

A POSITIVE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Hundreds of People Have Found 'Fruit-a-tives' Their Only Help.

READ THIS LETTER

Superintendent of Sunday School in Toronto. Tells how He Cured Himself of Chronic Rheumatism After Suffering for Years.

55 Dovercourt Road, Oct. 1st, 1915.

"For a long time, I have thought of writing you regarding what I term the most remarkable cure effected by your remedy 'Fruit-a-tives.' I suffered from Rheumatism, especially in my hands. I have spent a lot of money without any good results. I have taken 'Fruit-a-tives' for eighteen months now, and am pleased to tell you that I am cured. All the enlargement has not left my hands and perhaps never will, but the soreness is all gone and I can do any kind of work I have gained 25 pounds in eighteen months." R. A. WAUGH.

Rheumatism is no longer the dreaded disease it was. Rheumatism is no longer one of the "incurable diseases." "Fruit-a-tives" has proved its marvellous powers over Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, and all over all such diseases which arise from some derangement of stomach, bowels, kidneys or skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

WESTERN BATTALION PRIVATE INJURED IS FORMER LONDONER

John Duncan Elliott, Westminster Tn.
Worked for C. P. R. Here.

Friday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Elliott, Westminster, were notified by the militia department that their son, Pte. John Duncan Elliott, had been wounded in action at Ypres. Pte. Elliott, who has a large circle of relatives and friends in Westminster Township and this city, was in the hardware business in Edmonton, after a residence of several years in the west, when the call came for volunteers for the first contingent. Lacking previous military experience, but anxious to serve his country in any capacity, he arranged his business affairs as quickly as possible and enlisted as a private with the 8th Battalion of Edmonton.
This spring he was transferred to the 4th Battalion, and only reached France a month ago from England. For a short time after leaving school, he was employed in the offices of the C.P.R. in this city and went west to continue his work in the Calgary offices. Subsequently he entered a hardware firm in Didsbury, Alberta, taking a prominent part in the affairs of the town.
He had been in Edmonton for the past two or three years.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.] London, May 8.—Indications of the plight of survivors of the Lusitania are afforded in a telegram her husband, who says he is quite made in Queenstown, but desires her to go over immediately with some clothes, as he is utterly destitute of everything.

TROUBLE STARTED ON BOARD SHIP

Well Known New Brunswick Man Fell in a Faint.

Offered for Years Afterwards But Finally Found Relief and Permanent Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

London, May 8.—A. S. Charles-Lewis, member of a well known New Brunswick family, has made a statement for publication, which deals with his cure of every complicated case of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills.
"First I had a pain in my back, and double occurred while on board the ship on my return from England, fifteen years ago when I fell in a faint on the floor.
"At my arrival at St. John my health was poor, and I lost 20 pounds weight. Year after year I became weaker. I suffered from heart trouble, nervousness, and I slept very little. My appetite was lost, and my walk was unsteady.
"I suffered from dizziness.
"Dodd's a circular led me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I was cured. I was a sufferer from Dyspepsia about June, 1913, and my movement began at once.
The dizziness came back in my legs, and I was cured by New Year's, 1915. I had been cured of Diabetes.
"I would be without the Dodd's Medicines by account."

CAN LAY PAVEMENT ON RIDOUT ST. NOW

Recent Rains Settle Earth So That Firm Foundation Is Possible.

Although residents and users of Ridout street south may not agree with him, City Engineer H. A. Brazier more than welcomed the rain that has reduced the street to nothing more than a mudhole and made it almost impassable.

"The finest thing that could have happened the street," declares the engineer. "The more it rains the better I will like it."

In justice to the engineer it must be explained that his satisfaction at an impassable street is because Ridout street is to be paved this year. Instead of putting in their new mains and individual services last year, when notified, the public utilities commission and the City Gas Company left it until this spring.

ROADWAY TORN UP.

The result has been that practically every foot of the roadway has been torn up by trenches of assorted kinds.
Naturally the number of these trenches caused grave doubts as to whether it would be possible to put in a pavement this year. The rain has answered this question effectively, for it has caused all trenches to settle. This means that it will be possible to make a firm foundation for the asphalt.

"We will fill in all these trenches and put the roller on to pack them still firmer as soon as the road dries out," declared the city engineer.

GERMAN HATE SHOWN IN CITY OF LONDON

Sneer Crosses Face of Man When Lusitania Sinking Read Of.

A local ticket agent can tell you all you wish to know about the feeling Germans bear for Canada and all other allied nations and peoples. This morning one of the Kaiser's people who in all likelihood resides in this country, had occasion to buy a ticket for some western point. He entered the ticket office, asked and received his carte, then went out the door. Pasted on the bulletin board beside the door was a telegram telling of the sinking of the Lusitania and the loss of so many lives. The German looked amazed for a moment when he read the words, then a sneering look settled over his countenance. If words had come forth they would have been "Served them right the Kaiser."

It was only by exercising extreme self-control that the agent held the passion aroused by the look on the evil face in hand. His blood called to him to go forth and wreak vengeance on the enemy outside his door, but discretion said otherwise. No words had been exclaimed, and the emotional expression and facial contortion, although clear purport of the inner thought, were not vocal, and consequently would prove of no avail in a court of law.

BUSINESS DEAL PROBABLY SAVED LONDONER'S LIFE

Emmerson Nicholls and Wife Cancelled Booking on Lusitania.

But for a sudden business call to Hamilton, which caused him to cancel his bookings, Emmerson Nicholls, of 412 St. James street, and his wife would have been aboard the ill-fated Lusitania. Some time ago made arrangements for passage for himself and wife, via the Lusitania, and intended sailing from New York last Saturday. A day prior to the sailing of the boat he received word from a Hamilton firm to go to that city to transact a business deal. He cancelled his bookings and left. The delay in Hamilton was all that saved him and Mrs. Nicholls.

PRESTON MAY HAVE 2-MILE PAVED STREETS

Council Anxious to Pave Final Strip On King Street.

[Special to The Advertiser.] PRESTON, May 7.—The property-owners on King street, between Union street, and the R. C. Cemetery, were asked to sign a petition for the paving of that portion of King street between Union street and the corporation limits. The council is in favor of proceeding with the work, as it will give work to the unemployed, also the Foley-Gleason contractors have not moved their plant from town, and they would do the job cheaper with having their plant here than if they had to move it from some other town. If the work is done, Preston will have over two miles of permanent pavement on King street, and there will not be a bad piece of road between the G. P. and H.
Junction at the upper end of Preston and the corporation limits of the town of Galt.

MOTHER THOUGHT DEAD BOY WAS COMING HOME

KNOW HE WAS WOUNDED

Demise in France Wholly Unexpected—Mother Came To London.

An anxious-faced little woman stood in front of The Advertiser office Thursday afternoon, eagerly scanning the bulletin board. At her side was a manly looking boy of perhaps fifteen, who had driven into town with mother. Over in some hospital in France or England this mother had another son, just a few years older, a brave lad, who had been one of the first to volunteer with the 7th Fusiliers for overseas service.
Last week when the first lists were published of the Canadian casualties at Ypres, the mother was told that her son, "Andrew Kirk," appeared, with the added intelligence, "dangerously wounded in the hip."

A member of The Advertiser staff, looking out the office window, recognized "Andy" Kirk's mother, and hastened out to inquire for further news, and perhaps, offer some comfort.
Didn't Like To Trouble.
"Not a word," said Mrs. Kirk, "since the first message that he was wounded I did so much want to know that I went to the office and see if I could find out anything more, but I didn't like to trouble anyone. I'm so glad you have come to speak to me."

Even though no definite information could be gained, it was something to step inside and look through papers for the picture of the soldier son, and to hunt up for herself the glowing tribute paid to him by London friends when it was first known that he was injured.
Heard Invalided Home.
There was one thing she so much hoped she was almost afraid to speak about. A rumor had reached the country home that a soldier named Kirk had been invalided home, and was on his way to Ottawa. It had even been said he was Andrew Kirk. She hardly thought it could be possible for him to be brought so soon when he was reported "dangerously wounded." But, oh if it could only be true!
"He will likely be disabled, perhaps for always, but we won't care for anything else, if we can only have him home," she added, bravely trying to keep back her tears.
Yesterday, another message was sent from Ottawa to the Westminster home.
The militia department tried to soften the blow by perfectly sincere expressions of regret. All that mattered to a mourning father, mother, brothers and sisters, was that "Andy Kirk had died of wounds."

HEADACHE?

Thousands of persons who have never known a day's sickness in any other form are subject to frequent attacks of Headache that almost drive them mad.

Whatever the nature may be and the cause, the immediate condition that produces the pain is a congestion or filling up of the blood vessels of the brain with blood, thus causing a pressure on the brain cells and nerve filaments.

In treating all forms of Headache the first thing to do is to relieve the congestion of the blood vessels of the brain. Abbey's Effervescent Salt in laxative doses does this promptly.
Sold everywhere at 25c. and 60c.

Full blooded people who are subject to frequent attacks of Headache can be entirely relieved by taking laxative doses of the Salt every morning.
Headaches from Indigestion and Biliousness are also entirely banished by continuing the use of the Salt until the normal action of the liver and stomach is restored.

Sold by W. T. Strong &
Co., and Taylor Drug Stores.

SAVED BABY'S LIFE

Mrs. Jos. Desrosiers, St. Alphonse, Que., writes: "I cannot say too much in favor of Baby's Own Tablets, as they saved my little one's life. Before giving him the Tablets he was greatly troubled with worms, and was like a skeleton and cried day and night. The Tablets soon expelled the worms, and now baby is the picture of health." Baby's Own Tablets also break up colds and simple fevers, cure constipation and indigestion, and make the teething period painless. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

For a number of years Mercer was employed at the Canadian and Amer-
