ON THE Philosophy of Marriage and the Secret Infirmities of Youth and Maturity. With fifty Coloured Engravings on Steel.

SELF PRESERVATION: An Analytical and Philosophical Enquiry into the Physiology and Functions of Marriage. In all the bearings in which that important subject affects the health and happiness of man, with its disqualifications and impediments, tracing their origin to the excess of juvenile solicitude, or close study; followed by practical remarks, founded on twenty years' experience in the treatment of impotence, nervous debility, local weakness, spermatorrhoea, syphilis, and all diseases of the urinary and generative system. Illustrated by fifty Coloured Engravings on the anatomy of the reproductive organs and their relative conditions in health and disease.

SAMUEL LA MERT, M.D., No. 37, Bedford-square, London. Doctor of Medicine, Matriculated Member of the University of Edinburgh, Honorary Member of the London Hospital Medical Society, Licentiate of Apothecaries' Hall, London, &c.

The essential object of this treatise is to point out, the fatal consequences resulting from certain habits, irregularities and excesses, which have produced more misery in youth, degeneration in manhood, and premature decay at all stages of life, than perhaps, any other class of disease known to modern pathologists.
