

Mary's well at Nakareth

On the hills near old Quebec —C.P.R. Photo

Charles Hoff, champion pole vaulter of Europe, who is also a runner, will compete in America

Threshing in Burma—on the road to Mandalay. The animals trample the grain to remove it from the straw

The huge Andrew Jackson figurehead of the old United States frigate Constitution, for which Henry Ford is said to have offered $10,000

Clemeny Voroshilov, new head of Russia's Red army

The Queen of the Belgians wearing a voluminous morning gown

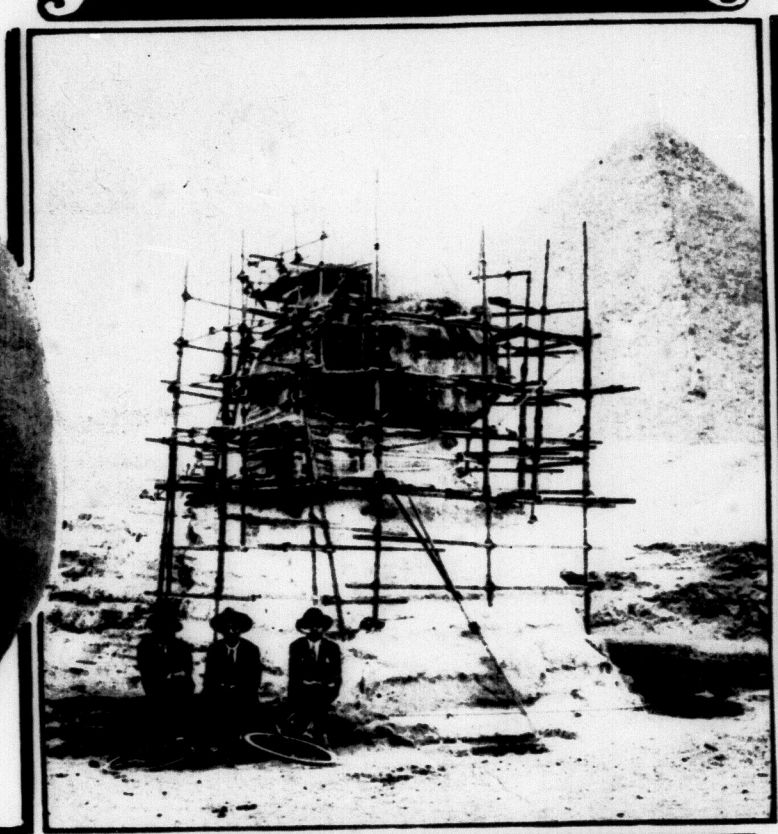

Dorothy Gish back from Europe to resume her screen work

Young Sweden asking goes

Horsemen of the allies at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto. Left to right: Capt. Berteau, R. C. D., Toronto; Capt. de Laissardiere, France; Major George, United States; Com. Mesmaekers, Belgium

Beauty specialists operate on the Sphinx of Giza, near Cairo

Children at play outside the Ikutajinja temple, Kobe, Japan

Bearing the colors of the Welsh Guards to Llandaff Cathedral