

Poetry.WHEN I DIE.

What comes the ends of my time,
The solemn change, unknown, sublime,
That I from earth must part;
The great event that ends my race,
Oh, grant me to have ample grace
The comfort of a smiling face
To my confounding heart.

Thy succor then to me extend.
Like Abram shown in all thy friend,
Sound, happy, true, approved,
The earnest of my hero he given,
To gild the gathering shades of even
And glorify the God of heaven
As one by Jesus loved.

Oh, then how bright my setting sun!
How glad to know my race is run
Soul and forever free,
So all the glory shall be thine,
So the salvation shall be mine.
Its holy pow'r, its joys divine,
Its life above in trace?

What wonder then! death's terror braved,
A soul re-leamed, a sinner saved,
I get the victory!
I'll show the signs of the Lamb,
As one that knows his word beseech,
The Son of God, the great I am,
Who was, and is to be!
