

Hallville Recreation Assoc. holds Hallowe'en Dance

Horse pull

About 500 turned out for the event May 17 at the Mountain Township Agricultural Fair grounds in South Mountain.

Heavy Horse Director Roy Sherrer said it was "one hell of a day" with great support being shown from the community.

He also thanked the number of sponsors involved with the horse pull on Sunday.

The 32 teams of horses competing in the event displayed their strength from noon until 7:00 p.m.

Mr. Sherrer said a barbeque that "went great" inspite of damp and cool weather fed the crowd at about the halfway mark of the competition.

These horses show off their strength as well as beauty

The Weekly Advance, Wednesday, May 20, 1987

The annual Hallville Recreation Association hallowe'en dance was held on October 18 at the South Mountain Agriculture Hall. Over 200 people attended, many in costume, making the dance a huge success. Excellent costumes many hand made, were present to add to the mood set by the decorations which had been put up by the social committee. Prizes were awarded for: 1) Best Male Costume - the flasher - who is best left anonymous due to the nature of his costume; 2) Best Female Costume: Baby girl - (Susan Fairfield); 3) Best Couple: Little Red Riding Hood and the Big Bad Wolf (Kelly Brown and Allan Whan); 4) Best Overall - non commercial - green face monster (Charlie Bass); 5) Best Overall - Mrs. M.I.T. - anonymous.

The door prize was won by Shawn Irwin. Mastering the music was Smitty's Disco who did an excellent job of keeping the dance floor full. Hope to see all of you again next year.

The Weekly Advance, Wednesday, October 29, 1986

CHRISTMAS CRAFT SHOW

This is the third year the Lions Club has held the arts and crafts show,

Angela McGowan purchases a poinsettia, a traditional Christmas plant, from Barbara Lough at the Mountain Township and District Lions Club craft fair on the weekend. Over 25 local exhibitors sold close to $17,000 worth of goods. Proceeds from the snack bar and raffle will help the Lions Club continue with worthwhile programs in the area.

Lizzie Tucker, 7, hugs one of the Plush Pal bears on sale at the Mountain Township and District Lions Club craft sale last weekend. The fair attracted close to 1,000 visitors.

The Winchester Press Wed., Dec. 7, 1988