

9. The essays must not bear the name or names of their authors, but should have a motto, and each essay should be accompanied by a sealed envelope bearing the motto on the outside and containing the full name and address of the author or authors inside.

10. All essays and plans must be sent postage paid, on or before the 15th April, 1902, to one of the secretaries, Dr. P. Horton-Smith, 15 Upper Brook St., London, W.; Dr. John Broadbent, 35 Seymour St., London, W.

11. Three money prizes of £500, £200 and £100 respectively will be awarded in order of merit on the recommendation of the Advisory Committee for the three best essays, provided that they come up to the requisite standard of excellence. Brevity will be an important consideration, and a summary of the main features of the scheme should be appended to the paper. Unsuccessful papers will be returned to the authors.
