Space forbids further enumeration of the many articles which I am offering at prices which are not equalled by either of the Department stores or any one else. Freight rates have been advanced 20 per cent, and this with the great advance in cost of every line of dry goods makes it imperative that you should avail yourselves of my sale as my stock is limited.

By to-day's mail I received a post card from The Belding, Paul, Corticello Co., which I have placed in my show case. It contains the information noted hereunder:
 "NOTICE OF ADVANCE IN PRICE.—Upward prices of raw silk and increased cost of manufacture have necessitated a revision of our Price List."
 Spool Silk 40 yards, per dozen, 63 cents. We would suggest Retail Prices, 40 yards, 8 cents each or two for 15 cents. I am selling balance of old stock, 50 yards, for 5 cents each or just one half of the suggested price. No Black.
 My Store is open until October the 1st, Mondays and Tuesdays, 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. Saturdays 9 a.m. until 11 p.m., OLD TIME.
 My store is NOT open on Tuesday night, and is NOT open at any time on Wednesdays, Thursdays or Fridays.
