CLAIMS

Canada waives all claims against Namibia for losses of - or damage to - any property owned or used by Canada where such loss or damage is caused by a trainee acting in the course of his/her official duties and where there is no evidence of neglect or malice on the part of the trainee.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

CLAIMS

Canada and Namibia waive all claims against each other for injury or death suffered by a trainee or a member of the Canadian Forces while either is engaged in the performance of his/her official duties. The parties agree that, for the purpose of any claim by any person arising out of the injury or death of a trainee in the performance of his/her duties, Canada shall be deemed, for the purpose of this Agreement, to be the agent of Namibia, and that all such claims shall accordingly lie against Namibia in accordance with Namibian law.
