Only seven years after joining the army he was gazetted as brevet lieutenant-colonel, after the Indian ceived more medals and nine clasps. On peace coming he was gazetted full colonel, and received further honors. The Red river affair was the occasion of offering him the knighthood of St. Michael and St. George, and at last the Ashantee war, when he crushed the power of King Koffee, brought him a substantial honor in a vote by parliament of $125,000. His late expedition was the closing of the Zulu war, for which he received the grand cross of the Bath and the high appointment of lieuten ant-general.

Sacraments of Nature. For we the mighty mountain plains have trod
Both in the glow of sunset and sunrise;
And lighted by the moon of southern skies;
The snow-white torrent of the thundering flood
We two have watched together. In the wood
We two have let the warm tears dim our eyes
While zephyrs softer than an infant's sighs
Ruffled the light air of our solitude.

O Earth, maternal Earth, and thou, O Heaven, And Night first-born, who now, e'en now, waken
The host of stars, thy constellated train!
Tell me if those can ever be forgiven,
Those abject, who together have partaken
Those Sacraments of Nature—and in vain?
