

the crowd in the square of St. Francisco de Paula. To prevent the profound horror caused to the Bannabite by the equestrian statues of Charles III. and Ferdinand I. de Bourbon, near which the scarlet tribune of Garibaldi's chapel is erected, the heads of the sovereigns have been covered over with drapery. In his sermon on St. Januarius' Day, this new apostle of liberty addressed ironical thanks and praises to the saints and called him a galantuomo. A few persons applauded and laughed but the great majority expressed dissatisfaction and accused the preacher of impiety. The people, however, were wrong to regard seriously the crack brained discourses and ridiculous gestures of this mountebank. For my part, I never saw any one so ignobly stupid as this unfrocked monk.

We London Tablet have been favoured by Sir George Bowyer with the following letter, for the authenticity of which he vouches. It is from a Neapolitan correspondent:—

I feel sure you will like to have a few details of all that has taken place at Naples. I have them from a friend, an Englishman who has been staying six years at Naples, and who left two days after Garibaldi's entrance. He was present at all that took place. There was not a decent person to be seen in the streets, none but Piedmontese rabble and Garibaldi's men; every shop was shut—even the costermonger had disappeared; not a carriage was to be seen; and Naples, so animated the day before, looked like a city of the dead. Garibaldi arrived by the chemin de fer from Castellamare. He made his entry in a hired carriage, with Major Windham by his side, in dressed in red shirt, with pointed hats, and looking like real brigands. Two or three other carriages followed, full of Garibaldians, armed with pikes and guns, crying "Viva Garibaldi!" and forcing all those they met to do the same. My friend was walking with another Englishman; they neither of them took off their hats, and cry "Viva Garibaldi!" They neither obeyed the summons; but, seeing the menacing gestures of the men, they jointly said, "We are English." On hearing this the men left them, crying out, "Va bene!" (Viva Garibaldi!) "Viva gli Inglese!" The two Englishmen followed the procession to the Cathedral; the gates were all locked; finding no one to open them, they were soon forced; they sought everywhere for some bits of wax candle, which they lighted, and placed on the altar; the apostate priest Gavazzi sang the Te Deum, crying out every now and then "Viva Garibaldi!" From the Cathedral Garibaldi and his band went to the Palazzo d'Angri, of which they took possession, ordering thirteen beds to be prepared, and a dinner for himself and his men. The Duke and Duchess d'Angri are in Paris. After dinner, all circulation was prohibited in the streets, the watchmen being "non si passa perche riposa il Generale." The same evening Naples was paisee with the digneux Piedmontese, which were all ready for the occasion.

The next day, being the Fete "de Piedegrotta," Garibaldi went there, followed by a certain number of priests and monks he had let out of the prison of Nisida, where they had been confined for misdeemeanors. The people assisted in silence at this disgraceful mockery.

For the last month the cafes and restaurants at Naples had received orders from the Societes to give just whatever the Garibaldians might ask for.

SPAIN.

The Spanish government has addressed to the different powers a note supporting the protest issued by the King of Naples when retreating to Gaeta. The Spanish note recalls that, by the treaty of the Quadruple Alliance of 1718, the kingdom of the Two Sicilies had been ceded by Austria to the Spanish Bourbons. This cession was afterwards confirmed by the treaty of Vienna, the article 114 of the final act of Vienna having, under the guarantee of Europe, again sanctioned these stipulations. The Spanish government considers it its duty to maintain, in the most formidable manner, the rights of a member of the august family of Spain, and to raise every opposition against the flagrant violation of solemn arrangements.

CHINA.

It seems quite clear that the Chinese will resist to the utmost at the Peiho. The French took four prisoners during their late reconnaissance. These were fishermen from the Peiho—one from Peitang. They state that large camps are formed on either side of the river, and that the numerous cavalry have been turned loose on the adjacent crops. They fired on the French when reconnoitering last week, and no doubt Pang-ho-in-sin will do his best.

The good health of the troops continues. Sir Hope Grant has embarked 11,194 men for service at the Peiho in as good condition as though they were taken from the healthiest rural district at home. The horses were shipped on the 23rd, and I went over to the bay to witness the sight. The transports were anchored in the bay, and paddle-box boats and horse boats were all in requisition. The arrangements had been carefully made, were properly carried out, and reflected great credit on Colonel Mackenzie, Colonel Walker, and the Quartermaster-General's staff, as well as on Lord John Hay and the naval officers. 2,000 cavalry and artillery horses and nearly 3,000 ponies and baggage horses were embarked without a single accident. A search transport was filled, a fancy little gunboat walked up to her—a pigmy beside a giant—looked her on and carried her whither she listed. There is nothing afloat like these English gunboats. They turn within their own length, poke their noses into every creek along the coast and are the school in which some of the best men in our navy have been trained. Sherard Osborn, Commodore, Bythesse, Corbet Dow, and many like them, received their training in a forty or an eighty, and the whole fleet of pigmies may be brought round the Cape without one single mishap.

P. K.

We have but little confidence in the trumpet tongued statements of the proprietors of advertised medicines generally, but we are forced to concur in this opinion, uniformly expressed by all who have used Perry Davis' Pain Killer, that it is a very valuable article, and one that it would be well for every household to have at hand, in case of bruises, scalds, burns, diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera, fever and ague, and the host of diseases, external and internal, which it is adapted to cure or alleviate. No article of medicine ever attained to such unbounded popularity and extensive diffusion. Invented only sixteen years since, its curative powers have been experienced by many, many thousands in every section of the United States and Canada. It has penetrated to every part, even the most remote of the known world, bearing with it its healing influence more potent than those spices of "Araby the blessed." We are informed by our principle druggists, that they sell more of this article for exportation than of any and all others, and that the demand is constantly increasing.—Salem Observer.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

The qualities of this medicine have placed it upon an imperishable foundation. In destroying disease, and inducing health it has no parallel.

For the following complaints these Bitters are a Specific, viz.:—Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Heart Burn, Acidity, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Headache, and General Debility.

In many sections of our country this preparation is extensively used by physicians in their practice, and it seems to have restored many to health who were apparently beyond the reach of the healing art.

Subjoined are a few tributes from well known physicians:

MANSFIELD, TIOGA Co., Pa., Aug. 25, 1858.

I have used the Oxygenated Bitters in my practice with decided success in debility and general prostration, &c., and diseases of the digestive organs.

F. H. WHITE, M. D.

AUBURN, N. Y., Sept. 6, 1858.

Gentlemen:—I have been in the drug business the last fifteen years, and have never sold a medicine which has given such great satisfaction in cases of Dyspepsia as the Oxygenated Bitters, and in this disease I always recommend it.

H. G. FOWLER.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Nov. 12, 1854.

Gentlemen:—I am pleased to state, that I have tried the Oxygenated Bitters for indigestion and Debility, and found immediate relief from using only a part of a bottle. I have the greatest confidence in it as a cure for Dyspepsia and General Debility, and recommend it with much pleasure.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the result of a disordered bowels. Some little sickness is creeping upon you, and should be resisted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the system. They will not only remove the bile, and let the blood move on unobstructed in health again. They should be taken at the first signs of a disordered bowels, to purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles some where in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. Thence, if not relieved, result upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general debility, and various diseases. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangement, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the bowels, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this tract, and common complaint, is also true in many of the most serious and dangerous disorders. The same purgative effect is caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Corresponding Member of St. Louis, Feb. 1, 1853.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Your Pills are the purgative of all that I great use. They have cured my little daughter of a chronic sore upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long greatly afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORRIDGE.

As a Family Purgative.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.
Your Pills are the prince of purgatives. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR BRO. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say that I have cured every case of purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficient cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 1, 1853.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the most distressing headache and neuralgia, by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREMIE, Clerk of St. Andrew's Church.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely regret that we have not a length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and do not hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of biliousness that I did not find it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO HALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. F. Hines, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

Dr. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. F. HINES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 21, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, &c., &c.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.
