

experienced during the last few years have come to us partly because of our refusal to recognize and act upon our responsibilities to these unfortunate people who are afflicted in a way that it is impossible for any of us who have our sight to appreciate. Let us give further consideration to their request. I never saw the Finance minister in a more disheartened mood than on the evening when he announced that it would not be possible to carry into effect that resolution. He would like to have done so; let us encourage him. The supplementary estimates are still to come down. Let us follow the poet, who said:

Because right is right
To follow right were wisdom
In the scorn of consequence.

I see my time has expired and I will therefore conclude.

The house divided on the amendment to the amendment (Mr. Hansell) which was negated on the following division:
