concluded an inquest to be unnecessary.

$40,000 SHORT AND MISSING. Flint, Mich., March 2.-Frederick A. Platt, secretary of the Flint Building and Loan Association, has left the city. For some time there have been rumors that his accounts with the association have not been straight, and an investigation reveals a shortage of $40,000. Platt has held the office of city treasurer for two terms, and that of a member of the board of education for nine years.

CANADA'S REPRESENTATIVE

At the Opening of the Australian Parliament Will Be Hon. Mr. Mulock-Premier Laurier Unable To Go.

Ottawa, March 3.-Sir Wilfrid Laurier will not go to Australia, but Hon. William Mulock, postmaster-general, will represent Canada at the opening of the first parliament of the Australian Commonwealth on May 6. This decision was reached at a meeting of the Dominion cabinet yesterday afternoon. The premier had been very anxious-and his anxiety was shared by his colleagues-to accept the invitation to be present at the birth of the parliament of federated Australia, although the occasion did not seem opportune for his leaving the country. In any ordinary year it would be extremely difficult for the premier to absent himself while parliament is meeting, but at the first session of a house fresh from the people the difficulty and inconvenience of such a proceeding is immeasurably greater. At least six weeks of steady business still remains for parliament to

The selection of the postmaster-general for this important mission will, therefore, be received with general satisfaction throughout the country. Hon. William Mulock, accompanied by his private secretary, will sail from New York for England on the steamer Umbria on Saturday, March 16.

During Mr. Mulack's absence Hon, Jas Sutherland will act as postmaster-general and minister of labor.

DR. GODBOUT, M.P., RESIGNS. Ottawa, March 2 .- Dr. Godbout, Liberal member for Beauce, Quebec, has sent his resignation to the speaker of the house. MADAME JANAUSHECK ILL. New York, March 3.-The condition of Madame Janausheck, the distinguished tragedienne, has for some time attracted the sympathy and aroused the regret of her dramatic colleagues and her personal friends. Madame Janausheck is now at Saratoga, under medical care, and seeking recovery from a paralytic stroke, which befell her some months ago in her residence in Brooklyn. A benefit in her interest is being arranged in New York under the auspices of the Twelfth Night Club.

CARRIED OUT ON THE LAKE. Silver Creek, N. Y., March 3 .-Twenty-one fishermen were carried out on Lake Erie, off Silver Creek, this afternoon, seventeen of whom have been rescued. The other four have probably perished. The names are: Henry Turner, John George, James McBratie, Julius Ludwig. The last McBratie, Julius Ludwig. The last seen of these four men they were about four miles out and there was a mile of open water between them and the shore. A party of rescuers brought a boat and worked heroically all day. The seventeen who were rescued were taken off the floating ice with great difficulty. They say that their comrades probably perished, as they were in perilous positions. A later dispatch says: The four fishermen, Henry Turner, John George, James McBratie and Julius Ludwig, supposed to have perished on an icefloe in Lake Erie, were rescued by Capt. Desmond and a crew after midnight, and landed at Irving. All were suffering from cold and hunger, but will recover.
