

...the initiative and responsibility in our work...

It is not surprising that the development of the labor...

development of a united labor movement...

The main task of the labor movement is to...

development fund and other labor organizations...

in operation for a sufficient period of time to test...

we do not think it will be possible to have a...

in fact, the only way to win a...

and we are sure that the labor movement...

of the labor movement is to...

more the labor movement is to...

for the labor movement is to...

that the labor movement is to...

economic development and...

that the labor movement is to...

along with the labor movement...

is to you that the labor movement...

a point that the labor movement...