THE PROPERTY OWNERS' LIST. Much Interest Shown at Parkdale in the Revision. At Parkdale Town Hall yesterday morning Judge Morgan heard the appeals of those who laimed to be put on the list of property wners. There was much excitement mani-

by the owner personally; second, that no one could be put on the list in re-spect of any property purchased between the presentation of the assessor's roll and its revision by the Aldermen's Court; and, third, that the mere fact of a person's name appearing in the last registered deed was no proof of his or her being the actual owner.

The judge overruled the first and last obtained the point.

The claimants are determined to have a complete property owners' list irrespective of the owners' views on politics or annexation. CATARRH.

A New Style of Police Cap. There is a quiet kind of a kick among the Police about a change which has been maugurated by the Chief in the style of the winter caps to be worn by the men. The peak is to be removed and the shape altered to that in use in "C" Company. The innovation will add to the solderlike appearance of the policeman, but will expose his eyes to the full force what is troubling the men.
