

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE

Thursday, June 17, 1993

The Standing Committee on Aboriginal Peoples has the honour to present its

SIXTH REPORT

Your Committee, to which was referred the Bill C-103, An Act to provide for the repeal of the Land Titles Act and to amend other Acts in relation thereto, has in obedience to its Order of Reference of Wednesday, June 16, 1993, examined the said Bill and now reports the same without amendment.

Respectfully submitted,

Le président

LEN MARCHAND

Chairman

RAPPORT DU COMITÉ

Le jeudi 17 juin 1993

Le comité permanent des peuples autochtones a l'honneur de présenter son

SIXIEME RAPPORT

Votre Comité, auquel a été déferé le Projet de loi C-103, Loi permettant l'abrogation de la Loi sur les titres de biens-fonds et modifiant certaines lois en conséquence, a, conformément à son ordre de renvoi du mercredi 16 juin 1993, étudié ledit projet de loi et en fait maintenant rapport sans amendement.

Respectueusement soumis,

The second reference of a bill to a committee is a common occurrence in the House of Commons. It is a procedure which allows the House to consider a bill in detail and to make amendments. The bill in question is Bill C-103, An Act to provide for the repeal of the Land Titles Act and to amend other Acts in relation thereto. The bill was referred to the Standing Committee on Aboriginal Peoples on June 16, 1993. The committee has the honour to report the bill without amendment. The committee has examined the bill and has found it to be in order. The committee has also heard from interested parties and has taken their views into account. The committee has concluded that the bill is in the best interests of the people of Canada and that it should be passed by the House of Commons. The committee has no amendments to propose. The committee has also heard from interested parties and has taken their views into account. The committee has concluded that the bill is in the best interests of the people of Canada and that it should be passed by the House of Commons. The committee has no amendments to propose.