Success in Yezo

The Church Missionary Society is one of the few societies carrying on work in Yezo, the most northerly of the Japanese islands, and where the climate is similar to that of Siberia. The Rev. Andrews, a missionary of the society, writes that he "can do nothing but praise" for "the open-doors" and the fruit gathered. He adds: "When I compare the present with the past, say eight or nine years ago, when the believers in this island numbered about a score, and now they number 194; when in the district there was only one station, namely, Hakodate, and now there are besides, Kushiro, Horobetsu, Tottori, Chiribetsu, Tate, with prospect of others opening up; when the contributions have increased from a little over half a dollar to more than two dollars a head, we have every reason to praise the Lord and to point out to you and others at home what the Lord has done for His great Name's and to ask you to praise with us, for it is all the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes."—Spirit of Missions.

What an Example!

Bishop Hare writing from the Rosebud agency, South Dakota, September 3rd, says: "We have just closed the convocation of our Indian deanery, which, despite the late disturbances, was the largest in numbers and offerings we have ever had. Over 1,500 people camped around an open circle. The women, representing thirty-six local branches of the Woman's Auxiliary, presented in cash $800, and the young men $170, for all sorts of charities, among them being work in Japan and China, missions in South Dakota, the Episcopate fund, the native clergy fund, and other objects."—Spirit of Missions.
