DR. WISTAR BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

From the Dedham, Mass. Gazette, February 18, 1849. The introduction of this famous medicine to the public by Seth W. Fowle, has been of more service, propably, than any other article that has yet been discovered, and has effected more cures of various complaints that "flesh is heir to" than all the miserable compounds that have ever as yet been trumpeted throughout the country. The numerous certificates in his advertisement fully substantiates the virtues of it.

The genuine is signed I. BU ITS.

CHANGE OF THE SEASONS! AND NEW, CHEAP AND SEASONABLE DRY GOODS.

The showers of the Spring are but shed o'er the land, The earth but unfettered from Winter's grim hand; Its breezes but felt, and its verdure but seen, When it passes away with the Springs that have been, Then Summer comes on with its sweet smelling flowers, Its rich verdant fields, and its ivy-clad bowers; Yet strange, when it yields us the greatest delight, It mocks at our gazing, and fades from our sight. Then Autumn succeeds, with its corn and its grain, Its fine mellow fruit, and its rich yellow plain; But like Spring time and Summer, how short is its stay, It drops us the sear leaf and passes away. Then Winter draws nigh, and the leaves disappear, And every green spot grows withered and drear; And the breezes of evening are heavy and chill. And the snow spreads its mantle of fleece o'er the hill; Unlike Spring time or Summer, or Autumn it stays, Through many bleak nights and cold frosty days, Till we tire of its visit, and wish him away, McDONALD, on Yonge Street, One Hundred and Three, Has a Stock which he wishes the Public to see; Well suited in fabric for cold Winter's trade, And embracing the latest designs that are made; There are Flannels and Blankets, in goodly supply, Which feel thick to the hand and look well to the eye; There are hundreds of Shawls! I some styles very rare, The fine, heavy, long, and magnificent square. There are Bro. d. Cloths, and Doeskins, and Cassimeres too, And Lustres, and Cobourgs, in every fine hue; And a fine stock of Furs. which, at some recent day, Were trapped on the banks of the famed Hudson Bay. There are fine Cloaks and Bonnets, and many things more, That McDON ALD keeps always on hand at his Store; He would not the rights of another invade, While he seeks for a healthy extension of trade; But if fairness will answer, and bargains repay. Then call at his Warehouse at some early day; He asks but a call, 'tis a modest request, And a glance at his prices will tell all the rest.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Cure of a Case of Weakness and Debility, of Four Years' Standing. Extract of a Letter from Mr. Smith, of No. 5, Little Thomas Street, Gibson Sireet, Lambeth, dated Dec. 12, 1850.

Street, Gibson Sireet, Lambeth, dated Dec. 12, 1850.

To Professor Holloway.—

Sir,—I beg to inform you that for nearly five years I hardly knew what it was to have a day's health, suffering from extreme weakness and debility with constant nervous headaches, giddiness and sickness of the stomach, together with a great depression of spirits. I used to think that nothing could benefit me, as I had been to many medical men, some of who after doing all that was within their power, informed me that they considered that I had some spinal complaint beyond the reach of cure, tegether with a very disordered state of the stomach and liver, making my case so complicated that nothing could be done for me. One day, being unusually ill and in a dejected state, I saw your Pills advertised, and resolved to give them a trial, more perhaps from curlosity than a hope of being cured, however, I soon found myself better by taking them, and so I presevered in their use for six months, when I am happy to say they effected a perfect cure.

[Signed] WILLIAM SMITH.
