CANADIAN DESPATCHES.

Special to the POST.

TORONTO, August 13.—The Orange demonstration yesterday was brought to a close with speeches by prominent local members and some of the Montreal brethren. County Master Grant was the first speaker among the visitors. He told his hearers that he was the son of a Covenanter, and imbued and drank in Protestant principles with his mother's milk. He referred to his incarceration on the 12th, but said it had not affected his eating or drinking powers. Allusion was made to the labors of Protestant clergymen who, Grant said, endeavored to impart sound educational principles, which contrasted strongly with the educational instruction of the priests, whose chief object was instructing people how to make genuflexions and bow at the stroke of the bell. The speaker said the Orangemen of Montreal were true sons of Derry, and would fight for their cause until they enjoyed the same liberty as their brethren in Ontario. The irate County Master then referred to the Quebec Legislature, accused it of partiality, ridiculed its members, and called it a "Moccasin Legislature." About this time Brother Grant's voice began to weaken, and he spoke very hoarsely, but bonsting, as he said the Catholics of Montreal feared him as much as they did Father Dowd. For the edification of the crowd, Grant gave a sketch of Mayor Beaudry's appearance on the 12th of July, picturing him as having his gouty foot swathed in flannel, and lamenting that he had not yet had a drink. An address from the Britons was then presented to the

in which the Catholic Church was called the old harlot of of Babylon, and Montreal the Rome of Canada. Alexander, Deputy County Master of Montreal, made a moderate speech; but said justice was a dead letter in Montreal, as even juries were always packed. He closed by expressing the hope that before two years passed away there would be Orange processions in Montreal. Frederick Hamilton, the Marshal, said he would, on the 12th, have marshalled the procession even at the cost of his life. Brother Mackey, District Master, merely alluded to the reception and appearance of Toronto, saying he preferred it to Montreal. In the evening the Britons had a promenade concert, which the Montreal heroes attended. A little specifying was indulged in, Ex-Mayor Medcalf, Toronto, gave a sketch ofthe siege of Derry, and to convince his hearers that he knew something of history compared it to the by Titus. The concert was brought to a sudden close about midnight by some of the Britons showing their brotherly love for each other by organizing a free fight.

The Hanlon Club has decided that our champion shall not take part in the Hamilton regatta on the 21st., but the club intend getting up a race on our Bay in September, for a purse which will be large enough to induce English oarsmen and Trickett, of Australia, to enter.

QUEBEC, August 15.—The workmen at the excavation of the Jesuits' Barracks this [Thursday] morning unearthed a skeleton encased in a wooden coffin fastened together with wrought nails. The coffin was perfectly rotten, and the bones of the skeleton were turned to dust, with the exception of the skull, which was in a fair state of preservation, covered on one side with long, thick hair. The Rev. Abbe Belanger was on the grounds with the hope of discovering some clue to its identity, but so far not a trace has been found that would indicate the name or age of the dead. The Coroner had it enclosed in a new coffin and buried at Belmont Cemetery. It is supposed to be the skeleton of one of the ancient Jesuit Fathers.

TORONTO, August 14.—The Montreal Orangemen were entertained at dinner last night by their brethren, about 250 being present. Another address was here presented to the martyrs, which bid them welcome to a city where they could wear their regalia without being insulted by the minions of Rome, and the hope was expressed that at no distant day the incubus of Popery would be dispelled from Quebec, and Mayor Beaudry and his Popish brigade quail before the march of freemen!

David Grant replied, and claimed that the Orangemen of Montreal were well educated and good attendants and supporters of the churches. He recommended the merchants present to have no dealings with Roman Catholic houses in Montreal, and said the future policy of the Order in Montreal would be to have a procession next Twelfth of July. The power of the Press, he said, must in future be relied on more than carnal weapons for the advancement of their cause, and the establishment of an Orange newspaper in Montreal was desirable. The speaker then drifted into politics and said he was a Grit, while the Conseraatives were Ultramontanes.

Grand Chaplain Doudiet defended the Britons, and said one entire lodge belonged to his Bible class. The action of Protestant clergymen who requested the Orangemen not to walk on the last 12th, had been beneficial to the speaker, as all those who entered the bonds of matrimony invariably patronized him.

Several other toasts of the mutual-admiration style were proposed and responded to, after which the party broke up.

A solemn requiem mass for the repose of the soul of the late Apostolic Delegate, Bishop Conroy, was held yesterday in St. Michael's Cathedral. His Grace the Archbishop, assisted by Dean Proulx, officiated. Vicar-General Rooney, Dean Mulligan and Fathers Conway and Morris officiated as deacons of honor and of office. A large number of priests and laymen were in the Sanctuary. A magnificent catafalque, with a blaze of lights, stood in the church, and the altar and pillars were draped in mourning.

A special despatch from Hamilton, dated yesterday, says:—Between 10 and 11 o'clock last night a party of Young Britons, on their way home from the Brantford demonstration, made an attack with stones on St. Patrick's Church, breaking glass in four of the front windows, and a little further on made hostile demonstrations in front of the residence of Mr. Quinn, President of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, but were driven away. These statements are made by an eye witness, who says he cannot have been mistaken, as they were in regalia at the time.

About 10.30 last night a party of volunteers numbering about forty, belonging to the 10th Royals, while in uniform, for some imaginary insult, made an assault on St. Patrick's Hall, and, after breaking down the main door with a hastily-constructed battering-ram, ascended to the second flat. Finding the hall vacant, the uniformed rowdies descended, and abused several policemen who stood guard over the hall. They stayed around the hall until midnight, frequently crossing over to the Johnston House, where the Orange dinner was in progress, fortifying themselves with liquid valor, but no further damage was done. Last night was the regular practice night for the Young Irishmen's band, but some of the officers thought it advisable to abandon practice for that occasion, out of respect for the parties opposite, and their self-denial and toleration was rewarded as here recorded.

TORONTO, August 15.—The Globe to-day has an article on faction fights, which appeals to both parties to exercise forbearance. It says: "As everyone knows, many Protestants have no sympathy with Orangeism and Orange processions, but such proceedings as those in Montreal and Ottawa leave them no alternative, and force them, whether they like it or not, to insist upon everyone enjoying and exercising his rights as a Canadian citizen, within the limits prescribed by law. The violence of Protestants against Roman Catholics is even more objectionable, and to be

A large and influential meeting of Irish and French Catholics was held at St. Patrick's Hall last night, to receive the report of the deputation appointed to wait on Mayor Bangs. Strong speeches were made by D. J. O'Donoghue, M.P.P., Dr. St. Jean, M.P., Messrs. Tache, Drapeau, Starrs and Ald. Heney. A patrol of twenty-one men was struck off by the meeting to watch events during the night, and in case of any danger they could give warning to the people by the ringing of the Cathedral bell.

The notorious rowdy Birch, "the man with the iron arm," was arrested yesterday morning for flourishing a revolver on the By Ward market square.

During last night a number of revolvers were fired off in Lower Town. At about 11 o'clock a man named Landreau was badly beaten on St. Patrick street. This morning about 2 o'clock two men named Brown and Salmon were beaten on Friel street. It is rumored around town that yesterday seven Young Britons were taken to the hospital. Charles Christian, reported shot in the arm, is in no way injured. Mr. P. Conway only received a slight bruise on the back of the neck. There is not a Catholic laid up from the effects of the riots. Beyond the few slight wounds they received they escaped remarkably well.

OTTAWA, August 15.—The city presented a quiet appearance yesterday during the afternoon. A rumor having been started that the Orangemen intended to indulge in another raid through Lower Town, Mr. M. Starrs and some others waited on his Worship Mayor Bangs to ascertain if he had any information on the subject. His Worship said he would positively prevent any depredation of the kind, and expressed himself in very strong language against the outrageous conduct of the Young Britons, and said that if they did not stop their violence he should take their suppression in his own hands. The Guards, headed by their band, paraded through the principal streets last evening. They remained on duty during the night.

QUEBEC, August 16th, 1878.—All the local Cabinet are in town and a meeting of the Executive was held to-day.

Miss Sunnie, residing with Mr. McCaghey, Oliver street, died suddenly this afternoon about 1.30. The deceased was sitting on a chair, preparing for her dinner, when she dropped dead.

OTTAWA, August 17.—P. W. Mitchell is at present busy serving summonses on parties as witnesses anent the recent troubles.

Yesterday, W. P. Warren, James Brewer and James O'Neil were arrested for being implicated in the recent party troubles. They were immediately bailed out by their friends. There are a large number of warrants out for the arrest of other parties.

On Tuesday night last a Protestant named Easdale went into the Guards armory and provided himself with a uniform and rifle, though he did not belong to any company at all. He was heard say before the night was over he would put a little cold lead through some d—d papist.

On Thursday evening about a dozen members of Capt. Lang's corps walked out to Camp Stewart, along Elgin street, singing "We'll hang Mayor Beaudry on a sour apple tree."

Rev. Father Coffey, Parish Priest of Onslow, will shortly be transferred to Almonte.

On Friday night, while on their way home from the wake of the late J. R. Battle, a number of young men were surprised near Maria street bridge by a gang of O. Y. B.'s. Both parties drew their revolvers, when the latter sneaked off. There is talk of trouble during the funeral, which takes places to-morrow. However, it is thought it will pass off quietly.

DEATH OF J. R. BATTLE.

It is our melancholy duty to announce the death of Mr. J. R. Battle, which took place Friday afternoon, at the early age of 25 years, after a long and lingering sickness, which he bore with most Christian fortitude. The late Mr. Battle had a large circle of friends, by whom he was held in high estimation, as a young man possessed of those notable qualities that naturally endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. During his lifetime he actively engaged himself in whatever tended to elevate the social and moral standard of his young Catholic fellow-countrymen. He was born in Quebec on the 6th of January, 1853, and came to Ottawa with his family in early boyhood about twelve years ago. Shortly after coming to this city, he entered the service of the Montreal Telegraph Company, and soon became known as a skilful operator, so that he was appointed next in position to Mr. Bethune, manager of the company in this city. However, about five years ago he went to Florida, where he had obtained a good position in the telegraph service. Having stayed there about a year he returned to Canada, and in partnership with his brother, carried on in Montreal and Ottawa the book and news business of Battle Brothers. During his leisure hours he was for some time a steady contributor to the press, conducting a small sheet called the Ottawa Monthly Journal, and writing correspondence to the Toronto Tribune and Montreal True Witness. About a year ago he was one of the leading organizers of the Catholic L. and B. Union, and became President of No. 1 Branch, and Treasurer of the Grand Council, but owing to his illness he resigned these offices some months ago. He was also Treasurer of the late Catholic Young Men's Society. He was a nephew of Martin Battle, Esq., Collector of Inland Revenue.—Ottawa Herald, Aug. 16.

THE BASHI-BAZOUKS.

THE BRITONS EN ROUTE TO OTTAWA—BEHAVIOR AT THE PRESCOTT JUNCTION—THEY CAVE IN THE SKULL OF THE BAR-TENDER—HEALTHY DEFENDERS OF CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY.

[From our own Reporter.]

On my way up to Ottawa on Saturday night it was my good fortune to have for travelling companions a detachment of Young Britons, True Blues, Prentice Boys and others of that genus, proceeding to Ottawa to commemorate the closing of the gates of Derry. They amused themselves in several ways, but all the ways were peculiar to themselves. When tired of blaspheming they took to tying the legs of two sleepers together and pulling on them. This pastime evoked roars of genuine laughter from all but the awakened victims. The younger lads were given in charge to the older ones, and many were the orders issued for their guidance. One O. Y. B. said the Prentice Boys put on too many airs, to which the latter retorted by saying, "Well, wasn't it we closed the gates of Derry." A row of a serious nature took glace at the Prescott Junction. There are two versions of this row, (one from an Orange source) both of which are given below. The Grand Master—or whatever the dignified commander of the unruly rabble is called—issued an order to the saloon keeper at the Junction to the effect that no liquor should be sold to those under his command. This advice—keeping in view the character of the crowd—was sensible enough. The saloon keeper however refused, saying that he would sell liquor so long as he was paid for it, and did not recognize the authority of the speaker to issue commands to him. Alas! the poor man had never come in contact with a crowd before, he did not know the character of those in front of him, and no sooner had he refused than he was struck on the head with a glass by the lieutenant of the illustrious Grand Master. This was the signal for the combat, and immediately the hotel became a pandemonium. Two fought against two hundred, and the result was that the bartender was so severely injured that the doctor had to be called in. The other version is that the canaille spread themselves around the bar and each man treated the crowd as fast as he could, but paid never a cent. To this the bar-tender demurred, and for his insolence had his head caved in. Considering the lamb-like manner in which those innocents acted on the following Monday in Ottawa, the latter version should be taken with a

GRAIN OF SALT.

After performing this deed of daring, things were quiet for the rest of the time and the heroes slept till they arrived at the capitol. Your Ottawa correspondent has forwarded you full reports of events as they transpired in Ottawa, and I shall merely confine myself to a few general items of interest which may have escaped him. The Protestant press here say that the row began with an onslaught on two Britons and a lady on York street. The less said about the lady the better, for, certes, if she lived in Rome in the time of the Antoninus she would have been refused admission to the RANKS OF THE VESTAL VIRGINS.

I may mention, as an evidence of the law-abiding and merciful disposition of the invaded and the insulted, that in at least a dozen instances the invaders were saved from castigation by Catholics, notably in two, where roughs from Montreal were shielded by Mr. Goulden, and again by Mr. Michael Starrs, who admitted a hundred True Blues into his store and there protected them. On Tuesday night Father Bouillon, having received information that the Cathedral was about to be attacked, notified a few leading Catholic citizens, and in a short time 2,000 men were placed at his disposal. From these detachments were sent to guard the other churches. Father O'Connor made a requisition for 200 to protect St. Patrick's, and they were immediately furnished. A plan was arranged by which at a preconcerted signal the bells of the Churches were to be rung if any of them were attacked. I cannot close this without expressing my astonishment at the raw material composing the detachment from Montreal. Boys were there scarcely eight years of age and not more than twenty were above fifteen, but all of them swore—infants and bearded men—in such a horrible manner as to cause the ladies in the same car to put their fingers in their ears, while others wept in sheer compassion. One lady a Protestant, by the way exclaimed, "My God! is it which drags these innocent children from their mothers and makes them blaspheme the name of the Creator in such a fashion."

NOT A TERRIBLE SYSTEM

—:o:—

WE ARE NOW PREPARED TO DELIVER, ON RECEIPT OF SATISFACTORY orders, our Celebrated Hall Champion Thrashing Machine, to be driven by Horse or Steam Power. These machines have been without a rival for the past FIFTY YEARS. Nearly all the other Thrashing Machines are imitations of the Hall Machines, and have failed to give entire satisfaction. The Hall Machine has been

THE STANDARD THRASHING MACHINE!

In the United States and Canada ever since introduced by the late JOSEPH HALL in 1828. The Hall Champion Thrashing Machine has been gradually and carefully improved each year as experience proved wise and desirable. No changes have been hastily made and called improvements. The greatest possible care has been exercised in the construction of all the working parts of the machine so as to save the necessity of repair and prevent annoying delays which are caused by breakages. Nothing but the very best of material has been used throughout the machine, and the workmanship is unsurpassed. Our machines are supplied with our Patent-Diamond-Pointed-Cylinder-Teeth!

Worth three times as much as the ordinary teeth.

WE CAN SUPPLY PITTS, PLANET, OR HALL HORSE POWERS!

—Eight or ten horse—either DOWN OR MOUNTED ON TRUCKS, as Customers may desire. Also, Trucks built specially for Separators, with broad tires.

We are building a special machine for STEAM THRESHING—with 38-inch cylinder and 42-inch grain belt, and we also supply a Steam Engine which we guarantee to drive our Thresher in a first-class manner as rapidly as it can possibly be fed. Our Engine is made from the most improved model used throughout the United States, and gives universal satisfaction. It is simple in construction, easily and perfectly governed, and not liable to accidents or to get out of order, and all danger from sparks entirely removed.
