Songs for the Education Department.

No. 1.

Air—"Fiddle a Wink."

Whenever in the "Varsity is a vacant situation,
No "mere Canadians" need apply for any such high station,
Crookedy CROOKS, crookedy CROOKS, presides o'er education.

Of swell young men from Oxford let us make the importation,
And snub Canadian scholarship with all humiliation,
For crookedy CROOKS, crookedy CROOKS, presides o'er education.

Canadian Professors, all send in your resignation!
Since of this great young English gent you have not the approbation,
As crookedy CROOKS, crookedy CROOKS, presides o'er education.

So let each galoot great CROOKS extol and shout with exultation,
Who has sent this gent "culchaw" to teach to this poor Canadian nation.
Where crookedy CROOKS, crookedy CROOKS, presides o'er education.

A Genuine Outrage.

The Government of the Dominion have announced their intention to sell the beautiful Islands in the St. Lawrence, between Brockville and Gananoque, to private purchasers. If this infamous project is persisted in, and if the citizens of Ontario stand by and see it consummated, it will furnish about as bitter a commentary on the sordid and contemptible spirit of the age, as anything we can conceive. To sell the Thousand Islands, which are at present the free and beautiful heritage of the public, would be an outrage, the mere suggestion of which ought to bring down a storm of indignation upon the heads of the Ministers. Looked at from the most unsentimental standpoint, nothing could justify it but the imminent danger of national bankruptcy; under our present circumstances of reviving prosperity, it is altogether scandalous. Of a truth the age of chivalry has passed. We are now prepared to hear that the Government have opened negotiations for the sale of the Canadian portion of Niagara Falls; and that they propose to cut up Parliament Square and sell it off for building lots. But after all there is perhaps no occasion for surprise in the announcement concerning the Islands, for men who would sell themselves, would naturally have few scruples about selling anything else. Grip hopes, however, that an expression of public opinion may be given earnestly and emphatically against the shameful proposition, and in time to save the country from the impending humiliation.
