AFTER THE HOLIDAY.

The space of free breathing is over, The wheels grind under my feet; Stale, and fetid, add clammy, I smell the smell of the street.

Yet something is mine; each morning I hear the splash of the sea, And through my dreams it sparkles And quivers incessantly.

Round my chair the heather is growing. And the walls of my stud fade And change, till they seem brue moun-tains

The Ottawa University.

Ottawa's Great Catholic Educational Institution Opened Last Week Under Very Favorable Circumstances.

Senale Reding Rm 15

Things are beginning to hum around the Ottawa University. The halls, where for more than two months silence and solitude have enjoyed an almost absolute sway, now re-echo with the shouts and laughter of returning students. Acquaintance greeting acquaintance, friend bid-ding we come to friend after lengthened separation, are now familiar sights in the many corridors of the institution. The professors are to-day very much occupied making arrangements for the reception of incoming pupils. Tuesday more than 150 were registered. This is considered a remarkably good showing. The bulk of those who will attend this year arrived last week by C. P. R. rather Constantineau, who is in the number of Americans this year will be as session will be, as regards numbers, a banner one in the records of the university. Quebec, Ontario and the Maritime provinces will send their usual

CHANGES IN THE STAFF.

There have been several changes in the university. Amongst others, Father Wm. Murphy has been named prefect of studies in place of Father Niles, who resumes his duties as professor of classics. Rev. Father Thomas Murphy will assist in the editorship of the Owl. Rev. Father Fallon has returned from Rome, where he made his theological studies, and will Catholic school at Selkirk is in charge of the institution where he now occupies team when the organization was living torough its palmiest days. He will be associated with Father Thomas Murphy in the management of the College Journal, the Owl. In addition to this he will occupy a position in the disciplinary department and most likely will again. be placed in charge of the football team. He is certainly a big acquisition to the teaching staff.

Taking everything into consideration the prospecis are brightest for a most successful year in Ottawa's leading educational institution.

Wedding Bells.

One of these happy events wherein two loving hearts are made to beat as one occurred on Tuesday morning at St. Mary's church, Rev. Joseph McCarthy, O. M. I., tying the nuptial knot between Mr. McKinnon of Rat Portage and Miss C. McIlroy, sister of contractor D. B. McIlroy and James McIlroy of this city. The Bride was attired in a most becoming costume of cream cashmere, trimmed with antique lace. The bridesmaid was Miss M. Coyle and the groomsman was Mr. Murphy of Rat Portage. we iding ceremony was over, the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's sister Mrs. T. Co. le Nell e Street, where a sumptuous wedging breakfast was enjoyed. The bride and groom left for their future home in Rat Portage by the 12.20 Atlantic express taking away with them the best wishes of their numerous friends for their future Lappiness in life. The bride was the recipient of many costly presents from her numerous acquaintances. The Review wishes the happy couple a long and prosperous
