GEORGE CLINTON.

21st Sept. 1788. }

The Rev. Mr. SAMUEL KIRKLAND.

Mr. Kirkland being paid for his Services as Interpreter, and furnished with Provisions for his Journey set out immediately for the Cayuga Country.

The Commissioners then also resolved that Mr. Varick pay to Mr. Tayler the Sum of one thousand three hundred Pounds to be applied by him for the Purpose of paying for Provisions and other Necessaries for the Treaty at this Place, for which Sum he is to be accountable to the People of the State of New York.

The Commissioners then delivered to Mr. Varick a Certificate that he had by Order of the Board paid to the Onondago Indians the Sum of thirteen hundred and seventy-eight Dollars on the twelfth Instant, and to the Seneca Indians the Sum of forty-one Dollars and five Shillings on the sixteenth instant, and to the Oneida Indians on this Day the Sum of two thousand Dollars; which three Sums in the whole amount to three thousand four hundred and nineteen Dollars and five Shillings.

The Remainder of this Day was spent in auditing and adjusting the Claims of the Inhabitants of this Place for Damages sustained and other Accounts for Articles furnished and Services performed, and in making Preparations to set out for Albany the next Morning.

On the 23d Day of September the Agents & Committee of the Oneidas attended agreeable to Appointment, to whom the Money, Goods and Provisions were duly delivered and Waggon provided to transport the same to their Camp: When it being about 8 o'Clock A. M., the Commissioners embarked on Board of Batteaux for Albany, where they arrived on the 25th.
