Emergency men gone, the people returned to the farm and set fire to the timber of which the hut was made, and completely reduced it to ashes.

THE BISHOP OF MEATH ON FATHER SHEEHY'S ARREST.

Last Sunday the Most Rev. Dr. Nulty, Bishop of Meath, administered Confirmation In the parish of Slane. Vast numbers of people assembled from all parts to give his Lordsh ; greeting, and in the square of the village there was a mass meeting at which an address was presented to the Bishop on behalf of the local branches of the Land League. In reply Dr. Nulty spoke at some length on the land question. Touching the arrest of Father Sheehy, his Lordship said that he did not know that patriotic priest. He well knew the illustrious Archbishop of Cashel, and read what he had said of the imprisoned clergyman. He well knew that Dr. Uroke would not say one word if he did not absolutely believe in its truth, and, therefore, he said that Father Sheehy was a good and a patriotic priest, who emulated the priests of old in offering up their lives for their people. He (Dr. Nulty) in heart and soul emphatically condemned the Government in arresting and imprisoning him. What did it matter? Let them now arrest bishops and priests. He would gladly follow Father Sheehy. It would be a relief to him (Dr. Nulty) if he was taken up by the minious of the Government and put in jail. It was no disgrace for a bishop or priest to be put in jail. One of the greatest men in Ireland, Archbishop Hurley, of Cashel, was hunted like a wolf by the English Government. He fled to the old castle of Fennon, close by, then owned by the Flemings, where he got a warm refuge. He was discovered, dragged out of it, and brought a prisoner to Dublin, where he suffered a most painful and cruel death-he suffered martyrdom and died for his country. The reason Futher Sheehy was imprisoned was because he loved his country. It was no disgrace to suffer imprisonment in old Ireland. His Lordship again expressed his acknowledgments for the be-for his people. The little he did do was too highly extolled, and his highest reward was to know his countrymen approved of his conduct. He was proud of his people proud of the people of Ireland. The Irish bishops and priests were proud of the conduct and loyalty of the people. They had already travelled together through grief and through danger in the past, through joy and through sorrow ; they bled together, suffered death together and they would be found together to the end. There was no power on earth could separate them.

bak through the town. Whilst coming through Dublin street stones were thrown from the windows, and the military had to frol the windows, and the military had to take refuge in the barracks. The shops had to be closed, and business was absolutely suspendet. I am unable to give an accurate account of the number of the wounded, having had to fly for protection to Hearne's Hotel myself. In the evening the Rev. Messrs. McDonnell, Meagher, Byrne and Cantwell addressed the vast concourse of people, advising them to goquietly to their homes. ### AN ORANGE LODGE AND THE LAND LEAGUE.

AN UNEXPECTED FUBN OF EVENTS.

I wish to make known to the public, as a matter of public interest, what occurred at the last meeting of the Kinnego Orange Lodge. Kinnego is just beside Loughgall, and the Orange Lodge is No 5. This was the usual monthly meeting. The members were not all assembled when Mr. Goodlett, the District Master, with Verner's bailiff, Lavery, made their appearance. The former, who was the chairman, then commanced an attack on the Land League, on Mr. Davitt, and end-ed by attacking Mr. Wilson McDowell, as being one of the Committee of the Loughgall Land League Branch and attending the meetings of the branch. He said land was low enough (in vent I suppose he meant), and that it would never be lower. When he had concluded his tirade, Mr. James Weir, Master of the Lodge, got to his feet amid applause saying that he could bear this no longer. He decleared, in answer to Mr. Goodlett, that land was not low enough, and they must have it cousiderably lower. He said that instead of condemning the Land League they ought to applaud it for the work it did and was doing. The District Master, with as little delay as he could, put it to the vote whether they were satisfied with their Master, James Weir, for holding such opinions, and for being one of those vile Land Leaguers. All present said they were satisfied. Again, in an excited tone, the chairman asked were they going to disgrace themselves by identifying themselves with the Land League teachings. Again, all with the exception of the bailiff, made the same answer. One sensible fellow replied that it was such persons as landlords' hirelings that disgraced Orangelam. So long as they fol-lowed the teachings of the landlords and their hirelings, they used to be called the Kinnego Orange wreckers, now, however, when they followed the teaching of the Land League they were able to live at peace with their neighbours without giving offence to any one. Without further coremony Goodlett was ordered out of the chair, and James Weir was called upon to take it. The new chairman put the question to the meeting, and three times were given cheers for "Brother Weir and the Land League." When there was no

THE PROGRESS OF A COUCH .- The following may be indicated as the progress of a cough in the absence of an efficient check of the lung destroying malady. First, a cold is contracted, the throat becomes inflamed and the irritation causes a spasmodic contraction and dilation of the lungs, accompanied with a dull or rattling sound in the throat. This daily increases in violence, and as it does, aggravates the bronchial irritation until the lungs become seriously affected. Then abcesses or incipient sores form upon their tisaue, which rapidly develop into the fatal tubercles of consumption which eat into and destroy the lungs. Who would knowingly incur such peril as this? The surest means of averting it is Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, a pulmonic which at the same time checks the progress of throat and lung irritation, and gives strength's o those debllitated by a cough. ## THE PEOPLE CHARGED BY HUSSARS.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE "FREEMAN.")

The town of Clonmel was to-day the scene of considerable excitement, in consequence of no less than 20 tenant farms being put up for sale for non-payment of rent. From 10 o'clock in the morning contingents arrived from the surrounding districts, Grange-mockler, Mulliuahone, Carrick-on-Suir, Fethard, Powerstown, &c, accompanied by hands and noners. At one o'clock the different co-tingents formed themselves into a procession, and marched through the streets, the bands playing national sirs. At two o'clock (the hour fixed for the sales) the procession stonged at the courthouse, the place where the sales were advertised to take place. The Messrs. Goddard Dudgeon, and Emerson, solicitor, represented the Emergency Committee, and the Rev. Meesrs. Wm. Meagher, Power and McDonnell advanced the biddings and conducted the proceedings on behalf of the tenants. All the farms put up for sale, with the exception of about three, were struck down to the Emergency bidders, Messrs. Goddard and Dadgeon, as soon as the bidding realised the Government valuation. The cheering in the courthouse at the conclusion of each sale was almost deafening. Immediately before the last farm was put up for sale news came into the courthouse that serious disturbances were taking place outside, whereupon the Rev. Mr. Meagher went out to restore quiet. Having addressed the people at some length, he reminded them of the words lately uttered by the illustrious Archbishop of Cashel, "That beneath the red and green many sympathetic hearts beat." This tranquilized the people somewhat, and the rev. and patriotic gentleman invited the people to quit that portion of the town and not to violate the peace. It appears the cause of all this excitement was owing to a false rumor that the Rev. Mr. Meagher had been arrested. The military consisting of about 100 Hussars, drafted from Oshir and Fethard, and about 100 men of the 48th Foot, and a large number of constahulary, were drawn up in military order in Nelson street. A small excited crowd, consisting of about two dozen persons, men, women, and children, were standing a the footpath at the corner of Nelson e rest, listening to the advice of the Rev. Mr. wyrne, of Clonmel, when suddenly an order as given to the Hussars to charge. The impany charged the unarmed crowd fall peed on the footpath, slashing their swords in an unmerciful manner. Some of the soldiers' horses fell in the charge, and the people had to seek refuge in shops, private houses, hotels, &c. The troops again came charging City and Suburban News.

ST. PATRICK'S T. A. & B. SOCIETY. THE PATRIOTIC PRELATE FURTHER ENDORSED. The monthly meeting of this Society was held on Snudy afternoon in the long room of the St. Patrick's Church. There was a large attendance of the members. The President, Mr. B Emerson, occupied the chair. Arrangements were made for the due celebration of Procession Sunday, and for the forthcoming pilgrimage to St. Anne de Beaupre in the month of July.

After the usual routine business, the following resolution was adopted amid great applause :- That we, the members of the St. Patrick's T. A. & B. Society of Montres!, have read, with unmingled pleasure and patriotic pride, the noble and well-timed utterances of His Grace, the Right Rev Archb'sho, Croke, in this momentous crisis for the "ople of Ireland. We are satisfied his words, full of wise counsel and devotion for fatherland, find an echo in every Irish heart throughout the world; we rejoice in anticipation of the steadfast courage those speeches will infuse into the hearts of our long oppressed but still strugeling race; and whilst respectfully tendering our heartfelt thanks for $3.10 to 3.25; sodaath, 5 to 1.70; bi-chrothe unflinching stand His Grace has taken, we fervently pray that it may please Almighty God long to allow him to fulfil his mission, as the fearless, patriotic and prudent counsellor of the frish nation.
