DEATH.

ANGEL, who treadest in the track of Time! Guarding the entrance to that unknown clime, Whence come no whispers to the world below, Whence not a song we hear Of triumph or of cheer, Or sound of happy footsteps passing to and fro.

Pale as the Maybell trembling in the breeze 'Thou mak'st youthful cheeks. The summer seas Lose their calm blue beneath thy waving wing; Fierce storms thou summonest From the deep mountain breast, To be thy paramour when thou art wandering.

Thy name is terrible 'neath thy breath Stern order to the World uttereth, Who stains the plume with a fearful red; Or dashes in the air A myriad spirits brave, For whose eternal bliss no saintly song is said

Yet have I known thee, Death, with gentle hand Lead some poor wanderer to the heavenly land, Amid the purple light of autumn eve, While to the harvest moon Arose a rustic tune From sun-drawn, lute reapers, binding up their sheaves.

And even if, in some too cruel mood, Thou didst neglect the multitude, To clutch the fair bride in her orange-bloom— To dim her eyes of light Upon the marriage night, And bear her pallid beauty to the marble tomb.

Or the sweet child who prattled all day long Didst touch with chillness 'mid his cradle song— Yet unrepining, let us hope and pray, The Master calls his own Up to his golden throne; When they are gathered there, thou, Death, shalt pass away.

THE INFALLIBLE REMEDY. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

ERYSIPELAS OF EIGHT YEARS DURATION CURED. Copy of a Letter from Geo. Sinclair, Esq., of Paris Canada, dated the 18th July, 1854.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY. Sir,—I feel a pleasure and a pride in bearing witness to the wonderful benefit I have derived by the use of your Inestimable Ointment and Pills. For eight years I suffered unceasingly from attacks of erysipelas—large purple blotches came all over my body in addition to the unpleasant feeling of itching and burning, which affected me both night and day, rendering my life a misery to me, as well as to all around me. I was the attack. I used several reputed remedies without deriving the least cessation to my misery. At last, I determined to try your Ointment and Pills: after taking them for a few weeks, a visible improvement took place, and I feel considerably better—in three months, by continuing with your medicine, I was completely cured, and now enjoy the best of health. The truth of this statement is well known here, hence there is no necessity for me to request secrecy. I am, Sir, yours respectfully, (Signed) GEO. SINCLAIR.

ULCERS IN THE LEG.—REMARKABLE CURE. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Edward Tomkinson, of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, dated the 4th May, 1854.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY. Sir.—My sister, Miss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a bad leg: in which there were several deeply seated and old wounds, defying the skill of some of the most eminent of the medical faculty, a variety of remedies were also used unsuccessfully: and it seemed to me that there was not any thing capable of mitigating the agonies she endured. At length, she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and after using them for about five weeks, she was completely cured, after all other means had failed to afford her the slightest relief. I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known. I remain, Sir, your most obedient Servant, (Signed) EDWARD TOMKINSON.

A BAD BREAST CURED WHEN AT DEATH'S DOOR! Copy of a Letter from Mr. Henry Malden, of Three Rivers, Canada West, dated July 9th, 1854.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY. Sir.—My wife suffered most severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There was several holes in it, one as large as a hand: all the devices and strata-gems I tried would not heal them, but assumed an aspect more frightful than before, and horrible to behold. As a last resource I tried your Ointment and Pills, which she persevered with for seven weeks, at the expiration of that time her breast was almost well; by continuing with your remedies for two more weeks, she was entirely cured, and now after you our united thanks for the cure effected. I am, Sir, yours truly, (Signed) HENRY MALDEN.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints. The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—
